Mrs. W. H. Leisman Is Hostess At Bridge-Luncheon

One of the largest and prettiest bridge-luncheons of the summer took place yesterday afternoon when Mrs. W. H. Leisman entertained at her home on Walnut street honoring Mrs. Earl Stoddard, of New York. Guests were seated at 1 o'clock at eight charmingly appointed tables. Sweet peas and other dainty summer flowers in cool pastel shades were used in table bouquets, while baskets and bouquets of flowers about the rooms made a pretty setting for the afternoon. A three-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. R. L. Pouch won the honors at bridge for the afternoon, while Mrs. W. C. Perkins had second high score. Consolation went to Mrs. Clyde B. Selig. The honor guest was presented with a prize. Out-of-town guests for the affair, which was one of the most important of the summer for La Grande society women, were Mrs. H. J. Campbell, of Enterprise, Mrs. David Stoddard, of Baker, and Mrs. G. L. Dutton, of Portland.

A regular Tuesday afternoon meeting of the class of parents, teachers and leaders of children's organizations of La Grande who are studying the course provided by the international council of religious education of Chicago, was held yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leif H. Aves on M avenue. The study book, "Study of the Junior Child" by Powell, was taken up. The class is specializing now upon the study of children between ages of nine and 12. Later the adolescent period will be taken up. Certain icates for work in the class were presented a few months ago by the international council to Mrs. Fred Gehring, Mrs. W. E. Buchanan, Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. Aves. Members are working to secure diplomas.

Plans for the annual picnic to be held Aug. 8 at the city park were discussed last night when the Ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen met in an interesting and well attended session at Eagles hall. Mrs. E. C. Coughenover, president, was in charge of the meeting. During the evening a pillow, which had been made by Mrs. George Kennedy, was won by Mrs. George Fox. Prizes were from the sale of the pillow went to the floral fund.

A social hour followed the regular business meeting. Mrs. C. E. Happersett was chairman of the refreshment committee. Twenty members were present.

Miss Helen Diehl Honored At Picnic

Miss Helen Diehl, of Durango, Colo., was the inspiration of a picnic last evening at which Miss Helen Diehl was hostess to a few of her friends.

The picnic, of which a wicker roast was a feature, took place a few miles west of the city. Those who enjoyed the pleasant evening were Miss Edith Ebell, Miss Gertrude Wagener, Miss Annetta Johnson, Miss Diehl and Miss Price and her brother, Carroll.

Miss Diehl is here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray N. Diehl, from Colorado for a visit with relatives. She is Miss Price's cousin.

Mrs. Lloyd Bleckford gave a most interesting report of the national convention of the L. S. to the B. of L. E. and E. at San Francisco last night when the local lodge No. 294 held a regular meeting at the K. of P. hall. Mrs. Bleckford was the delegate from the La Grande society to the national meeting, which convened last month. Her discussion of the accomplishments of the national session was the feature of a very pleasant meeting for the 15 or more members who were in attendance. Mrs. Edward Streiff, who is president of the society, was in charge of the business session, which was followed by a social hour, when refreshments were served.

During the evening the Washington-Oregon meeting of the society at Tacoma in August was discussed and the society made plans to have a representation from La Grande.

Mt. Glen (Special)—A jolly picnic was enjoyed by a number of

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, cream, fried dried beef with scrambled eggs, toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Lamb with rice, escarole with French dressing, raspberry waffles, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked ham, new potatoes in cream sauce, spinach and egg salad, watermelon, milk, coffee.

Waffle desserts are just popular during the hot months. Almost any cake batter can be baked in waffle form and the use of the waffle iron saves heating up the oven. More than this, the procedure takes but a few minutes and means a real saving of time and energy.

Lamb with Rice
One cup diced cooked lamb, 1 1/2 cups cooked rice, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 medium-sized onions, 1 green pepper, 3 medium-sized fresh tomatoes, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon sugar.

Melt butter, add onions peeled and minced and pepper cut in fine shreds after removing seeds and pith. Cook over a low fire for five minutes and add tomatoes, peeled and chopped. If canned tomatoes are used there should be one and one-half cups. Cook mixture until it thickens, adding sugar with tomatoes. Add salt, pepper, lamb and rice and heat thoroughly, stirring constantly. Serve very hot.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

The series of playing questions we are running on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week apply equally well to Auction Bridge or Contract Bridge. In today's hand South is the Declarer; Spades trump; and the score is love-all (nothing-nothing). The cards of Dummy and Closed Hand are given, the King of Clubs is led, and the question asked is how Declarer should plan to play the hand. Make up your mind after looking at Declarer's twenty-six cards, how you would answer that question before you read the explanation that follows.

Plan of Declarer
Declarer should trump with the four of Spades, not with an honor. This is not a case in which a Dummy entry is vital, and there is a possibility that the four adverse trumps are all in one hand. If so, trumping with an honor would cost a trick. Making up the entry in Dummy is not necessary because Declarer has eleven tricks assured and must lose one anyway. His hope is for a Small Slam which, with normal distribution of the adverse trumps, he can get just as well without an entry in Dummy as with it if the King of Hearts is on his right. He cannot accomplish his purpose if the four adverse trumps are all in one adverse hand, but with that improbable distribution the high ruff would be fatal.

He will lead trumps until he exhausts the adverse trumps; then lead his five Diamonds, all of which he has to win in the Closed Hand, and then lead his small Heart. If the Heart trick be taken by West, the game is assured no matter what West leads. If the Heart trick be taken by East, as is probable, the suit will have to be continued (if East led a Club, the Declarer could discard in one hand and trump in the other); and in that case Declarer gets the opportunity for the Heart finesse.

HEALTH

SOME INSECTS POISONOUS
By U. S. Public Health Service
WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite the success of "swat the fly" campaigns, drainage projects and other remedial measures, man is still harassed by myriads of insects.

Campers, bathers, vacationists and other outdoor devotees are likely to come in contact with some form of insect life which in most cases is only pestiferous but in some instances is poisonous. A camping place should be selected with a view to obtaining as much immunity as possible from these pests. The farther removed campers are from human dwellings and animal sheds, the less will be their annoyance from flies. High ground, well drained and with no water standing nearby, usually will be found fairly free from mosquitoes. It is well to include screening or netting in any camp equipment.

The bites and stings of mosquitoes and other insects may be treated by applying a few drops of household ammonia or ordinary cooking soda, moistened. If stung by bees, wasps or yellowjackets the "stinger" should be removed before applying ammonia or soda. If the pain is intense, relief can be obtained by cold cloths or a solution of boric acid.

The Red bug or "chigger" is responsible for one of the most annoying and painful skin eruptions. This insect burrs its way into the skin, necessitating its removal with a needle. The needle should be sterilized before being used. This may be done by passing it once or twice through a flame. An alcoholic solution of thymol applied to the affected parts is frequently effective in destroying "chiggers." After exposure to these insects, the body should be bathed with soap and bathed as this often prevents further trouble.

KLAMATH MAN GUILTY
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., July 18 (AP)—It took a circuit court jury 45 minutes late yesterday to find George Nolan guilty on a charge of injuring a person while operating a car under the influence of liquor. He had been indicted by a grand jury. Sentence will be pronounced Friday morning by Judge A. L. Levitt.
