...he largest social event to take ...e here yesterday was the Park...e club's Fourth of July picnic ...he city park which 45 attended. ...he event was a delightful one ...the club members and their ...bands and children who gath...d at the park during the morn... The day passed picasantly ...h visiting and jollity. ...tains have freshened the beautiful park and it was a charming setting for the affair. At 1 o'clock a huge picnic luncheon was spread at one large table. Flowers in many pretty bouquets carried out a patriotic color scheme.

With the end of the day the families returned to their homes about the valley.

A pleasant no-host affair of Monday evening was a trout feed at Pine Cone when several couples, friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Ainsworth, fried a catch made by Mr. Ainsworth on the previous day.

At about 7 o'clock an excellent trout supper was served at a table in the Pine Cone park. Showers that fell a little later prevented an evening dip and the party returned home at about 8 o'clock.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ross W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Gwilliam, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Tribe, Mr. Mollinet, and Mr. and Mrs. Ainsworth.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST—Strawberries, cereal, cream, creamed smoked halibut, combination muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Scalloped new cabbage with tomatoes, toasted muffins, radishes, fruit cup, luncheon cakes, milk, tea.

DINNER—Broiled veal steak, new potatoes in cheese sauce, grilled carrots, vegetable and bacon salad, lemon sponge pie, milk, coffee.

Four tablespoons cornmeal are added to ¾ cup white flour, to make the breakfast muffins. This proportion of meal and flour makes a light soft muffin pleasantly flavored but not crumbly.

Fruit cup can be used as an appetizer if chilled orange juice is added and the bananas are omitted.

Fruit Cup

One cup halves of strawberries, 1 cup diced orange, 1 cup sliced bananas, 1 cup shredded fresh pineapple, 1 cup powdered sugar.

Sprinkle sugar through the fruit, shaking the bowl rather than stirring the fruit mixture. Stirring will crush the fruit and spoil its attractiveness. Chill for at least two hours before serving. Serve in glasses or halves of oranges from which the pulp has been removed and the shells scraped clean.

Bridge Pointers

How many of today's questions can you answer? Score love-all

Today's Hand

1. What should South (Dealer) declare, holding the above hand?
2. What should West (Second Hand) declare with it; South having bid No Trump?
3. What should North (Third Hand) declare with it; South having bid one Diamond and West having passed?

The Answers

1. Two Clubs. The original bid of two of a suit to show Ace-King-Queen and at least three others is now generally approved by sound and expert Auction Bridge players. There are some players who announce that they never bid two originally; but these few never yet have explained why they deprive themselves of this privilege when nothing is gained by doing so. The bid of two does not have to be made with all hands which justify it; but with just such a hand as the above, it may be of the greatest value to the partner to know what Clubs the initial bidder holds.

2. Pass; to bid would be inexcusable. The chances are that if the No Trump stand, game can be saved; and that a Club bid by West would steer North or South into a Major bid which probably would give them game. Of course South may have the Clubs stopped and may be able to make game at No Trump; but even if that be the case the chances are that the adversaries also would have game in the Major suit which best fitted their combined hands.

3. Two Clubs. The fact that the partner of an initial bidder who starts by bidding one of a Minor, has normal support for the Minor, does not mean that strength in the other Minor should not be shown. At a love score, Minor games are not probable and it is important that the partners communicate their strength to each other. In this case it readily might be that South had refrained from bidding No Trump because of the menace of a singleton Club in his hand, and the Club bid by North might be all that was needed to ster him into a winning declaration.
