OFFICE CAT

Somebody has suggested music as a cure for crime. Fine, if we can only make the criminals face it.

Little Mary (getting her first sight of a peacock)—Look quick, aunty, one of your chickens is in bloom.

"Is it true that you have broken off your engagement?" asked Charlie, the salesman.

"No," said Clerk Tom, "I didn't break it off."

"Oh, she broke it off, then?" Tom again shook his head.

"But it is broken off, isn't it?"

"Oh, yes. She told me what her millinery bill was and I told her how much I got a week. Then our engagement just sagged in the middle and gently faded out."

AT THE THEATERS

"Dressed To Kill" Scores At Star

Once in a blue moon a picture comes that exceeds all the promises made for it and such a one came to town yesterday and had its first showing at the Star theater.

The picture is "Dressed to Kill," Fox Films novel story of the modern underworld.

Edmund Lowe, remembered for his splendid work in "What Price Glory," plays the role of "Mile Away Harry," the master crook, debonair, immaculately dressed, perfectly groomed, patron of the opera and night clubs and consort of all the ladies in direct contrast to the accepted type of thug who sneaks up a dark alley and belays his victim with a black jack.

Ren Hard is his chief assistant and Mary Astor plays the leading feminine role, adding her refreshing beauty to the picture, while Charles Morton plays opposite her in the romantic role.

There is much to commend this delightful entertainment. Thrills, laughter, suspense and heart interest, and a story out of the ordinary that retains its interest from beginning to end.

"Girls of The Underworld" At Colonial Today

Should mothers take into confidence their daughters and should daughters come to their mothers with the vital questions in life? Should fathers tell their sons the pitfalls that lay in their paths to young manhood? These are questions that are told fearlessly in a thrilling and amazing story of the "Girls of the Underworld." False modesty is ruthlessly cast aside and the questions that are of vital interest to every young girl and boy are exposed, but in a manner that will not offend.

Great educators and educators have said that the American people adhere to a false modesty that has caused the ruin of thousands of youths who could have been saved had they but known.

In the "Girls of the Underworld" there is no lecture, no slides and no disappointments. The truth of the sex problem is told and is a warning to the rising generation, while parents may also learn a lesson that they will never forget.

This picture has had a long run in New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland and many of the smaller cities.

The "Humantone Singing Interlude" offered in the presentation of the picture will be given for the first time in this city.

A special matinee will be given for the ladies only and the night shows will be for men only. No children will be admitted unless with parents.

PREDICTION: Nineteen-twenty-eight, being leap year, will be noted for its males resistance.

A Texas frontiersman came into camp riding an old mule.

"How much for the mule?" asked a bystander.

"Just a hundred dollars," answered the rider.

"I'll give you five dollars," said the other.

The rider stopped short, as if in amazement, and then slowly dismounted. "Stranger," said he, "I ain't a-goin' to let a little matter of ninety-five dollars stand between me and a mule trade. The mule's yours."

Fields and Conklin At Arcade Today

A trip to Huntersville in the company of W. C. Fields and Chester Conklin, inimitable kings of mirth, is one of the finest bits of entertainment that could be found anywhere. Such a journey is afforded in "Pools for Luck," the Paramount comedy which opens at the Arcade theater today for three days.

Sparkling humorous situations, worked through a logical and highly interesting story speeded with an appealing love theme, make this

OUT OUR WAY

Lots 18, 19, 20 and 21 in Block Three (3), South Elgin. Also beginning at the Northwest corner of Block Three, running thence South 200 feet, thence East 60 feet, thence North 200 feet, thence West 60 feet to the place of beginning.

You will further take notice that this summons is published once a week for six consecutive weeks in the La Grande Evening Observer, a daily newspaper published within Union County, Oregon, by order of the Honorable J. W. Knowles, Judge of the above entitled Court.

FOR SALE

2 Acres, close in in Fruitdale, 4-room house, wired for light, water right that means something, berries and family orchard. Will sell or exchange for larger acreage.

An exceptionally well improved farm, equipped with high-grade cows and sheep, and a city milk route bringing in $450 per month. Farm produces sufficient hay to feed all the stock and last year there was a surplus of 80 tons. This is no shoe-string proposition—a real farm, real equipment selected stock. It requires a few thousand dollars as a first investment. While the owner desires to sell, his reason is not financial, for it is a real money maker and will stand the acid test upon investigation.

40 Acres well improved on market road near La Grande, all in cultivation, and an additional 10 acres of timber, all for $5,000. Investigate this.
