Dependable Values HILL'S Dependable Quality

Office Cat... Jackson—Sorry to keep you waiting...

The family had just returned home from church. Mother criticized the minister and his sermon...

"That girl over there shows distinction in her clothes."

Peggy—"Oh, mummy, may I go to this fancy dress party as a milkmaid?"

"No, dear, you're too small."

"Do you know what Paul Revere said after finishing his great ride?"

"Whoa!"

WALLA WALLA, July 7.—With Fourth of July celebrations rapidly receding into the past, the Walla Walla Bears will hold the last practice session of the season this evening.

Winning the contest will give the locals a game won from every club in the league, since they have downed both Pendleton and Baker.

Hill to Pitch

George Hill, beardless recruit hurler, who turned in a good enough brand of pitching last Sunday to win an ordinary game, will probably get the call this week for mound duty.

Baker and Pendleton cross bats at Baker to determine second place winner in the league.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 7 (AP)—Helen Wills, American tennis star, retained her championship in the women's singles at Wimbledon today, defeating Henrietta Eula De Alvarez, brilliant young Spanish player before a huge crowd which included the king and queen.

The challenger exhibited a faultless back hand and sent many long, raking shots skimming past the nets until the middle of the second set when her game suffered a collapse.

The score was 6-2, 6-3.

WYKOFF NEW KING OF U. S. SPRINTERS

Glendale, Cal., Youth Ties Record Four Times—De Mers, Eugene, Places

HARVARD STADIUM, CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (By the Associated Press)—The new king of the American sprinters and ace of the Olympic track, is 19-year-old Frank Wykoff, sensational school boy from Glendale, California.

Coming out of the far west for the first time this husky dark haired youngster featured the opening day of the final American Olympic track and field tryouts by winning the 100 meter dash from the fastest hand of sprinters in the country.

The decisiveness with which the youthful Wykoff established his supremacy, carried off the National A. A. U. championship.

After galloping off with his first three trials by impressive margins he had the stuff to overcome a comparatively poor start in the final heat and won by a yard from McAllister, New York "flying pop" with Herney Russell of Pennsylvania A. C. Cornell third, and Claude Bracey, another 19-year-old sensation from Rice institute, Texas, fourth.

Charles Paddock and Jackson Scholz, both former favorites, failed to "make the grade" in the 100-meter.

Another surprise of yesterday was the failure of Eric Krenz, of California, to qualify in the discus.

De Mers, Eugene, Ore., high school youth, qualified in the javelin with a throw of more than 150 feet.
