Back After 26 Years—La Grande was a very different looking place 26 years ago than it is now, today declared Mrs. Orville Walker, former valley resident, who returned last night on train No. 18 for a visit after being away from here for more than a quarter of a century. Mrs. Walker is the guest of her old-time friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oliver. She now resides at Pasco but formerly lived in the Summerville section. She is anticipating a very pleasant visit among her friends in this vicinity and they are equally pleased to welcome her. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver make their home at 2903 Adams avenue.
Fred Jensen at Lake—Grief, varying from persistent ill luck and minor misfortunes to the tragedy of the death of a loved one, has followed the family of Ferdinand Jensen, machinist at Bowman-Hicks. Last Christmas Eve Mr. Jensen's wife died, striking the heart of all sorrow into the family of four children, two boys and two girls. A few months later the family home burned down. Since then the younger boy has undergone a major operation and minor injuries have occurred to other members of the family. Now, capping the list of misfortunes, Mr. Jensen himself suffered a stroke last week and is at Hot Lake. It is reported that the stroke is a slight one and that his condition is not serious. However, his left side is paralyzed and he will have to be at the lake for some time. Mr. Jensen's older son is Edwin Jensen formerly a star pitcher at the local high school and now an outstanding member of the University of Oregon track team.

Called Back Home—Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Jackson returned this morning from near Kamela where they have been for several days picking huckleberries. They were called back by the death of John Gardner in Portland and are leaving for that city tonight to be with the bereaved family.

Livestock Shipping High—Livestock shipping, particularly of lambs, is at its peak on the O.-W. lines just now, according to J. T. Purdy, travelling freight and passenger agent, who has been here for several days. Mr. Purdy's territory extends from Hood River to Huntington and includes all branchlines except the one to Bend.

At O. S. C.—Mrs. Bertha Hayes, head of the commercial department of the La Grande high school, is attending the O. S. C. summer session where she is taking commercial law, methods in advanced accounting, use of office appliances and pipe organ. Mrs. Hayes is planning to spend a short vacation in Portland before her return.

Announce Hot Lake Program—An interesting program in which several La Granderes will appear will be given at Hot Lake tonight at eight o'clock. It was announced this afternoon. The Misses Mac-Elizabeth and Alice Jeannette Cooper will each play a violin solo and a duet together. Miss Gladys Miller will give two piano solos and Mrs. Harriet R. McDonald will give a reading. An invitation is extended to La Granderes.

At Lake for Week—Mrs. B. J. Green and daughter, Mildred, of La Grande, and Mrs. Green's sister, Miss Dorothy Blake, of Baker, are spending this week at Wallawa Lake. Miss Blake is home for the summer from Philadelphia where she is studying with Leo OrNSTein, nationally known teacher. Miss Blake will return to Philadelphia this fall. She is one of the outstanding Baker musicians and is also known to La Grande audiences, having appeared here on several occasions.

Had Auto Wreck—A carload of folk from Naches, just out of Yakima, Wash., bound to Richland for a funeral, narrowly escaped serious injury when they overturned just below Kamela, early yesterday morning, according to a report received from the Richland Auto Electric company. The accident occurred between five and six o'clock a. m. the car overturning on the left side of the road against the bank. Had the machine gone to the right it would have rolled down over a 200-foot embankment. As it was the machine was quite badly damaged though the travellers were not injured. Mrs. Margaret Simley and her brother and sister-in-law and children, making up a party of six, were in the car going to Richland for the funeral of Mrs. Simley's mother.

THIS COP COPS

A month ago, Fred Griffin, motorcycle policeman of Santa Cruz, Cal., had never fired at a clay pigeon. Today he's a sensation, winning the California state trans-shoot at Del Monte over a formidable list of scattergunners. He broke two singles straight in one trial, and missed only seven out of 799 clay pigeons tossed up for him during the meet.

Unwed Mothers Average About 18 Years of Age

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26 (AP)—Unmarried mothers are younger now on the average than they were a few years ago. Statistics compiled by the Salvation Army disclosed the fact that of the 250 women admitted to army maternity homes in 11 western states and Hawaii during the first six months of this year, the average age was 18 years. The youngest expectant mother was 12 and the oldest 40 years of age. Most of them were between 16 and 21 years old. A few years ago, Salvation Army statistics revealed the average age of such cases was well above 21 years. From Jan. 1 to July 1 of this year 251 babies were born in these Salvation Army institutions.

JOHN GARDNER DIES TODAY IN PORTLAND, ORE.

(Continued from Page 1) Jackson is a retired railroad. They are leaving on train No. 25 tonight and Mrs. Donnelly is leaving tomorrow. Pete Biever, of Kamela, is also going down on train No. 25 tonight. Friends said today that they thought Mr. Gardner was in his 60's, probably 65 or 66.

HEAT RECORD BROKEN HERE; MERCURY 107

ROSEBURG SLIGHTLY COOLER

ROSEBURG, Ore., July 26 (AP)—Temperature of 100 was recorded here yesterday, a slight reduction from the high mark of 103 Tuesday. The humidity here yesterday also was slightly higher, being 24 per cent. This morning's observation showed the thermometer 5 degrees below the same time yesterday.

100 IN BAKER

BAKER, Ore., July 26 (AP)—Clouds brought some relief from the heat this morning, but the temperature was rising at noon. Yesterday was the hottest day Baker has had in 29 years with a maximum of 100 late in the afternoon.

DUNNE MOTOR BATTLE GOES INTO COURTS

(Continued from Page 1) Attorney John H. Carson against Secretary Koser. It is alleged that the bill is unconstitutional on several grounds. Among these are that it does not comply with that part of the constitution which requires a measure to be plainly worded. It is alleged that in reading the bill it cannot be ascertained what portion of the motor vehicle laws are repealed and what are preserved. Further it is alleged that that part of the constitution which requires that all laws imposing a tax shall operate uniformly upon the same class of subjects.

Devers Explains

"For instance," said Mr. Devers today, "if you own a trailer equipped with pneumatic tires must pay a tax, while the owner of a similar trailer equipped with solid tires is permitted to use the highways without any charge whatever. It is also claimed that under the Dunne bill users of the public highways, whether that use be for transportation of property or for two-wheel trailers without any charge or fee whatever."

The complaint sets out that it would be necessary to devise some other means of taxation to maintain the highway fund. Already the state is threatened if the bill passes, with the loss of $1,159,000 allotted by the federal government.

When the case will be argued has not yet been decided.

NORMAL SCHOOL SUMMER SESSION VERY SUCCESSFUL

(Continued from Page 1) wards the attainment of their diplomas but in the practical experience the school had given them. The students have been unanimous in expressing their delight with the school and all have said that they are glad they chose to spend the summer here," Mr. Longfellow continued. "They are going away to tell their friends about the new Eastern Oregon normal school that we are going to have, and to boost for it," he concluded.

BACK HOME AGAIN—IN MOURNING

The joyful welcome that Palo Alto, Cal., had prepared for its foremost citizen was changed to mourning when Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover alighted there on their way to their home, a few hours before the funeral services for the latter's father. The Hoovers, with Mrs. Hoover in somber attire, are shown leaving the train for their auto.

Speculator gathered at the edge of the lake to wish Tunney success as he entered the plane. The champion, who arose at 7 o'clock, his usual hour, assured his well-wishers that he was in the best physical shape of his flaccid career and was confident.

When the formality of weighing in has been completed, Tunney will go to a hotel, where he will have a mid-afternoon dinner, after which he will rest until it is time for him to start for the Yankee Stadium.

Ticket Sales Slow At the Yankee Stadium, scene of the fight, a score of ticket sellers yawned in their booths while three times that many patrolmen loitered about with nothing to do. In contrast to the last big heavy-weight fight held at the American League ball park—that between Jack Dempsey and Jack Sharkey last summer—there were no squads of determined customers bent on getting seats if it meant waiting all day. In fact there were no ticket seekers at all in sight and no fans, the news apparently having not yet become general that the weigh-in at 2 o'clock was to be held at the stadium instead of Madison Square Garden.

Crowd Watches Laborers The only adult crowd in the neighborhood surrounded an excavation some distance away where the curious watched laborers at work. Even the usual delegation of young boys was absent, the juvenile element appearing to find its chief interest in a wild west show nearby.

Women More Enthusiast The first ticket purchasers who did appear were women—Mrs. Estelle Mitchell and Mrs. Jenny Warshauer, both residents of the neighborhood. Asked who she thought would win the fight, Mrs. Mitchell replied "I think Tunney is beautiful."

About 1000 persons, many of them women were at the Columbia yacht club pier when the plane came in sight over Jersey flying directly over the club house, banked and landed on the water. One of the first to see the plane was Billy Gibson, Tunney's manager, who had been striding nervously up and down the pier. Tunney and his companion stepped from the plane after it had taxied near the pier, to a speedboat which carried them the rest of the way.

Seeks Rest Tunney was arrested on the pier by his brother Detective Thomas Tunney of the police force. The champion was dressed in a Scotch plaid suit with cap to match. He waved to the crowd and then sped away in an automobile to the home of a friend.

He declined to say who this friend was explaining he wanted to remain in seclusion during the day and get as much rest as possible before his fight at the Yankee Sta-

BRITISH OPTIMISTIC

LONDON, July 26 (AP)—The Tunney-Heenev fight apparently could arouse little more enthusiasm in Great Britain if it were held in a London ring instead of one 3,000 miles away. Preparations for the bout, the fighters' statements, and the opinions of the experts are splashed all over the front pages of the afternoon newspapers while speculation as to the outcome is the chief topic of conversation wherever men congregate. Some Rosy-Hued accounts of the challenger's condition and prowess seem to have encouraged a large number of Britons to believe that there is an excellent chance that world heavyweight crown will be wrested from the American and clapped on the brow of the man who is a British subject even if from a dominion as far away as New Zealand. There's little evidence, however, of any considerable backing of this optimistic opinion with hard cash.

DEMPESEY FAILS TO SHOW UP NEW YORK, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—Tex Rickard's announcement that Jack Dempsey would second Tom Heenev in his fight tonight was set down as just another blast of the ballyhoo which the former champion failed to appear before the boxing commission this morning to apply for a second-round license.

The commission had been called in special session on the strength of the promoter's declaration yesterday that Dempsey would appear and ask a temporary license to act as Heenev's adviser and chief second. The action was taken around for an hour or so and then adjourned.
