GARDEN STUFF
Alas, that garden gets so weedy—Weeds are so arrogant and greedy!

They're all of that, they are indeed. That's why the garden looks so weedy.

Traveler: Who's the close-mouthed individual over in the corner? He hasn't spoken for ten minutes.

Village Wif: My Blackmore. He ain't close-mouthed. He's just wanting till Pete comes back with the spittoon.

Nothing is so sure as death, taxes and summer visitors. "I never kiss a new acquaintance for 24 hours."

"Heaven! I never kiss anybody for more than 20 minutes!"

A man, unaccustomed to praising his wife, went out of his way to call her an angel.

"Mary," he said one morning, "you are an angel," and she felt cheered all day.

In the evening she ventured to ask why she had been so honored.

"Well," said the wily one, "in the first place you are always fitting about; secondly, you are always harping on things; thirdly, by your own account, you have nothing to wear; and fourthly, you are up in the air most of the time."

"It took you a long time to pull that fellow's tooth," said the dentist's assistant.

"Yes, he married the girl I loved."

Vacation season again impresses us with the need of a printed form card ready for mailing with the simple message "Having a grand time. Weather ideal. Wish you were here."

The minister was earnestly imploring an old Scotch friend to re-plant his sins. "Well," said the old sinner, "if you will answer me one question, I will become a Christian."

"What is the question?" eagerly asked the minister.

"It is this: Who was Cain's wife?"

"My friend," replied the minister, "you will never be able to embrace religion until you quit bothering yourself about other men's wives."

Pet Monkey's Bite Costly To Hotel

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., July 12 (AP)—A pet monkey's action in biting Malcolm McConnell on the nose will cost the Broadmoor hotel here $10,000.

It was so decided yesterday by a jury in district court which returned a verdict in a suit brought by McConnell's mother, Mrs. Mary E. D. McConnell of New York City. McConnell was a guest at the hotel last summer when bitten.

Mrs. McConnell sued for $100,000. Counsel for the hotel company will file a writ of error and ask a new trial.

DR. MICHELSON ILL

CHICAGO, July 12 (AP)—Varying reports during the past two weeks concerning the health of Prof. Albert A. Michelson were met today by the statement of his physician, Dr. Herman I. Kreschmer, that the famous University of Chicago scientist is "rather ill."

A bladder operation has been deemed advisable, it was stated at the Presbyterian hospital where the man who succeeded in measuring the speed of light has been under observation since Tuesday.

AT THE THEATERS

"The Vanishing Pioneer" Proves Great Western

Their very existence menaced by danger to their water rights, citizens of Happy Valley meet in mass gathering to take steps to fight for their rights. They agree that any one of their number who sells his land and water rights shall be shot down on sight.

That is one of the tense situations in Zane Grey's "The Vanishing Pioneer," the Paramount picture featuring Jack Holt which is now playing at the Star theater.

The mass meeting in the picture is held in the church which serves as the general gathering place for the pioneer community. This scene was actually filmed in such a church in the pioneer settlement of Rockville, Utah, a little village near Zion national park. It was there that the company from the Paramount studio in Hollywood went on location to make the exterior scenes of the picture.

The weather-beaten frame building in which the meeting was held serves not alone as a church for the district, but is also the school house, the scene of the dances and all other social gatherings and the place where the weekly motion picture shows is held.

Gathered in the building on the day the mass meeting scenes were taken were scores of pioneer residents of the district who acted as extra players in the picture. "They entered into the scene with fervor for the Zane Grey story they were playing in resemblance in many ways the life drama enacted by themselves and their pioneer ancestors."

"It took you a long time to pull that fellow's tooth," said the dentist's assistant. "Yes, he married the girl I loved."

Norma Talmadge At Arcade In "The Dove"

Norma Talmadge in "The Dove," her first United Artists picture, is to be the feature at the Arcade theater today. Based on Willard Mack's stage play, which ran for a year on Broadway, "The Dove" is a melodramatic, romantic tale of Costa Roja, of the "red coast." Miss Talmadge is supported by Noah Beery and Gilbert Roland. Roland West directed the picture from the scenario by Wallace Smith and Paul Bern.

"The Dove" is the colorful, quick-action narrative of a virtuous dance hall girl, a courageous young doctor, employed in a gambling house, and "the bad" dame cabaretier in all Costa Roja. Don Jose Maria y Sandoval, Against a background of guitars, stiletos, roulette wheels, fine ladies and grand gentlemen, the characterization of Miss Talmadge as Dolores, "The Dove," a beautiful dancer, comes to glowing life, according to audience reports.

Directed by Roland West, who has previously made Norma Talmadge pictures, and supported by Noah Beery and Gilbert Roland, who were accorded considerable roles by the star, Miss Talmadge, having, defying and yielding in its several shades. The film is said to retain all of the color which Fredrick Helms put into the stage version of "The Dove," in which Judith Anderson and Holbrook Hill appeared. Roland West, the director, believes the story is even more suited to film, and that in "The Dove," Miss Talmadge achieves new heights in a part as different from her prior characterization as that was from its predecessor.

"The Dove" was made at the United Artists Studio in Hollywood, taking six months in the making. First, Roland West and Wallace Smith adapted Willard Mack's stage play to film, then Smith and Paul Bern wrote the scenario, then West directed Miss Talmadge in the picture, which Oliver Marsh photographed. It was Marsh who won himself so much critical commendation with photography of Miss Talmadge's "antlike" photographic effects in "The Dove" are said to be no novel that the set in the United Artists studio was closed to visitors by Direct West while certain sequences were being filmed.

Tom Mix At Colonial On Friday

"Daredevil's Reward," a Fox Films production starring Tom Mix, which will have a two-day showing at the Colonial theater, commencing Friday, is a colorful story of a Texas ranger who is compelled to hold up a stage in order to foil the efforts of a gang of bandits.

Accused and betrayed by the girl whom he has grown to love, Mix stages a smashing comeback and proves to her his unquestionable honesty.

In order to outwit the "outlaw" Mix assumes the role of a wandering quack doctor and with the help of Slim Tweedy, his assistant, stages a medicine show in order to get into the good graces of the gang.

The lovely face of Ena Powell throws Tom off his guard, and he unwittingly extracts the wrong tooth from one of his patients. Forced to flee for their lives, Tom and Slim wreck most of the town in trying to escape the wrath of the villain and his friends.

The story is brought to a smashing climax with the disclosure of himself as one of the dreaded rangers and the capture of the outlaws.

The cast includes Natalie Joyce, Layford Davidson, Billy Bletcher, and Harry Corling. Gene Forde directed the production.

48 Reds Executed By Chinese Force

SHANGHAI, July 12 (AP)—Of 107 Reds arrested at Canton since July 9, 48 have been executed. A similar fate for the others is expected.

Ninety student agitators arrested at Shekung, 40 miles from Canton have been brought to Canton for trial. There are 17 girls among them. Execution of most of the students is likely.

We're beginning to think more and more that what Mr. Bower meant in his keynote speech in Houston was "Tarn the rascals out."

No More Gas In Stomach and Bowels

If you wish to be permanently relieved of gas in stomach and bowels, take Baumann's Gas Tablets, which are prepared especially for stomach gas and all the bad effects resulting from gas pressure.

That empty, gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach will disappear; that anxious, nervous feeling with heart palpitation will vanish, and you will again be able to take a deep breath without discomfort.

That drowsy, sleepy feeling after dinner will be replaced by a desire for entertainment. Bloating will cease. Your limbs, arms and fingers will no longer feel cold and "go to sleep" because Baumann's Gas Tablets get rid of gas from interfering with the circulation.
