

SOCIETY NEWS

Club Women Will Meet In Klamath Falls Next Week

Women's clubs of Oregon will meet at Klamath Falls next week in the Southern Oregon city to entertain the annual State Federation of Women's clubs June 25-27.

Just how momentous an event the annual convention has come to be is readily realized by La Grande club women and the entire community as well, who have not gotten the convention here in 16, truly a memorable one. It is "the" event of the year for state in women's club work. It, leaders in every field of the lively meet for an exchange of ideas, here are presented excellent speakers, really worthwhile programs in all art—and here women to enjoy politics have a keen interest. All interests of women in finest civic upbuilding purposes are concentrated at the scene. And, too, there are always amusing social diversions as light as toast to the weighty meetings. It is near at Klamath Falls a trip to Crater lake promises a particularly interesting day, while receptions and the like will be in order. Mrs. Sherwood Williams, retiring neighborhood club president, is the leader of the La Grande delegates.

Mrs. Williams, who was interviewed this morning, said that it had been especially difficult to get a complete delegation of eight in La Grande this year, owing to the distance to the Southern Oregon city. Mrs. W. E. Adler, and Mrs. C. E. Happersett will accompany her when she leaves tomorrow evening, and there will possibly be others. Mrs. Jessa Tryon also attend and is making the trip with Pendleton friends. Mrs. Williams intends to make Mrs. Earl Reynolds and Mrs. W. P. Mohr, both now of Klamath Falls, delegates upon her arrival.

Mrs. George T. Cochran, who is vice president, will be present, Mrs. Williams believes, although Mrs. Cochran is in Oakland just now.

Mrs. Donald Pague as head of drama section of the art department who is now in Western Oregon, is also expected to attend in La Grande.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman, who is chairman of the art department, will not be able to attend.

La Grande club women this morning said that election-year rumors had drifted here already and hinted that there were possibilities of an Eastern Oregon candidate for the presidency.

Mrs. G. J. Frankel is completing the second year of her term, to which she was elected in La Grande. Mrs. Frankel was welcomed to Eastern Oregon this morning on a week's visit.

Incidentally the La Grande women will enjoy visits with quite a number of former La Grande folk now residing in Klamath Falls, among them Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mohr, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mohr.

Hiatts Entertain For Zimmermans

A delightful event of last evening was a bridge party at which Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hiatt entertained at their home on Washington avenue for Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman returned a week ago from their wedding trip to Western Oregon and are now at home at the Lyman apartments.

For the affair bouquets and baskets of garden flowers in pink and white were arranged about the rooms.

Four tables of bridge were at play during the evening with Miss Melba Hanks and Lawton Stearns winning the prizes. Consolation went to Miss Ruth Bramwell, Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman were presented with a guest prize.

Mrs. Hiatt served a two-course luncheon at a late hour.

Guests of the evening were the Misses Ruth Bramwell, Lucille Black, Melba Hanks, Fonda Hanks, Winona Lyman, Barbara Hiatt and Ray Lynch, Lawton Stearns, Edward Fitzgerald, Elwood Hiatt, Rollo Lyman, Frank Cullen, Mr. and Mrs. Audmer Playle and Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman.

Members of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor had a jolly party Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. Games were played during the evening and refreshments were served. Miss Hilda Anderson, who is head of the department, was in charge of the social evening, which will be the last one for the summer.

The Women's Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal Church South was entertained Thursday

Bridge Pointers

CONTRACT BRIDGE
Yesterday I gave the outlines of one form of legitimate slam bidding. It was the form which starts off with an initial bid of more than enough to make game—for example, a bid of three Hearts when the bidder's side has a score of 50. Next Friday and Saturday we shall take up slam bidding which starts with a game bid, in which connection we will consider whether a game bid always "sets" the contract for slam bidding—a subject scheduled for this week but necessarily postponed.

Assuming that the Dealer's score is 50 and that he starts with a bid of three Hearts, such a bid being for more than game, announces that the bidder believes he can easily make three-odd (in Hearts) with no assistance from across the table; it also suggests that if partner have assistance, they may be able to bid Hearts up to six or seven and score a small bonus. Partner may respond in either of several ways.

If partner pass, it means: "Do not count on me to further your slam aspirations." If partner bid another suit (e. g., three Spades or four Clubs) it means: "I have the Ace of the suit I am naming (the suit named may be long or short) or better still, my bid may mean that I have no card of the suit I am naming and in that case I have no Hearts for ruffing and you need not fear losing a trick in the suit in question." Or partner may jump to four or more Hearts, meaning: "I see slam possibilities in Hearts; but you must assume that my strength is in Hearts and Kings and Queens. I have no side Ace and no blank suit, although it is quite possible that I have a singleton Heart and Hearts for ruffing."

The Dealer's initial Heart bid is used for illustration; of course any original bid in suit would serve the same purpose.

When the partner of the player who bids for more than game responds with a pass, that naturally ends all thought of a slam; when the response is a jump in the partner's suit, showing no side Aces, the original bidder may or may not feel inclined to continue slam maneuvers; but when partner makes the Ace-indicating suit-bid,

Mrs. Gwilliam Is Hostess to D. U. P.

Mrs. E. S. Gwilliam was hostess to 14 members of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers at her home on Washington avenue yesterday when an extremely interesting afternoon took place. The president, Mrs. Ross Anderson, presided at the business session that opened the afternoon. Three talks, each of special interest, made up the afternoon program.

Mrs. Mary H. Bean spoke on "Gathering Leaves," urging the society to collect the relics of the pioneers of Utah. Mrs. Bean described some of the things of interest which she saw in this line while in Utah last winter.

Mrs. George R. Lyman talked on the early schools of Oregon and of La Grande, tracing them from the beginning up to the present day in a comprehensive clearly given talk.

A 10-minute discussion of "Robert's Rules of Order" was given by Mrs. Lester Stoddard.

A social hour followed when the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Elmo Clogg will entertain the society at its next meeting, which will be in August. On July 29 all the county camps will gather in La Grande for an important meeting.

Notes taken at the COOKING SCHOOL

Difference between good and indifferent cook often just matter of flavoring. So little flour used in most recipes, it pays to use best obtainable—which is BURNETT'S.

Forty members of the Royal Neighbors gathered at the K. of P. hall last evening for the regular meeting of the lodge at which Mrs. L. W. Weeks presided. Two candidates were initiated into the organization and Mrs. Ruth Read was installed as manager.

A social hour was enjoyed when refreshments were served by committee No. 4, the chairman of which is Mrs. Lillian Gullickson. The lodge will meet just once a month during the summer. The next session was announced for July 11.

A pleasant social meeting of the Women of Mooseheart occurred at the Moose temple last evening. Members spent the evening sewing on a quilt which they are making and visiting, and at an appropriate hour refreshments were served.

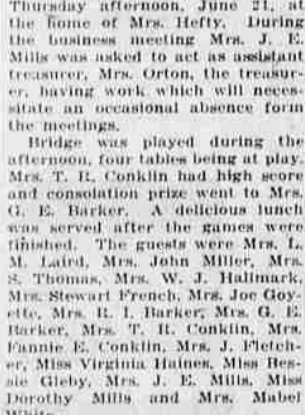

COVE (Special)—Mrs. T. C. Hefty and Mrs. C. E. Lawson were hostesses to the Ladies' guild on Thursday afternoon, June 21, at the home of Mrs. Hefty. During the business meeting Mrs. J. E. Mills was asked to act as assistant treasurer, Mrs. Orton, the treasurer, having work which will necessitate an occasional absence from the meetings.

Bridge was played during the afternoon, four tables being at play. Mrs. T. H. Conklin had high score and consolation prize went to Mrs. G. E. Barker. A delicious lunch was served after the games were finished. The guests were Mrs. L. M. Laird, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. S. Thomas, Mrs. W. J. Hallmark, Mrs. Stewart French, Mrs. Joe Goyette, Mrs. I. I. Barker, Mrs. G. E. Barker, Mrs. T. H. Conklin, Mrs. Fannie E. Conklin, Mrs. J. Fletcher, Miss Virginia Haines, Miss Bernice Gieby, Mrs. J. E. Mills, Miss Dorothy Mills and Mrs. Mabel White.

Announcements

COVE (Special)—Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. J. E. Mills will entertain the Ladies' guild at the home of the former on Friday, July 6.

A COLLARLESS COAT of navy blue serge has a huge stole and small undercuts of off-white cord.

Through the week try our 35c Plate Lunches and 50c Merchant Lunch

BEFORE MEAT
SUNDAY'S PROGRAMS
The National Broadcasting company program for Sunday night follows: 9 to 9:30, Atwater Kent program.
KGO—Oakland (384.4m-750kc) 7:35, M. E. church; 9, NBC.
KOMO—Seattle (409.1m-970kc) 8, Christian Science church; 9, NBC; 9:30 to 11, orchestra.
KFWB—Hollywood (361.2m-530kc) 8, light opera hour; 9 to 11, theater revue.
KFI—Los Angeles (468.5m-640kc) 8, organ recital; 9, NBC; 9:30, program; 10, orchestra.
KHY—Los Angeles (329.5m-750kc) 8, symphony; 10, quintet; 11, orchestra.
KJR—Seattle (348.6m-800kc) 8, M. E. church; 9 to 10, trio.
KPO—San Francisco (422.3m-710kc) 8, organ recital; 8:30, orchestra; 9, NBC.
KGW—Portland (491m-610kc) 8, music; 9, NBC; 9:30, studio concert; 10 to 11, little symphony orchestra.
KXO—Portland (277.5m-1080kc) 8, NBC; 11 to 12:30, varied program.
KGO—8, NBC.
KOIN—Portland (319m-940kc) 8, Christian science church; 9, musical comedy hour.

MENUS
By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Rhubarb sauce, cereal cooked with raisins, cream, crisp toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON—Cream of asparagus soup, croquettes, pineapple jelly salad, Boston brown bread, rice pudding, milk tea.
DINNER—Breaded veal cutlets, new potatoes in cream sauce, scalloped tomatoes, raw vegetable salad, strawberry sherbet, crisp cookies, milk, coffee.
Just before sending the potatoes to the dinner table, dash some paprika over the top of the vegetable. It only takes a second and adds vastly to the attractiveness of the dish. Minced parsley sprinkled over the top is always pleasing but takes some time to prepare. The touch of red or green improves any delicately colored vegetable served in a white sauce.
Pineapple Jelly Salad
One and one-fourth cups pineapple juice, 1 tablespoon granulated gelatine, 4 tablespoons cold water, 1 small package cream cheese, 1 banana, 6 large prunes, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, lettuce, mayonnaise.
Canned or fresh pineapple juice can be used. Soften gelatine in cold water for five minutes. Bring pineapple juice to the boiling point and add to softened gelatine. Stir until gelatine is dissolved and add lemon juice. Pour into a flat mold and let stand on ice until chilled and firm. Scald and scrub prunes. Remove stones and fill with cream cheese. Chill and cut in halves crosswise. Cut jelly in neat cubes and combine with bananas peeled, scraped and cut in dice and stuffed prunes. Serve with mayonnaise on a bed of lettuce.

PUTMAN'S
La Grande's Exclusive Ready-to-Wear and Millinery

Just as well as Beth Bailey McLean
The Observer's Cooking School is over --- Mrs. McLean has gone after conducting four very successful sessions --- but her recipes and her suggestions for better foods are still treasured.
Try those recipes --- you can do just as well as Mrs. McLean if you follow her directions carefully and use the same quality materials she specifies. One of those materials is---

FEDERATION FLOUR

Be sure to use it as she did in the school demonstrations. It's the safe, economical hard wheat flour—a Grande Ronde Valley product milled from choice valley wheat.

Try a sack the next time you buy flour. It's guaranteed---or your money gladly refunded.

Your Grocer Has It!
"Don't Say Flour --- Say Federation"

Sunday Dinner Menu
Dinner Service 11:30 to 8 p. m.
June 10, 1928

TABLE D'HOTE DINNER $1.00

Fruit Cocktail
Consomme with Noodles
Cream of Chicken with Rice
Radishes Ripe and Queen Olives
Boiled Shoulder of Lamb, Capers Sauce
Fried Spring Chicken, Country Gravy
Fillet of Sirloin Mignon, Mushroom Sauce
Roast Prime Ribs of Beef au Jus
Baked New Potato Cauliflower en Butter
Combination Salad
Fresh Strawberry Short Cake
Orange Sherbet and Cake
Cherry or Apple Pie and Cheese
Tea Coffee Milk

"--and the bread"
Butter-Nut OF COURSE

As Mrs. McLean chose Butter Nut Bread for serving at The Observer Cooking School, so the great majority of mothers and housewives of La Grande have chosen this super-fine nourishing bread for the daily bread of their homes.

Sold at All Dealers Made in La Grande by

La Grande Bakery