

Swim-- In A Bradley

There's nothing more enjoyable in the summer than a swim in some inviting pool or lake.

And there's nothing better looking in or out of the water than a Bradley Swimming Suit. One and two-piece—all the new season's colors. For women and children.

The normal two-year-old may safely eat one to two tablespoons of orange juice and pulp of the fruit, as apples, peaches, pears or bananas—baked, stewed, crushed or scraped. Between two morning meals, or at the end of the two o'clock feeding is the best time to give it. The three to five-year child may have two to four table-spoonfuls of fruit of mild flavor and delicate texture once or twice a day. Most of them should be cooked.

WALKER WINNER; CROWD PEEVED

Retains Championship in Spite of the Referee's Vote for Hudkins

CHICAGO, June 22 (AP)—The Bull Dog is still champion but he has the marks and bruises of a terrific combat with the Wild Cat to show that he came out of the fray far from unscathed.

After ten slashing rounds that finished in a torrential down pour of rain last night at Comisky park, Mickey Walker, the bull dog, was declared the victor of points over Ace Hudkins, the Nebraska wild cat, but it will be some time before the echoes of protest and dissent from that verdict die down.

Two-to-One Decision

Walker retained his world's middleweight crown on a two-to-one decision. The two judges, Harry Carroll and Edward Kilen, gave their ballots to the title holder, but the referee, Eddie Purdy, cast his vote for the challenger. In the soaked and sodden press row, a clear majority credited Hudkins with being the winner, chiefly on his tireless two-fisted aggressiveness. Most of the experts gave a margin in six of the ten rounds while many credited the blonde wild cat with as many as seven, to offset, in a consequence, the few who figured Walker was justly the winner.

But if there was dissenting decision around the ring it was mild by comparison with the outburst that came from the dripping crowd, some 25,000 to 30,000 spectators who sat doggedly through the downpour, fascinated by the tripping bloody ceaseless battle between the bull dog and the wild cat. The roar of boos and hisses grew, instead of diminishing.

Swarms Into Ring

Hundreds swarmed about the ring to shout and shake their fists. Thousands, more prudent even if also vehement, went back to the shelter of the ball park's stands to vent their vocal wrath. It was one of the wildest demonstrations of disapproval any championship fight has witnessed in recent years, lasting 15 minutes in full volume and a half hour in more sporadic form.

To most of those huddled around the ringside, as the rain beat down in torrents throughout the last three rounds, it appeared clear that the blonde Hudkins, ripping into his foe relentlessly, came back with a whirlwind rally in the last five rounds that offset Walker's previous aggressiveness. Walker with a series of blows to the chin and head had Hudkins groggy and reeling backward and apparently on the verge of a knock out in the fourth round, the most spectacular moment of the fight. Mickey had victory in his grasp here but could not put Hudkins down or even prevent him from finishing this round with a characteristic counter-charge—the lunge of a wounded wild cat.

Heavy hitting sent Portland to an 11 to 6 victory over Hollywood. Four Star twirlers were unable to stop the Beaver sluggers, led by Keesey, Barbee and Johnson with three hits apiece. Batteries: Fox and Yeekes; Kinney, Mulcahy, Fullerton, McCabe and Agnew, Bassler.

Ernie Nevers, former Stanford football star, had a taste of baseball breaks as the Missions dropped a 4-3 decision to Seattle. Swanson included H. Sullivan's fly to the center in the first inning. Sullivan stretching the blow for a homer and scoring two men ahead of him. Knight also homed for Seattle. Batteries: Knight and Parker; Nevers and Whitney.

The Seals took their third straight from Sacramento by a 7-3 count. Elmer Jacobs, San Francisco mound ace, had the loss under his thumb all the way. Batteries: Jacobs and Sprinz; Flynn and Seaverid.

Charlie Tolson's big bat sounded loudly in the 5-4 Los Angeles win over Oakland. The husky Angel first sacker first hit in four appearances to drive in four runs. Sparks held the Angels scoreless after Wetzel retired in the sixth. Batteries: Pitt and Hannah; Wetzel, Sparks and read.

AIRMAIL PILOT KILLED

Baker Defeats Bend 7 to 5 In Extra Innings

BEND, Ore., June 22 (Special)—The Baker nine of the Blue Mountain league defeated the Bend Eagles of the Willamette Valley league, 7 to 5 in a ten-inning game here yesterday. Bend tied the score in the last of the ninth when Renfrow got a three-base hit and scored on Hepting's single.

With the count standing 5-to-5, Baker led off in the tenth with two three baggers by Pillette and Garber, both scoring. Pillette poked out three triples. The only home run of the game was by Hepting, Bend third baseman, in the fourth, with two down.

Bend and Baker will meet in the second game of the two-game series here today. E. H. Kennedy, player-manager of the Bend Elks of the mid-Columbia league for two years, is manager of the Baker team.

McLARNIN WINS FROM MCGRAW IN ROUND ONE

NEW YORK, June 22 (AP)—Smiling Jimmy McLarnin, who enthroned himself in the hearts of New York fight fans in his first appearance by a crushing one-round knock out of Sid Terris, Manhattan's own ghost of the Yankee, has come back to his throne. After a month spent in the shade cast by the terrific drubbing he received at the hands of the lightweight champion, Sammy Mandell, Jimmy made a success of his comeback last night by stopping Phil McGraw after only two minutes, 45 seconds of the first round.

Tackling in McGraw one of the toughest battlers in his class, one whose jaw had never been found vulnerable in over a hundred fights, Jimmy landed three times with his good right mauler, and each time scored a clean knockout. After the fourth time the Detroit florist went to the canvas, and the referee led McLarnin in token of a technical knockout.

Babe Ruth seems to have run the scale in baseball experiences now that, after 15 years, he finally has watched a home run vanish from the records in a rainstorm. He poked his twenty-sixth in right field at the Yankee stadium yesterday, but it was washed from the books when the second half of a Yankee-Athletics double header, was halted by rain.

Young Henry Johnson, Yankee recruit, gave the Athletics their second 1928 shut out in the first game, 4-0, and enabled the Yankees to lengthen their lead to nine and one-half games.

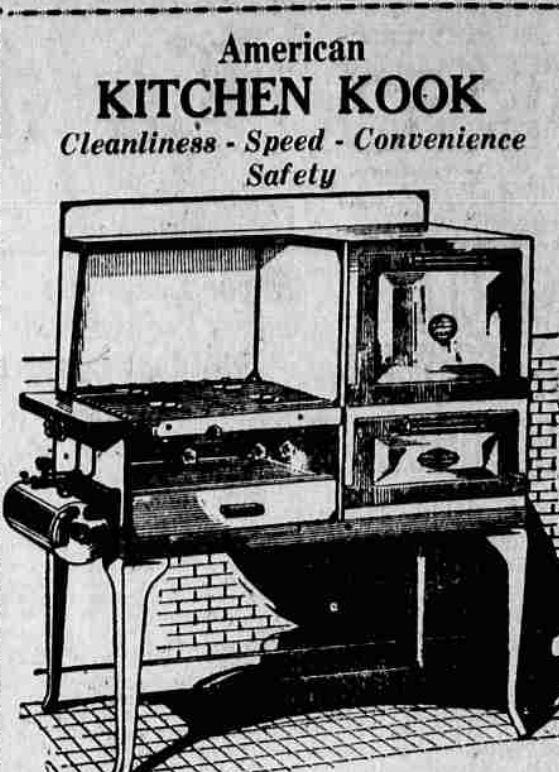

Guerrilla war made along the rest of the American league front saw the Red Sox turn the tables on the Senators, 5-2, while Cleveland was dividing another double header with the lowly White Sox on the Indian reservation. The Indians won the first 4-2, and the White Sox the second, 4-3, with an amazing three-run rally in the ninth.

Chicago's even break coupled with Detroit's double reserve in St. Louis sent Tigers to within half a game of last place, the Browns down, 3-3 and 9-5, as Sebang, Blue and Bettencourt hit home runs.

The torrid National league race, which showed signs of disintegrating under the incessant pounding of the Cardinals, netted a slight gain for the runner-up Reds yesterday. The Rhinelanders won, 5-4.
