Guests Honored At Dinner Party At Speckhart Home

A pleasant affair of last Thursday evening was a dinner at which Mr. and Mrs. John Speckhart entertained at their home on Fifth street to honor Mrs. C. S. Horden and daughter, Alice, of Shoshone, Ida., and Mrs. Joe Kordic, of Portland.

Mrs. Horden and Miss Horden have been the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Parker. They returned home this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Kordic were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knautz at their farm home and were here on a honeymoon trip, returning today. They were married June 20. Mrs. Kordic (Violet Eccles) taught at the Iowa school last year.

Guests were seated at a beautifully appointed table at 6:30 o'clock when a three-course dinner was served. White roses and carnations formed an effective centerpiece. A social evening followed. Those seated at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knautz and daughter, Lillian, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Parker, the four honor guests and Mr. and Mrs. Speckhart.

Miss Marvel Rhine was hostess at a pretty dinner party Friday evening at the Seaside Inn when she entertained for Miss Jean Chandler. Miss Chandler graduated from the Emmanuel hospital early this month and has been visiting here from Portland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chandler, for nearly two weeks. Miss Chandler returned yesterday to Portland to do additional hospital work for the next four months.

Covers were placed for seven at the hotel dining room Friday evening when at 7 o'clock a five-course dinner was served. Salmon sweet peas were used to form a charming centerpiece at the prettily arranged table.

Following dinner the guests went to the home of Mrs. D. B. Mosby on Spring avenue, where "500" was the diversion of the evening. Miss Helene Price won the prize.

At a late hour Mrs. Mosby and Miss Rhine served refreshments, bringing the delightful party to an end. Those seated at dinner were the Misses Edna Ledbetter, Valente Harer, Helene Price, Mrs. Mosby and her daughter, Nola, Mrs. and Miss Chandler and Miss Rhine.

UNION (Special)—Miss Clara Van Houten was the inspiration of a delightful party Saturday evening when a number of her friends pleasantly surprised her. The occasion was her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent at games, music and dancing. At a late hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Van Houten.

Degree Staff of Lodge Entertains

The degree staff of the Crystal Rebekah lodge gave an interesting program Friday evening at the temple following the Odd Fellow's meeting as a means of defraying expenses on some of the team's equipment. Refreshments were served during the evening and a very satisfactory sum was realized. Mrs. C. F. McPherson, who is captain of the team of 20 members, was program chairman and Mrs. William Beery was refreshment chairman.

The program began with a piano solo by Miss Ella Engel, with a recitation by Verna Borine, a piano solo by Eleanor Hicks and a recitation by Sigrid Borine following. Then a skit, "Courtship Under Difficulties," was presented in which Miss Lydia Hug, Mrs. James Moss and Mrs. C. P. McPherson took part.

A pianologue and dance was given by Florence Houston with Blanche McPherson and Eleanor Hicks assisting. The final part of the program was a tableaux, "Women's Rights," in which Mrs. P. A. Engel, Mrs. James Moss, Mrs. Ida Mants, Miss Lydia Hug, Mrs. C. P. McPherson, George Robertson and Frank C. Looek took part.

Out-of-town visitors during the evening included Mrs. Jennie Healy, of Murphysboro, Ill., who has been visiting with Mrs. J. M. Koch-ensparger, and Dr. H. H. Lytle, of Cove.

Mrs. P. S. Robinson presented Miss Anita Hermann, violinist, in a recital before an enthusiastic group of friends last Thursday evening. Miss Anita shows much ability and promise for a little child of her age. She played the entire program with accuracy and expression.

Miss Lenore Headley, pianist, assisted her. Miss Headley has a beautiful touch and plays with ease and delicacy. She is also a pupil of Mrs. Robinson. Miss Ethel Hansen, who has a very pleasing soprano voice, sang one number. The program follows:

- "First Air and Variation" Op. 59 Dancel
- "By the Waters of Minnetonka" Miss Anita Hermann
- "Learance" Miss Ethel Hansen
- Group of American Melodies— "Mocking Bird" Franz
- "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" Miss Anita Hermann
- "Pop Goes the Weasel" Laehmund
- Miss Anita Hermann
- "Drifting" Bechtel
- Miss Lenore Headley
- "Cavatina" Dralia
- "Enchanted Hour" Mouton
- Miss Anita Hermann

UNION (Special)—A pretty June wedding took place Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Halsay in South Union when Miss Aleta Titus and Herschel Halmy were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock with the Rev. Robert C. Lee, of the Methodist Episcopal church, reading the services in the presence of immediate relatives and a few close friends.

The bride was attractive in a simple gown of orchid georgette and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and orchid sweetpeas. Her only attendant was Miss Winifred Halsay, sister of the bridegroom. C. L. Cadwell acted as best man. Immediately following the ceremony, dinner was served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated with spring and other garden flowers. The happy couple left Friday evening for Portland, where they will make their home. Mr. Halsay is employed in the Steiger-Wold milk plant there.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Halsay are graduates of Union High school and have lived here a number of years, where they have many friends who wish them every happiness. Mrs. Halsay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Titus and Mr. Halsay is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Halsay.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Spears and daughter, Yvonne, left Wednesday by car for Carville, where they will spend ten days visiting relatives. They were joined at Baker by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Spears, who accompanied them on their trip going over the John Day highway. Mr. Spears is an employee of the Union Flouring mill.

Amputation Fails To Save Girl, 12

PORTLAND, Ore., June 25 (AP)—Julie Vaughn, 12-year-old Pendleton girl, died last night at a hospital here following amputation of her left arm a week ago. Her arm was broken in a fall from a tree two weeks ago and infection developed. She was brought to Portland last Monday and her arm was amputated at the elbow. For a time she showed improvement, but her condition became worse and death occurred last night. The body will be sent to Pendleton today and funeral will be held there tomorrow.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

Continuing the subject of pre-empting bids (meaning thereby initial bids of three or more, made with the hope of shutting out all other bids), it is important for the student of the game to bear in mind that to bid three initially, the bidder's hand should contain at least seven sure tricks if the suit he names be the trump; and to bid four initially, the hand should contain eight sure tricks with some additional probability.

A pre-empting bid does not guarantee any specific amount of help for any other bid or for defeating an adverse bid. Pre-empting holdings are very unusual; and there are hands which are too strong to make preemption advisable. With great length and strength in one suit and strength without length in one suit and strength without length in one other; pre-empting is usually desirable; but with length and strength in one suit and strength in two others, pre-empting is not necessary because it is not likely that the opponents will only one powerful suit can outbid a hand that contains three. If they try to do so and go too far, the opportunity to inflict a severe penalty may arise. These distinctions can be explained best by examples.

Hand No. 1	(X-X X	Hand No. 2	(X-X X

♦X-X-X	A-Q-10	♦X-X-X	A-Q-10
♠A-K-J	None	♠A-K-J	None

Hands Nos. 1 and 2 are examples of sound pre-empting bids of three. Hand No. 3 shows a holding with which an initial bid of four would be fully justified. Hand No. 4 is distinctly stronger than any of the others; its holder has the strength to bid five, but it is not the type of hand with which pre-emption is needed because it is so strong in three suits that it is hardly possible that the adversaries, with strength in only one suit, will be able to bid high enough to be troublesome. If they should, they probably would open the door for a profitable business double.

The House That Advertising Built

You've seen it. It's not large. Nor is it small. It's just comfortable. Every line of its architecture shows the hand of a master. It is built of splendid, lasting materials. From cellar to attic it is perfect. It is completely equipped with modern labor and time saving devices—oil burner, washing machine, vacuum cleaner, electric irons, electric fans, etc. Everything needed to make living a pleasure is there.

It's the house that advertising makes possible. Everything in it from the asbestos shingles on the roof to the concrete foundation blocks is advertised—even the plan itself, made by a famous architect, can be bought for a nominal sum. And because so many people read the advertisements for the different things going into this house—because so many buy them—the price of this house is well within your reach.
