Salvation Army Relief Store Is To Be Operated

While the idea of making a special effort to help those in sorrow and distress, the Salvation Army here has opened a relief store in the basement of the hall, to be open Friday and Saturday mornings of each week, from 9:30 a. m. until 12 m.

This store is to be operated for the benefit of the poor with no other charge than enough for postage and Captain J. H. Holman, officer in charge, asks the people of La Grande to co-operate in making any clothing or other articles.

The Salvation Army also plans to have six beds for those who have no money to pay for lodging elsewhere and is sending out a call for bedding. Mr. Holman announces that he will be glad to send for anything offered, if called at Main street.

WINNINGS

Miss Alice Jordan will give a short talk on "Student Life in our Conference" during the evening service at the First Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow.

Prayer meeting and Bible study will be held near Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the South Methodist church.

The Rev. L. H. Jones has returned to La Grande after an extended trip and will preach in the Lutheran church tomorrow morning.

A musical program, including a quartet of Paul Knutson, baritone, is scheduled for the morning service at the First Presbyterian church. There will be no evening service.
