"No, only 11."

"His pants," answered the child. "Mother said you wore them."

AT THE THEATERS

Real Drama of Mystery At Colonial Sunday

Rupert Julian and Bertram Millhauser, the "team" responsible for "Three Faces East," "Silence" and "The Country Doctor," three of DeMille's most successful pictures, joined forces in the production of "The Leopard Lady," a new DeMille Studio feature, which comes to the Colonial theater on Sunday. Advance reports indicate this picture to be one of the most pretentious productions of the season thus far released by Pathe, Inc.

Once again is Florence Vidor blossoming out as a comedienne of first water. Her latest Paramount picture, "The King of Kings," was greatly admired, is featured in the little role, together with Alan Hale and Robert Armstrong. Melodrama always has been the forte of both Julian and Millhauser. Julian will be remembered for his direction of "The Phantom of the Opera" and "The Merry Go Round." Millhauser's experience dates back to the serial days, when he first achieved distinct success as the supervisor of "The Perils of Pauline." Heulah Marie Dix prepared "The Leopard Lady" scenario.

The picture, which is a mystery drama, deals with Continental circus life and the solution of several mysterious murders. It is said to be thrilling, dramatic and appealing. Hedwig Lehner, Sylvia Ashton, James Bradbury, Sr., Dick Alexander and other noted screen players are in the supporting cast.

Some of our customers knew that we were running short of Monarch paint again. We just received an invoice that covered three full type-written pages and by the time you read this letter we will again be well stocked in both red and yellow wagon and tractor paint.

Monarch and all different colors and gloss tone that is so famous in painting interior work and furniture. Then more porch and dock paint, a better supply of floor paint, painters triple ground colors in oil. We have to watch the paint department like a hungry dog watches for a hot biscuit to keep a well rounded stock because people are coping in from other cities where they cannot only save money but get the very best paint on earth. We won't pick out a painter for you but we want you to ask any painter in La Grande or around La Grande and ask them what their opinion is of the 100 per cent pure Monarch paint. If he says it is no good you were not talking to a painter.

Now for a little crazy poetry—An old man came to town one day He rode upon a load of hay. He wanted paint and he says, "Say I haven't much here with to pay." So he decided to come our way—So we made him feel just mighty gay.

I never did ride up in a balloon in my life. They say that I would make a good balloon anchor providing I had a strong leather belt with a ring in the back. If I go sailing over La Grande some time walking on the top of house roofs and I have a feeling that the balloon may go higher, I may reach down and pull up one of your shade trees by the roots. Otherwise we are still selling Monarch paint. And besides 100 per cent pure varnish. We have no toothbrushes but we have a good supply of paint brushes and some disc harrows, besides other things in my middle name and nails in keg lots or by the pocket full.

FOR SALE
Modern 6-room bungalow; basement, furnace, hardwood floors, breakfast nook, good plumbing and light fixtures, on improved street, well located. This price for immediate consideration has been cut from $3200 to $2800. Owner has attractive business proposition that he desires to accept, but must sell here before leaving; consequently this sacrifice. Look this up, it is a bargain. Owner will consider light car or truck as part payment. Also would consider a soldier loan.

5 acre tracts adjoining city. 2 acres improved. 10 acres improved. 2 acres improved. There are at least 100 families in La Grande who should be on small acreages. A cow, a garden, fruit and eggs, all produced at home takes an awful wallop out of the high cost of living.
