SPECULATE UPON HOOVER'S PLANS

Friends Believe He Will Not Advance Specific Relief Plan

BOAARD HOOVER TRAIN, CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 19 (AP)—Friends who have conferred with Herbert Hoover during his westward journey to California have gained the impression that the republican presidential nominee does not intend to advance any specific plan to keep relief in his acceptance speech at Palo Alto next month. These same friends declare, however, that Mr. Hoover is thoroughly alive to the fact that the condition of agriculture presents a problem which calls for solution, and that he will pledge himself to make a thoroughgoing survey of the whole situation, and to dedicate his best efforts to the formulation of a practical plan of aid.

Details of a specific plan very likely will be left for further study with the possibility that as the campaign progresses proposals will be outlined, with the first of these probably touched upon when the nominee speaks at his old home at West Branch, La., late next month. As he has traveled across the continent during the past five days, Mr. Hoover has received somewhat conflicting views from leaders in the farm movement as to just what the situation in the corn belt really is as it bears upon his own political fortunes and those of his party. He is continuing his conferences with political leaders today.

he stated to punish not only the material author of the crime but also to punish "as examples" those found to be "intellectual directors of the deed."

General Antonio Rios Zertuche, installed as chief of police after the tragedy, announced that the prisoner "had confessed to talk."

General Limon, chief of the presidential staff, announced that the situation throughout the republic continued tranquil despite the intense feeling which the slaying had engendered. The army was under orders to maintain the peace and censorship was still in force. Excitement in the capital, which caused numerous enemies of the government to flee in fear of their lives, quieted somewhat.

The permanent commission of congress was summoned, to meet today to consider the political situation which has resulted from the assassination. Whether calls would continue in office after his term expires in December or whether another would be elected to replace Obregon was still a matter of conjecture.

Prisoner Questioned

The prisoner, subjected to continuous questioning during which even President Calles had tried to obtain information from him, was said unofficially to have refused to admit accomplices and to have insisted that he alone was responsible.

He was stated to have lived at Guadalajara but to have come to Mexico City six months ago seeking work. Police asserted that they found upon him a picture of the Priest Miguel Augustin Projearez, who was executed in connection with the attempt to assassinate General Obregon with bombs last November. A rosary and other religious emblems were also found.

Leaders consider the site an ideal one.
