Wheat Unsettled; Prices Unchanged

CHICAGO, June 21 (AP)—Opening unchanged to 1c higher, wheat prices scored a general advance, but afterward reacted. Corn, oats and provisions were easy, with corn starting ½c off to ½c up and subsequently showing a sag all around.

Wheat closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to ½c higher with corn ¾ to 1¾c down; oats unchanged to ½c off and provisions varying from 5c decline to a rise of 10c.

Frequent Shifts Feature Trading

NEW YORK, June 21 (AP)— Frequent shifts of speculative sentiment characterized today's stock market with the general price tendency lower. Stocks rallied one to four points at the opening, lost their gains and in many cases recorded substantial recessions in a mid-day reaction and then started upward again in the early afternoon. Plenty of stock was for sale on the rallies.

The closing was firm. Strength of investment rails and full recovery in American Locomotive and American Car and Foundry, started a bullish advance in the final hour. Coal carriers and rail mergers were extensively bought. Nickel Plate raising four points. Impressive advances also were established by many high priced shares, notably DuPont, up five. Total sales approximated 1,700,000 shares.

BERRY SEASON IS NEARING THE END

About 10 Days More, Grocers Report — Locals Are $2 a Crate

Local grocers this morning gave strawberries just 10 days more on the markets. Milton-Freewater berries are already off the markets and grocers expect that both the locals and Hood Rivers will be exhausted for regular markets in less than two weeks.

The peak of the canning season has been reached and with the supply due to be exhausted in the near future, the demand is about normal. Berries are quoted at 10 cents a box or $2 a crate for locals and Hood River berries are $3.25 a crate and 15 cents a box.

Raspberries In

Rhubarb is no longer available and neither are brussel sprouts, Walla Walla spinach and artichokes. Home-grown spinach is selling at 10 cents. Raspberries are now on the counters, retailing at 20 cents a box. Lemons are up to 50 cents and melons are quoted at four and a half cents a pound.

In the vegetable market Elgin hothouse tomatoes are selling at 40 cents, new Texas cabbage and wax onions at five cents and string beans are being offered at 20 cents a pound, a drop of five cents since last week. Asparagus is up to 15 cents and the supply is not large.

THOSE WHO ENTERTAIN

Will be interested in seeing the beautiful Dinnerware and Glass service which will be used in connection with the Observer's Cooking School this week. Both the Dinnerware and Fostoria Glass are furnished by the Richardson Art and Gift Shop and are the very latest things in the way of table service. The new pattern of Bird of Paradise, Bavarian China is unusually attractive and dainty and in combination with the new patterns of Fostoria Glassware makes a most beautiful table. Mr. Richardson invites you to see these Items correctly used at the Observer's Cooking School this week. 6-19-4t

Current Canning Season Finding Supply Strong

PORTLAND, Ore., June 21 (AP) —Currant canning season is now here and local wholesale markets are well supplied with unusually fine stuff going at $1.75 per crate.

Cherries are now at the height of the season, with harvests on in earnest. Local stocks were bringing 12½@15c per pound for Bings and 8@10c for Royal Annes. Tartarians, and pie cherries of other varieties were beginning to go begging at 7c.

Strawberries were easier today with slightly heavier receipts. Best offerings brought $1.65@1.75, while other varieties sold as low as $1.50. Loganberries were steady at $1.50 and raspberries at $2.25 per crate.

Old potatoes were moving well today, with most sales of local stock bringing around 50c per sack while U. S. No. 1 Deschutes netted gems out of storage sold at $1.25 per sack. New potatoes were steady at $2@2.75 per cwt.

Trading was fairly active on the country dressed meat and poultry markets, but prices were steady and unchanged. Receipts were moderate but sufficient to satisfy demand.

No changes were quoted in butter and egg prices today.

"I Wish We Could Get Out of Debt"

Many families voice this complaint, month after month, and yet keep right on saying "Charge it" instead of, "I'll pay for it now."

Being free from debt, and able to look the future squarely in the face, is a big factor in success. No one does good work when they are worried about over-due payments, and if unemployment comes it can be faced much more easily when there are no bills coming in.

That is one of the most important ways a J. C. Penney Company Store serves the community. We can save you a small sum on every purchase, and keep you out of debt at the same time.
