

Local News in Brief

Dolbow Improved—Dolbow, of Island City, who has been ill for the last two weeks, is reported to be much improved.

Rev. L. H. Aweas is expected to return home tomorrow morning on Spokane on train No. 24 from Portland.

At Work—Carl Shepherd has returned to work after being off for some time because of a fractured wrist. Mr. Shepherd is an O.W. conductor.

Reynolds Better—Mrs. J. E. Reynolds, who has been ill for several weeks, is steadily improving and will probably be able to leave her bed in a week.

Visiting at Juntura—Mrs. L. Faus and her daughter, Elaine, have been visiting for the last 10 days at Juntura with Mrs. Faus' sister. They are expected to be in a day or so. Mrs. Faus is leader in P.-T. A. activities in Grande.

Spending Summer Here—Mary Nibley, of Salt Lake City, spent here a few days ago to spend the summer with her uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Covey, at their home at 2910 Covey. Mrs. Nibley has just returned from the L. D. S. college.

Committee Met—The finance committee met with the advisory board of the Baptist church last evening for a business session that was devoted to outlining plans which will be later presented to the church body.

For Treatment—P. H. Taal was here yesterday for treatment. Mr. Taal recently had his foot fractured in a construction accident near Hilgard. He is recovering from the injury very satisfactorily.

Reading Normal—Miss Dorothy Anderson is the guest of Miss Mildred Hogg while she is here attending the summer normal session. Miss Anderson is primary teacher near Tillamook. Mrs. Hogg is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Hess, of the artist church.

From Sacramento—Miss Jennie McConnell, of Sacramento, has been here since Saturday looking after business interests. She is visiting with her many friends in the McCall family.

Home From Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bunting returned home yesterday from a combined business and pleasure trip to Seattle, Portland and coast cities. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. Robb, of Boise, who is a salesman at the Boise office of the Hunting Tractor company. The trip of about a week's duration, was made by car.

Receives Sad News—Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mackey were notified yesterday of the death of Mrs. Mackey's brother-in-law, Ray Miller, in Portland. Although Mr. Miller had been ill for about five months, the news of his death came as a shock as his illness had not been considered serious. Pneumonia set in a few days ago and his weakened constitution was unable to withstand it. Mr. and Mrs. Miller spent several weeks here this spring returning just about a month ago to Portland. At that time Mr. Miller was much better. Mrs. Mackey left for Portland last night and will spend about 10 days with her sister, who was formerly Gertrude Bussard. Mr. Mackey will leave tonight, remaining until Thursday. Mr. Miller is a member of a pioneer family at Albany, the son of Mart Miller, deceased, who crossed the plains to come to Oregon. Three brothers and three sisters and his widow survive him. Mrs. Miller made her home here for a number of years and has a number of friends in La Grande.

Returns to Elgin—Miss Francis Gates returned yesterday to Elgin after visiting here for a few days. Miss Gates was the guest of Miss Genevieve Adler during her stay.

Returns to Work—Miss Ina Robertson returned to work Monday after being ill for several days following a fall down a basement stairway. Miss Robertson is employed at the offices of E. Russell Scott, scout executive.

Here for Conference—Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson and daughters, Volma and Zelda, were among the many out-of-town families who attended the L. D. S. conference Sunday. They are from Union.

Leave for Portland—Mr. and Mrs. A. Ellsworth, pastors at the Assembly of God church, left for Portland to attend a general council and camp meeting. From there they will go to Walla Walla to take charge of the church during the months of July, August and September, then they will return to La Grande. Evangelist Hal Kelsch, Princeton, accompanied them and will return here to be in charge of the church during the pastor's absence. Usual services will be held at the mission Wednesday evening with Mr. McCoy of Tubler as speaker. Friday Mr. Evans will speak. Evangelist Princeton will hold Sunday services.

Shook Hands With President—A visit to the White House when she shook hands with President Coolidge was one of the pleasurable events of an interesting trip East from which Mrs. Julia R. Metzler returned last week. Mrs. Metzler was gone about two months visiting for the major part of the time in Idaho, New York, with her brother-in-law and sister, Professor and Mrs. Fairbanks (Heien). Mr. Fairbanks is a professor at Cornell. Among the many Cornell activities Mrs. Metzler witnessed was the exciting Cornell-Yale boat race. She also visited in New York City, Detroit, Chicago, and other Eastern cities. Mrs. Metzler has resumed her stenographic position at the O.W. office.

End Visit Here—Mrs. M. F. Green (Marie Bolton) and Mrs. E. R. Mason (Emilie Bolton) both of Duluth, Minn., left Sunday night for Western Oregon after visiting here for three days at the home of their brother, C. G. Bolton, on Fourth street. Both are former residents of La Grande and had a very pleasant visit with friends here. They have been visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Bolton in Burns, former prominent La Grande citizens. They will visit in Portland and Seattle before returning home. While traveling by train to Oregon Mrs. Green and Mrs. Mason chanced to meet Miss Margaret Anson of La Grande at Omaha, who was on the same train en route home from Chicago. They traveled together as far as North Platte, Neb., and had a pleasant visit as a result of their unusual meeting.

Back at Work—Mrs. D. N. Mosby, who has been quite ill for several days, is able to be at work again and is much improved.

Here From Nampa—Mrs. L. R. Papp and daughter, Phyllis Ann, are visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Allen, at their home on Cedar street. They expect to stay two weeks.

Visiting Here—Mrs. C. S. Jordan and daughter, Alice, will arrive this evening on train No. 18 from Portland where they have been for the last two weeks and will visit here for a week or ten days at the home of her brother, the Rev. H. W. Parker. Mrs. Jordan makes her home in Shoshone, Ida.

Ends Visit Here—Joe "Slick" Reynolds left yesterday by car after visiting here for nearly a week with his father, J. E. Reynolds and brothers and sister. He will attend the summer coaching school to be conducted at O. S. C. by Knute Roche and then will return to California where he now makes his home.

Visiting From Pomeroy—Mrs. A. E. Henry and two daughters, Jean and June, are here on an extended visit with Mrs. Henry's mother, Mrs. J. W. Staleup. Mrs. Henry is a sister of George, June, Eugene and Chester Staleup of La Grande. She and her little daughter, who will remain for about two more weeks before returning home.

Returns to Eugene—Miss Eleanor Glass returned Saturday to Eugene after visiting here for several days with friends. Miss Glass graduated from U. of O. this month. Her work on route home is indefinite. Miss Glass accompanied Dr. A. L. Richardson, who was called for a consultation to Western Oregon. The doctor and Mrs. Richardson are on a vacation trip.

Postpone Dinner—For various reasons including the event of warm weather, the Knights of Pythias decided not to have the social meeting which was scheduled for next Monday evening when they met in business session last night. A dinner was to have been a feature of the social night. Harley Stenoch, chamberlain commander, presided at the short session last evening at which approximately 20 members were in attendance.

Here on Way Home—A. D. Christanson, junior forester of Walla Walla county was in La Grande last week on route home from the Big Hole country in Montana where he has been for a month as one of the foremen in a 500-man fight to destroy tree-damaging insects in the forest regions of the country. Mr. Christanson declares that the month's experience was really interesting. He is absorbed in the forestry work and makes nature study quite a hobby. Mr. Christanson is known to La Grande boys scouts, having been one of the camp instructors last year. He will be at camp this year, with a "bagful" of new ideas for the boys, says Mr. Scott, scout executive who had a pleasant visit with Mr. Christanson while he was here. Incidentally, Mr. Christanson may claim the discovery of a new plant species, heretofore unrecorded in the United States. This plant discovery was made while on the encampment last year.

Summer School Closing Session—The school went home for a couple of days at the end of the week. The Ven. S. W. Cressley left early Friday morning for Walla Walla to bring home his daughter, Margaret, who is a student at Whitman. Mrs. Cressley returned Friday evening, and Miss Margaret returned Monday to attend commencement at Whitman.

The Kansas was met at the railroad station by George Akerson, representing Secretary Hoover, republican presidential nominee, who invited him to confer with Hoover at noon and to lunch with him at the Hoover home at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Senator Curtis refused to discuss any campaign plans until after the midday conference.

The nominee said that he had hurried to Washington to confer with Mr. Hoover. He said he expected that many of the campaign details would be settled Thursday when the republican national committee meets here.

Tornado Sweeps Iowa Area; Much Damage Caused

CRESTON, Iowa, June 19 (AP)—A storm of terrific violence swept the farming section between Cromwell and Stringtown, southwest of Creston, last night, demolishing buildings, uprooting trees and killing livestock. No one was injured, so far as reports available early today indicated, but crippled communication lines made an accurate check of the storm damage impossible. Every building on the Clarence Bush farm, including the residence was blown down and only two head of livestock were alive after the storm had passed. Buildings were damaged at several other farms near the Bush property.
