Visiting Here—Mrs. D. M. Deeter, nee Ella Childers, of Oakland, Cal., and Mrs. Irvin Kramer, nee Bessie Childers, of Woodland, Cal., are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Childers, of Cove, and other relatives over the valley.

Camp Coming Nicely—According to Mrs. R. W. Leighton and daughter, Liletta, who spent yesterday at Wallowa Lake at the Epworth League summer institute, the attendance and interest at the institute exceeds by far that of any previous conference. Miss Leighton has been a regular attendant at the conference for a number of years. They took lunch with the La Grande delegation, attended some of the interesting classes, which are being conducted by a particularly fine teaching staff, and in the afternoon Miss Leighton joined a party of Willamette students at boating and a picnic. There were 10 Willamette alumni and students from different sections of Idaho and Oregon and they had a very pleasant time together. Those attending the institute had a swimming and diving contest yesterday.

CHICAGO STORM TOLL UP TO NINE

Property Damage Estimated at Several Thousands of Dollars

CHICAGO, July 20 (AP)—An electrical storm, characterized by severity and brevity, and accompanied by a 44-mile an hour gale, centered upon Chicago and northern Illinois yesterday afternoon causing the deaths of nine persons and property damage which early today was estimated at many thousands of dollars.

Numerous homes and buildings were struck by lightning, grain was destroyed, streets and basements were flooded and electrical power lines short circuited.

Struck by Lightning—A man and a woman were struck by lightning while seeking shelter under trees on two golf links, a workman was blown from a building by winds; a third man was killed by a broken power line; and five persons died from the effects of the heat.

Mrs. Frederick B. Hovey, 38, of suburban Oak Park, was killed by lightning on an Oak Park golf course, and Herman Straubig, 36, Gary, Ind., met a similar death on a golf links near Hammond, Ind.

Robert Franzak, 13, Chicago, died for Mrs. Hovey, was seriously injured by a bolt and two companions of Straubig, Raymond Hickey and Fred Hunt, both at Hammond, were knocked unconscious.

Blown From Building—Raymond Mador, 21, Chicago, was blown from the top of a building under construction and killed, while two others narrowly escaped injury.

Peter Chimino, 46, Chicago, died when he touched a live wire.

Power was cut off in many places and telephone services temporarily crippled. Small grains were slashed to the ground in many counties. Buildings in the center of the city at Dixon, Ill., were flooded. Farmers near Aurora, Ill., reported heavy damage to grain and other crops.

Hiker Says View In Wallowa Best

both Eagle Cap and Matterhorn on the whole alone. "That saw 60 lakes in all, making the Lake Basin their camping headquarters."

Mr. Robin was asked if he had done any fishing. "Can't be bothered with fish when there is a panorama of such beauty as we got from those two peaks," he laughed, thus demonstrating that he is a true lover of grandeur. He proudly claims to be the "daddy" of the cross-country hike fashion that started in Portland several years ago and was the winner of the pedestrian migration from Portland to Cottage Grove in 1926.

Mr. Robin has since coached on trails. He believes that the Pyle cross-country hike had its origin with the first Portland vicinity hike which he arranged.

Praises Ice Lake—Mr. Robin declares that Ice Lake is the perfect lake of them all in wallowa county and thinks it is the most charming. In that it is always varying in mood and color, than Crater Lake.

With him were John Berry, Axel Ramvick, August Hildebrand, Art of Astoria, his sister, Mrs. Jean Weston and himself, both of Portland.

MORISONS GUILTY ON FOUR COUNTS; FINE TOTALS $500

After the city rested its case, the two defendants took the stand. Morison denied any knowledge of any beer or other liquor being in the house or on the place and declared that he had not been drinking his wife to break the bottles on the stove. He also declared that the Bell Lumber company store at Rydewood, Mrs. Young and their children continue to reside in Portland where they own a home and he spends two weekends a month. Mr. Young went into business in Portland upon leaving here and has recently come into the employ of the Long Bell company. "There is one thing that La Grande has them all beat on—and that's climate," insists the former La Grande merchant. Mr. Young's daughter, Miss Joan Mary, is here with him and, while he will remain just a few days, she will be here for the rest of the summer, visiting with her aunt, Mrs. F. B. Bowman, at her home on Second street. Mr. Young is on a two-week vacation trip.

Buyers Car—Mrs. H. Harris and her son of Halley, Ind., left yesterday for their home after spending a few days here on business and visiting with Mrs. Milton Price, formerly of Halley. Mrs. Harris purchased the combination funeral coach and ambulance from the Snodgrass & Zimmerman mortuary which has just been equipped with two new funeral coaches. Mrs. Harris is in the undertaking and furniture business at Halley. Her son drove the coach back. Miss Mae Ivy, who has been here on a short visit with her cousin, Mrs. Price, accompanied Mrs. Harris home.

WOMEN TO ORGANIZE—WASHINGTON, July 20 (AP)—Organization of republican women in the middle west, will be taken up at the republican organization meeting in Chicago August 4.

SMITH'S PLANS—ALBANY, N. Y., July 20 (AP)—Governor Smith declared today that he intended to deal with prohibition and farm relief "extensively" in his speech of acceptance. The democratic presidential nominee disclosed his intentions when asked by newspapermen about published reports that he planned to subordinate the farm relief and prohibition issues and stress his ideas about reorganization of federal government, farm taxes and governmental economy.

The governor said there was no basis for such a forecast of his intentions and reiterated that he had disclosed to no one what he intended to emphasize except that he would touch on all major issues of the campaign.

In their efforts to put Governor Smith in the white house, the democrats intend to overlook no opportunities to capture control of congress.

As they prepare to make their
