Sudden Wealth Figures in Glab Murder Mystery

LOS ANGELES, June 23 (AP)—The source of sudden wealth which police detectives believe came to at least six persons involved in investigation of the John I. Glab killing, today constituted a mystery second only to the question of who fired the shot that killed the former Cicero, Ill., drugist last Monday night. Within three months, the detectives said, these persons, two of whom are well known in Hollywood, are known to have banked and spent large sums of money. Their names are withheld. Glab himself, they said, deposited more than $11,000 since April. Mrs. Hazel Glab, widow, and her niece, Miss Ethyle Kaser, both charged with Glab's murder, await preliminary hearing, June 24. Rumors spread from Central police station that officers were closing in upon a man whom they expected to charge with having fired the shot that killed Glab. Mrs. Marian Harris, close friend of Mrs. Glab and her niece, was taken into custody late yesterday and held as a material witness. Mrs. Harris' arrest followed Glab's death by police, that she had telephoned a "Mr. McKillerick" on Tuesday, telling him of Glab's death. It developed that "McKillerick" was alias used by R. W. McIntyre, former policeman and friend of the accused widow. McIntyre also was held as a material witness.

JONES, FARRELL TIE FOR FIRST IN CHICAGO TOURNEY

(Continued from Page 1) strong, bounced off one side of the tin and went two feet over. He holed out for a par five and then took 77 for the round. The cards: Jones—In 544 344 445 37-77-294 Sarazen—In 544 345 335 36-72-299 BOBBY OVER PAR OLYMPIA FIELDS, Chicago, Ill., June 23 (AP)—Shooting a 74, two over par, Bobby Jones opened his lead in the national golf championship today. Added to his 144 he had a 54-hole total of 317, five strokes ahead of his nearest rivals, George Von Elm and Johnny Farrell, each 222. Willie MacFarlane, clung to Bobby's heels, returning in 37 for a 73, the same as Jones and Farrell, his place three strokes back with a total of 229. Von Elm, the former amateur champion two strokes behind Jones yesterday, lost three more when he shot a 76. A six on the fifth, where his drive hit a tree, falling dead, was his costliest hole. Farrell, unimpaired by a gallery after playing his first two rounds with Jones, showed a return to form with a fine 71, par and moved up the list with a total of 222. Hagen Shoots 73 Neil Christian of Portland, Ore., paired with Farrell, had a 74 for a total of 232 for the 54 holes. He was out in 37 and came home the same. Walter Hagen in spite of poor shots and much trouble got home with a 73, the same as Jones and was tied at 226 with MacFarlane for temporary third place, three strokes back of the leader and one stroke behind Cluel.

DEFINITE PLANS MADE TO RESCUE GENERAL NOBILE

CRACK RIDER IS INJURED IN SPILL

(Continued from Page 1) enough Fuller did fine for a minute and he has to be congratulated for mustering up enough nerve to even try it. In the three or four years that "Speedy" Foster has been riding he has had 18 accidents. Until a few weeks ago he had had a clean slate for this year but at Lewiston he fell and again last night. When asked how he was able to go up again after falling, he said, "Oh, we have to ride right away again before we lose our nerve." Foster takes a stoical attitude about it all. It is just "business" to him. He is also a telegraph operator. Miss La France says that there are times when, after a fall, she threatens to quit riding. She was asked how she happened to take it up. "Well, I'll tell you how it was," she responded. "I had never ridden at all or thought of it until a few years ago my husband, who rides, decided to train a girl for riding. I decided then that I could learn just as well as anyone—so I did."

OBSERVER'S SCHOOL GETS WIDE PRAISE

(Continued from Page 1) tionally interest. Her knowledge of the housewife's problems is what makes her unique in her position. Mrs. McLean won the unstinted praise of her listeners. Yesterday she demonstrated seven different dishes that might be used for afternoon refreshments, ranging from a piquant crab salad to tasty cheese pin wheels. Her recipes were new and with them she offered other possible services that will be a boon to hostesses who have exhausted the "something new and different" for their guests. Many Comments Here are some of the many voluntary comments The Observer received yesterday on this registration card: "Enjoyed the two days spent in school very much. Sorry I didn't attend the full time." "Thoroughly practical—come again." "I have no criticism to make, only sorry that I missed out on the first two days." "My motto is 'Of all that's good learn all we can.' Mrs. McLean's recipes and ideas are all good. We are all welcome and appreciate good advice and demonstrations in cooking." "Had a jolly good time." "Mrs. McLean is wonderful. The school is a success. The Observer is very good to all. I am grateful." "I certainly enjoyed the school and feel that my time was more than well spent." "Why not have Mrs. McLean take up preparation of children's food next time?" "I have learned many new hints and helped and have enjoyed every afternoon. Please print all prize recipes in The Observer?" "Have Mrs. McLean come as instructor always. She certainly is a joy." "The most interesting classes I ever attended and I never lose an opportunity. Did not get here for Tuesday class and am sorry that I missed it." "The ladies of the town owe a debt of gratitude to The Observer for the school." "I am simply unable to express my appreciation for the school and to those who have made it possible. Hope it may be repeated in the future even at an individual cost." "These are representative of the sincere thanks which have been expressed and which are more than anything else, conclusive of the worth of the school." "The following food products and equipment were featured at the school and were selected and endorsed by Mrs. McLean who is a nationally known authority on cooking and table service: Food Products Featured: K. Bancitaly Stock Down 10 Points; Favorites Drop

NEW YORK, June 23 (AP)—Another break of more than 10 points in Bancitaly corporation common stock on the New York curb market unsettled prices on the New York stock exchange today. Extreme declines in the active issues ranged from 1 to nearly 6 points, with only a few issues showing independent strength. Trading was unusually small as compared with recent half holiday seasons, the day's sales aggregating only about 650,000 shares. Pierce-Farrell preferred, which scored a sharp advance yesterday on reports that merger negotiations with Studebaker were nearing completion, ran up another 7 points today to a new 1928 high, La Crosse Gas, which sold as low as 207 earlier in the week, soared more than 14 points to 224 1/2. It had dropped more than 5 points soon after the opening and dragged around the bottom price for the greater part of the session, Adams Express, Dupont, American International and Curtiss sold off 3 to 4 points. Scores of others declined a point or more, with Standard Steel common selling around the year's lowest price. Pittsburg and West Virginia advanced 2 points, but Texas and Pacific dropped 3, and New York Central, Canadian Pacific, Union Pacific and some of the other recent favorites decline a point or more.
