ard Entertains Complimenting M.I.A. Play Cast

Delightful party took place yesterday evening when the officers of the Second Ward M. I. A. entertained in honor of the play cast organization that competed at Lake City at conference, being fourth place. The affair was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Adams on Y avenue. Adams is president of the Y. M. I. A. Miss Viola Anderson, counselor, assisted her. Twenty-two were present.

Flourishes and sweet peas were in pretty bouquets that decorated the rooms for the occasion. Athletic games suggested by the M. I. A. were played during the evening and prizes were awarded.

The entertaining officers served refreshments at the close of the play evening.

Miss Lenore Coalwell, who directed the play, was among the guests present.

The Pukwana campfire group met yesterday afternoon with their guardian, Mrs. R. F. Tyler, at her home on First street. Dish towels were hemmed for the boy scouts who will use them on their summer encampment. Each group has made a set of towels for the scouts.

Miss Barbara Coolidge, president of the group, presided at the business meeting during which Miss Cornelia Daly was elected treasurer. The office was left vacant when Miss Francis Martin moved away from La Grande.

The group discussed plans for the week's encampment of campfire girls at Camp Phy. Nearly every girl in the group plans to attend.

At the close of the afternoon the guardian served refreshments. Eight members were present.

The marriage of Miss Charline Lambert to Hubert Edwards Saturday morning at Corvallis at the home of the Rev. Daniel Bryant will be of interest here. Miss Lambert is the daughter of Mrs. Sadie Lambert, who is a school teacher here and is now on the normal school faculty. Mrs. Lambert was unable to attend the wedding.

Eagles Auxiliary Planning Picnic

A discussion of plans for the second annual Eagles picnic to be held at Meacham on July 29 occupied the main part of the business session last night when the local auxiliary to the E. E. met with Mrs. Harry Edwards, president. In charge. The picnic will be attended by Eagles and their families from Baker, Walla Walla, Pendleton and La Grande. Mrs. A. L. Huff was chosen captain of the La Grande auxiliary baseball team which will play the Pendleton women's team during the picnic.

Outing business was transacted at last evening's session, which was well attended.

Approximately 25 members attended the regular business meeting of the Crystal Rebekah lodge that was held the evening of July the fourth. Officers feel that this was a splendid attendance, particularly in considering the many hot-weather activities of the holiday. Mrs. Lucy Gilman, noble grand, presided at the session.

The order of business for next Wednesday evening was announced and all members were urged to attend this session, which will be one of the outstanding of the year. There will be installation of the new officers, initiation and a banquet. The work will be exemplified for two candidates.

Members of the Supreme Forest Woodman circle No. 21 met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Browning on Cherry avenue Monday evening for a strawberry social. This was one of the many pleasant social activities that the lodge has had since its organization. Officers report a steady growth of membership.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

At the conclusion of the Contract Bridge article last week we were considering the question of whether after an original No Trump game bid, a suit-bid made by the partner of the No Trump or should be construed as showing length and some strength in the suit-bid or whether it should be merely known as a "slam bid" and merely show the Ace of the suit named, coupled with a hand that, facing a No Trump game-goer, has slam possibilities; or to put the question another way, does an original game-going bid in No Trump set that declaration and make all subsequent bidding slam-showing? Expert Contract players have about decided to answer this question three ways: (1) When the overall is made in a Major suit, it means length with some strength in the suit named; (2) when made in a Minor suit at a love score, it is a slam-shower; (3) when made in a Minor suit with any score for the bidding side, it is a strength-shower.

It sometimes is of great value to be able to show an Ace and slam possibilities by overcalling partner's game-going No Trump bid with the Ace-suit; also to show slam possibilities but no Ace by jumping the original game-going No Trump. The information given by the jump has more value than the suit take-out and for a considerable time after Contract was introduced, both of these overcalls were conventionally considered to be slam-indicators; but the more that slam-showing was tested by practical application, the more it was found detrimental because frequently it eliminated the advantages showing of long Major suits.

The partner of a game-going No Trump may have unusual length in a Major suit but no entry. Such a hand is, absolutely worthless at No Trump unless the No Trump partner has a holding which makes it possible for him to draw all the adverse cards of the Major suit and then lead a small one with which to put Dummy in (to depend upon Closed Hands having such a holding is a desperate risk to take); and yet it would be a hand which, by reason of the unusual length of the Major, combined with a hand which can bid three No Trumps originally, would be virtually sure to go game with the Major trump.

This subject will be continued with illustrations tomorrow.

BREAKFAST — Chilled cantaloupe, ready-to-serve cereal, cream, creamed cottage ham with broiled tomatoes, toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Deviled crabs, lettuce sandwiches, filled cup cakes, lemonade or iced tea.

DINNER—Planked bass, shoe string potatoes, wax beans, cottage cheese salad, strawberry tapioca pudding, milk, coffee.

The luncheon suggested is not suitable for children under eight years of age. A cream vegetable soup might be substituted for the crabs, using the sandwiches, cup cakes and lemonade as planned. However, many grownups will find deviled crabs decidedly acceptable for luncheon, so the rule follows:

Deviled Crabs

One-half dozen fresh crabs, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 3/4 cup thin cream, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 3/4 teaspoon ground mace, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, 1 egg yolk, 1 hard cooked egg, 3/4 cup buttered crumbs.

Cook crabs in boiling salted water for 30 minutes. Plunge into cold water. Let stand until cold and drain. Pull off claws close to the body, crack them with a hammer or nut cracker and pick out the meat. A nut pick is handy. Pull shell from body and remove gills and the dark streak that runs through the center and the fat found in the cavity between the halves. Discard any soft spongy material found.

Pick out the meat from the sections, taking care to exclude all the bone-like parts. Scrape soft white substance from shell and add to meat. Wash the hard upper shell well and set aside to dry. Melt butter, stir in flour and add mace and parsley. Add cream slowly, stirring constantly. Bring to the boiling point and stir in slightly beaten egg yolk. Remove from fire and add Worcestershire sauce, crab meat and hard cooked egg, both chopped. Fill four shells rounding full, cover with buttered crumbs and bake in a moderately hot oven until crumbs are brown. It will take about 15 minutes. Serve garnished with a sprig of parsley.

Tomorrow we have a big sale on the Weather-shield paint—$1.95 per gallon as long as it lasts. Then we have other bargains, some of them that's worth upward to $2 a quart—the a quart as long as it lasts. One long distance phone order this morning called for over 1,000 lineal feet of barn fat. Here comes two more men into the yard now so what I say to you I will have to make it snappy.

Did you ever hear of the paint they call Monarch and is 100 per cent pure and covers just about twice as much as ordinary paint? Do you know the man's name that handles it? And did you know that Royal coat is clean and hot? Besides we have paint brushes.

Here come two more men. They have either got their car painted up or it looks like a new one. They are getting out of the car now and starting towards the office so I will close.
