SUMMONS
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, IN AND FOR UNION COUNTY, OREGON.

La Grande Investment Company, a Corporation, Plaintiff vs. Fred Knutson, a widower, Defendant.

To Fred Knutson, a widower, the above named defendant: IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the 22nd day of August A. D., 1928, said date being more than six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, which is July 16th, A. D., 1928 and being the time provided for such appearance by the order of publication of summons entered herein and if you fail to so appear and answer on or before said above named date, plaintiff above named, for want thereof, will apply to the court for the relief prayed for and demanded in its complaint.

For a judgment and decree of this court against the above named defendant, Fred Knutson, a widower, for the sum of $226.00, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from and after the 24th day of March A. D., 1923 and for the further sum of $50.00 attorney's fee in this suit and plaintiff costs and disbursements in this suit, and that the mortgage described in plaintiff's complaint be foreclosed and the mortgaged premises sold in one parcel as provided for under the statute and laws of the state of Oregon and the rules and practices of this court and that the proceeds thereof be applied toward the payment of the plaintiff's decree and costs and accruing costs and the excess if any be turned over to the defendant or your successors in interest as the same to the court may appear, and if such said plaintiff may become a purchaser of the property in said mortgage described, and if plaintiff fails to realize enough out of said premises to satisfy plaintiff's decree together with necessary costs and accruing costs and a reasonable attorney's fee, then the plaintiff have judgment against the above named defendant, Fred Knutson, and that the above named defendant, Fred Knutson be foreclosed and barred from all and any right, title, claim and interest in and to the said premises described in said mortgage, except the right of redemption, which said defendant may have under the statute and laws of the state of Oregon and for the further sum of $100.00 together with interest thereon from and after the 12th day of May A. D., 1927 and for the sum of $25.00 as attorney's fee and for such other and further relief as to the court may appear in equity and the nature of this case may require.

The real property mentioned and described in said mortgage and in plaintiff's complaint and which is sought to be foreclosed in this suit is described as follows, to-wit: Tract No. 9, Cove Orchard "Tracts," according to the recorded plat thereof on file in the office of the Recorder of Conveyances, Union County, Oregon.

You will take notice that this summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of the Honorable J. W. Knowles, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County, which

AT THE THEATERS

Monte Blue In "Brass Knuckles" At The Star

"Brass Knuckles" comes to the Star theater Friday for a run of two days. It is a Warner Bros. production and Monte Blue and Betty Bronson are starred. The story and scenario were written by Harvey Gates, and Lloyd Bacon directed.

Scenes in prison, in the tenements, the courts, and the homes of the poor of a great city, provide locale for "Brass Knuckles." The story is of a tenement lad who is wrongfully imprisoned, and while in jail incurs the hatred of a fellow inmate, who hounds his after-life, trying to separate him from the motherless wife for whom he is eating.

Hard-fisted, tender, humorous, pathetic, running the whole gamut of human passions, "Brass Knuckles" is a story hard to forget. Monte Blue and Betty Bronson do splendid work in the stellar roles, and the cast includes William Russell, George Stone, Paul Frank and Jack Curtis. Having seen "Brass Knuckles" you'll want all your friends to see it.

Meighan At Arcade in "The Racket"

Thomas Meighan, filmstar's popular Irish star is presented in the most logical and picturesque role of his screen career in "The Racket," a thrilling underworld melodrama which opens Thursday at the Arcade theater for three days' engagement. Meighan has drawn what is known in film circles as a "natural" in his role of Captain McQuinn, hard-boiled metropolitan police captain.

Meighan, with his magnetic Irish personality, has a ready-made role in Captain McQuinn, and the noted actor has made the most of his opportunity. With one of the finest and most realistic underworld stories ever written, and supported by the greatest cast ever assembled for a Meighan picture, the popular actor is ascending heights of stardom unexcelled in the past, with his latest characterization.

Meighan has injected the enthusiasm of his own personality into his police officer impersonation in "The Racket." "I am more enthusiastic over 'The Racket' than anything I have done in years," he declared when the picture was completed. "I consider it an ideal vehicle, and the part of Captain McQuinn is the finest role I have had in years."

"The Racket" is a thrilling tale of gang warfare, political corruption and bootlegging. The stage play, written by Bartlett Cormack, former newspaperman, played to packed Broadway houses for months. The story is based on first hand knowledge of crook-controlled conditions in a modern metropolitan center, and Cormack went to Hollywood to write the screen treatment of the stage presentation.
