Coleman, of Joseph, with whom she will spend the summer. Miss Lois is just six years old, and has attended school but one term, nevertheless she made the long trip alone. Her grandmother and her aunt, Mrs. Roy Hau, of Lostine, met her here this morning and she accompanied them back to Wallawa county.

Return From Lake— Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Appleby and son, Carlton, returned home yesterday afternoon from a motor trip to Crater Lake, Portland, and Scaside the last two weeks. At Crater Lake they attended the meeting of the State Editorial Association. They were accompanied home from Portland by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clifton, of Des Moines, Iowa, who will visit here several days. Mrs. Clifton is the Appleby's sister and Mrs. Clifton is the published writer for the Des Moines Register & Tribune, having just covered the national conventions at Kansas City and Houston for his paper.

Guest at Hotel— John C. Macpherson, manager of the Wallawa Lake Wonderland, is the guest of W. O. Clinger, at the La Grande hotel, while he transacts business here. Business at the Wonderland is steady this summer, and is increasing noticeably with the hot weather. Mr. Macpherson says, "Side trips out of the Lake are increasing, if anything, in popularity, and boating is steadily being popularized, he declares. There are a number of privately owned motor boats at the lake this year that add to the fun of water sports. A large buoy for swimmers, attached to the left of the pier, is being built, much to the delight of those who like that sport."

Band Director in Picture— Just how far back the fame of Andrew Loney Jr., as a band director goes, is revealed in a picture that appeared in a prominent paper in Sunday's Oregonian, that was observed with much interest by local folk. The picture was taken in 1909 when the young Portland high school band was in its prime, with George Olsen, now a nationally famous "jazz king" as drummer and Mr. Loney wielding the baton, and standing in the front row. In an accompanying story, Mr. Loney is identified as the director of La Grande's band. A visit of George Olsen in Portland occasioned the use of the old picture.

Visited From Oakland— Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, of Oakland, accompanied by Arthur LaCroce, also of Oakland, left yesterday morning for their home city after a pleasant day's visit in La Grande when they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson at their home on O avenue. Mr. Clark is a nephew of Dr. and Mrs. Richardson and is well known in La Grande, being a former La Grande boy. He exchanged greetings with many of his local friends during the brief visit. The three have been on a motor trip to New York, going by the southern route and returning by the northern. They stopped on their way home at Spokane for a visit with Mrs. Clark's people. Mr. and Mrs. Clark and Mr. LaCroce arrived here Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Clark

FOREST PATROL AIRMEN SIGHTED

Jack Rose and Howard Flint Reported Forced Down Near St. Joe, Ida.

SPOKANE, July 11 (AP)—The forest patrol airplane flown by Lieutenant Jack Rose and Chief District Forester Howard Flint came down about 10 miles from St. Joe, Ida., Nick Malby, commercial flier, stated here today, after he flew over the forest in search of the missing aviators.

Mamer said that he saw the plane, with one man standing beside it with an outspread parachute evidently as a signal, but he could not see the other man.

Mamer could not make out whether or not the plane was wrecked. A rescue party of airplane and motor trucks was to be organized here immediately. The plane was estimated to be about 100 miles from Spokane in a thickly forested country.

Married An Hour Before—Lieutenant Rose was married here yesterday in the first airplane wedding to be held over Spokane and left his bride an hour after the ceremony to make the patrol.

Two planes, piloted by Nick N. Mamer and Major Calvin B. Haynes, guard unit commander, took off at 2:30 and 2:45 o'clock this morning to search the territory over which the patrol was to be made.

A telephone message from St. Maries, Ida., said that forest rangers there had started out a search party equipped with automobile trucks and trailers and that the motor had gone past St. Joe in their hunt.

In the meanwhile several airplanes from Peils field at Spokane, flew over the forests to the scene of the supposed crash, where they circled about to let the ground parties know the location of the lost aviators' ship.

These latter parties expressed fears that one or both of the aviators had been hurt or killed.

Urging Pinchot To Head "Third Party" Ticket

CHICAGO, July 11 (AP)—Leaders of the prohibition and farmer labor parties, who have been attempting a fusion of the two, today declared they had approached Gifford Pinchot, former governor of Pennsylvania, and William H. Sweet, former governor of Colorado, as possible presidential candidates for a third party.

According to the convention spokesmen, telegrams have been sent the two men.

The six delegates who conferred and recommended a union of the prohibition and farmer labor party, included L. C. Dale, of California; Philip Bennett, of Oklahoma; and H. R. Berger, of Pittsburgh, for the prohibitionists and J. E. Spur, of Reno, Oklahoma; Bert Martin, of Denver, and William H. Mahoney, of Washington, for the farmer labor group.

Mrs. Eva Wheeler, of Los Angeles, president of the southern California Woman's Christian Temperance union, today called upon the prohibition party to support Herbert Hoover, the republican nominee, for the presidency.

Mrs. Wheeler is a delegate to the party's convention here.

Quartet Of Seals Do Stuff On P. O. Lawn

"Clap your hands, Babe." And Babe clapped her hands. Babe's hands could hardly be called beautiful, but they clap very nicely.

Babe was one of four honor guests at a lawn party by the post office this morning which some 20 children, between the ages of six and sixty, attended.

Babe, if you must have it, is a seal. With Dick, Bobby, and Jack, three other glossy black seals, she arrived in La Grande this morning, and will appear at the Arcade theater tonight in connection with the first Fanchon & Marco revue in La Grande with a feminine cast of 15.

The seals (which the dictionary will tell you are carnivorous aquatic mammals) attracted a crowd of curious visitors this morning while they had a luxurious sun bath and rather a slippery stroll on the post office lawn. They are beautiful animals with glossy backs and soft, brown eyes and they seemed to enjoy the crowd of noisy youngsters who watched them.

They are generally good natured and have an amazing faculty for trick training etc., their keeper related today. And he promptly called upon the seals to demonstrate responses immediately to the call of some of their "stunts." Each seal responds immediately to the call of his name.

Five minutes is the limit of time in which the animals will remain under water. The largest of the quartet weighs 150 pounds, their keeper says.

The seals are kept in a large cage with a tub of water and travel in a special car carrying the company's equipment for the revue.

Maybe one of the reasons why writers are turning out so many romance books nowadays is because the people want books bad.

The New York street cleaning department is being investigated. It seems the streets were not the only things cleaned up.

ment of their working hours.

Direct light, glare and insufficient light are injurious to the eyes. Wherever possible light should come from behind the left shoulder, and when working under artificial illumination it should be out of the line of vision.

Normally at the age of 45 or 50 the eye undergoes a change in which the lens becomes more elastic. As a consequence those who wear glasses are required to begin the use of bifocals.

NOBODY TRIES TO GET HIS GOAT

There isn't a single person trying to get Harry Gullish's goat these days. Harry Gullish doesn't even want to get his own goat. The reason is that William wandered into the barn at his home in Aurora, Ill., the other day, found a couple of sticks of dynamite and ate the dynamite with as much relish as if it had been a line full of clothes or a tin can. This picture of Harry and William was taken before William was sobbed up the explosive; Harry isn't going near William any more.

Brother and Sister Meet for First Time

CALDWELL, Ohio—The longing of a Los Angeles woman to see her brother for the first time has been fulfilled at Belle Valley, near here.

Mrs. Alice Hubbard, 58, recently arrived from California, told here today at the home of Samuel Ackley, 69, how she had planned for a half century to visit him.

The two became separated when mere babes.

At the time of Ackley's birth his mother was dangerously ill and he was taken to the home of an uncle. Nineteen months later Mrs. Hubbard was born and when reaching the age of 21 months was adopted by a distantly related family, which a short time later moved to Minnesota.

Although the home of the uncle was but a short distance away, Ackley never saw his sister.

For some years after going to Minnesota, Mrs. Hubbard resided with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Slickle at Redwood Falls.

Reaching the age of 16, Ackley began a correspondence with his sister that never has been interrupted.

At the age of 23, the sister married.

LIQUOR STOLEN FROM WAREHOUSE

men, said Watts, revealed that the liquor was siphoned through a window from the government barrels into barrels and trucks in an adjoining yard. From one to ten gallons were taken from a barrel, and this was sometimes replaced with water. It was estimated that from 50,000 to 100,000 gallons had been stolen. The warehouse was operated by the Cosmopolitan Warehouse corporation.

Department of agriculture figures show the national spring crop about 7 per cent under that of 1927. That is encouraging.

ried William A. Hubbard and they moved to California, where they since have resided.
