Summer Party Is Given Yesterday at H. G. Smith Home

A pretty summer party—one of the season's most delightful—was given yesterday afternoon when Mrs. H. G. Smith entertained at her home on N avenue in honor of her sister, Miss Francis Malott, of San Francisco, who is her guest. Six tables of bridge were at play for the afternoon. Mrs. H. G. Avery making high score and Mrs. R. E. Murphy second high. Guest prize went to Miss Malott.

For the affair lovely bouquets of gladioli, snapdragons and other summer flowers were used. A color scheme of yellow was suggested, particularly in the serving of refreshments at the small tables at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Malott has been here for several weeks and will remain for another week before returning home. She is a popular summer visitor in the city. Miss Malott is also visiting her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Buck.

Out-of-town guests at the interesting affair in her honor yesterday were Mrs. Ray E. Westbrook, of Wichita, Kan., who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nusbaum and Miss Muriel McKinley of Los Angeles, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Miller.

A well-attended regular meeting of the Crystal Rebekah lodge No. 56, of which Mrs. Edna Cameron is noble grand, was held last evening with 50 members present. Initiation which had been planned for last night was postponed until next Wednesday evening, when four candidates will be taken into the lodge. Mrs. Mollie Buck will be chairman of the refreshment committee which will serve following the initiatory meeting, and with her on the committee will be Mrs. Evelyn McKennon and Mrs. Ruth Richardson. Plans for some special evening of entertainment to take place this month were discussed and though no definite decision was reached it was decided there would be a special social evening during the month. An Odd Fellows' picnic to be held at Pleasant Grove on Aug. 12 was announced.

J. P. Moredock gave a fishing party at Pratt's fishing pond north of Summerville last night in honor of his niece, Miss Lois Russell, who is visiting here from Washington with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell. Miss Russell is leaving tomorrow for Hood River for a visit with relatives. She has been here for a month. The party last night caught their fish and fried them at a pretty camp site where they enjoyed a picnic supper. After an hour or so of social visiting they returned to their homes here. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dock Lindsay and daughter, Nancy, and Mrs. Lindsay's niece, Miss Margaret Harland, who is visiting here from Condon, Miss Mildred Onslow, Mrs. W. H. Russell, and her guest, Mrs. June Raddits, of Pasco, and Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Moredock and their daughter, Eileen, and the honor guest, Miss Lois Russell. The affair was a very pleasant one.

Degree of Honor Convention Nears

Though the date of their convention is still fairly distant, members of the Degree of Honor of La Grande who will be hostesses to a large district convention on Sept. 25 here are already actively making preparations for the approaching event. They anticipate an attendance of 200 members of the lodge from the entire state of Oregon and part of Washington, which is included in the district. On Saturday they will hold a cooked food sale as one means of financing the convention and later the organization will give a bazaar. Mrs. C. E. Wale, president of the Degree of Honor, is general chairman for the coming event.

Mrs. George Rochester was hostess to the Women's Missionary society of the Christian church yesterday at the monthly meeting at her home on X avenue. Mrs. C. E. Golden and Mrs. George A. Anderson were assistant hostesses. Mrs. C. E. Bragg was leader of the study for the day, discussing in a general review the work of the United Missionary of the church, both at home and abroad. It was announced that the year's study book "From Survey to Service" would probably be ready for the next meeting. The missionary program for the afternoon included talks by a number of members. Mrs. Golden led in the devotionals. Mrs. A. P. Nelson, president, was in charge of the business meeting. A delightful social hour, during which refreshments were served, took place. About 20 members were present.

During the afternoon Mrs. R. L. Putnam announced that she will organize a junior missionary society among the girls and with that view has called a meeting at her home at 102 Hemlock street for Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

One of the season's many smaller swimming parties, which are proving a very happy and informal way to pass away the summer's leisure hours, took place at Cove yesterday afternoon when a group of La Grande matrons enjoyed an hour or so at the pool. They were Mrs. Grover Grimmett, Mrs. Charles Reddingfield, Mrs. Claude Lynch and son, Billy, Mrs. Clyde Bunting and son, Dick, Mrs. C. S. Paddock and Mrs. I. M. Dolan and daughter, Betty Lou.

A small group of the city's young folk enjoyed a summer swimming party and picnic at Pine Cone last evening. The couples drove to Pine Cone shortly after 6 o'clock and after a plunge at the pool had a picnic supper at one of the tables in the park. In the group were Miss Ethel Harnden, Miss Ruth Neiderer, Miss Ruth Black, Miss Jacqueline O'Brien, Cecil Black, Melvin Palmer, Claire Perkins and Russell Nelson.

Dorothea Harrison Weds Howard Glenn

An outstanding nuptial event of the summer—one that unites two of the Grande Ronde valley's oldest and best known families—was a beautiful wedding solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Harrison yesterday evening at 5 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Dorothea Harrison, became the bride of Howard Glenn. Mr. Glenn is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy J. Glenn. Relatives and a few intimate friends witnessed the impressive ceremony which was performed by the Rev. H. W. Parker. For the important occasion the Harrison home was beautifully decorated in flowers of the season, gladiolas and snapdragons predominating.

At 5 o'clock the bridal party, led by little Miss Nancy Dutton, cousin of the bride, as flower girl, appeared. Miss Nancy wore a dainty frock of pink crepe de chine and carried the ring on a pink pillow. The bridesmaid was Miss Ruth Harrison, sister of the bride, who wore an attractive frock of white georgette, carrying a bouquet of sweetpeas and baby breath. The bride, who was escorted by her father, was beautiful in a lovely gown of blue taffeta. Her bouquet was of lilies and snapdragons. George Bugg was best man. Miss Marjorie Walsinger played the wedding march, Lohengrin.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at a prettily appointed table at which blue candles were lighted. The wedding cake was baked by the bride's sister.

Guests at the wedding were Senator and Mrs. A. R. Hunter, and their grandchildren, Nancy and Albert Dutton, Miss Marjorie Walsinger, Mr. and Mrs. Guy J. Glenn, Miss Ruth Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Harrison and Mr. Harrison's mother, Mrs. H. J. Harrison, George Bugg, Mrs. Irwin Kramer and sons, Clifton and Irwin Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Parker.

Following dinner the happy young couple left for Rainier national park on a 10-day honeymoon trip, going by car. Miss Walsinger caught the bride's bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn are popular among the younger folk of La Grande and have always made their home here, having attended the local high school. Mr. Glenn is employed at the post office.

A delightful surprise party took place Tuesday evening honoring Norman Sting on his 13th birthday anniversary. The affair was a complete surprise to Mr. Sting, who was greeted at his home on I avenue at about 7:30 o'clock by a group of friends. Cards and games were enjoyed throughout the evening and at a late hour refreshments were served by his mother, Mrs. C. E. Sting, assisted by Mrs. H. E. Richey. The refreshment hour brought the happy evening to an end.

Those attending were the Misses Phyllis Barnes, Doris Barnes, Bertha Rantz, Maxine Shellworth, Iola Robertson, LaVelle Richey, Harold Herr, Claude Anson, Stanley Miller, Peter Bowman, Melvin Gubleman, Herbert Miller, Donald Ostlund and the honor guest.

About 50 children enjoyed the Neighbors of Woodcraft picnic which took place at the Riverside park yesterday. The boys and girls went to the park at about 11 o'clock, enjoying a lunch at 12 o'clock. Their afternoon was spent in playing games, playing on the park slides and particularly at swimming in the river. At about 5 o'clock they had an afternoon lunch, returning home after this. About 12 of the mothers supervised the play of the day. Mrs. Hazel Robbins, senior guardian of the Juvenile organization, was in charge of the picnic.

SHE'S VIKING AND CENTAUR-ESS

This young lady's a Viking by birth and a horsewoman by choice—also a movie star. That is to say, Lucille Viking, pretty blonde girl, rode horseback from New York City to Hollywood, and as a result, was signed by Universal to play leads in western films. And on horseback, boy, she leads 'em!

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST — Plums, cereal, cream, creamed dried beef with broiled tomatoes, graham rolls, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Cheese timbales, cabbage salad, prune corn bread, lemonade.

DINNER — Roast veal, browned potatoes, lyonnaise beets, cucumber and endive salad, baked apple dumplings with cream, milk, coffee.

Choose a quick cooking apple for dumplings to insure the fruit and crust being "done" at the same time. If you aren't sure of the apples drop them into boiling thin sirup and simmer, closely covered, for 10 minutes. Then wrap in dough as usual. Add butter to the sirup and use for basting dumplings while baking.

Prune Corn Bread

One-half pound prunes, 2 cups white flour, 1 cup cornmeal, 6 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1¼ cups milk.

Wash prunes and let stand in cold water to cover over night. In the morning drain and steam until tender, but not soft. Remove stones and cut fruit in quarters. Sift flour, salt, baking powder and sugar and mix with cornmeal. Add prunes and mix well. Beat eggs until light and add with milk to first mixture. Beat hard and turn into a buttered dripping pan. Bake 30 minutes in a moderately hot oven. Cut in squares and serve warm with butter.

Dr. Hance Named O. S. C. Mines Dean

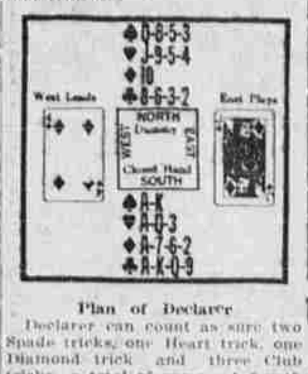
OREGON STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Aug. 2.—A western mining engineer, geologist and educator, Dr. James H. Hance, has been named dean of the school of mines it was announced today. Dr. Hance received most of his mining education at the University of Washington, represents the state of Illinois securities commission in mines investigation through the western states and Canada, and is at present head of the department of geology at the Texas A. and M. college.

In accepting the position Dr. Hance says he sees exceptional opportunity for development of a strong school here and looks forward with pleasure to his coming contact with the mining industry of the state. Before his appointment he visited the campus and inspected the equipment which he pronounced good.

Bridge Pointers

By Milton C. Work

Today we give the third of a series of three playing situations which apply equally to Auction Bridge and Contract Bridge. The cards of the Dummy and Declarer are given below; score love-all (nothing-nothing); contract one No Trump at Auction Bridge, three No Trumps at Contract; South is the Declarer, the Four of Diamonds led. Make up your mind how Declarer should plan his play before you read the explanation that follows.



Plan of Declarer

Declarer can count as sure two Spade tricks, one Heart trick, one Diamond trick and three Club tricks—a total of seven. A fourth Club trick is almost assured and would make a total of eight. Dummy's Queen of Spades would furnish an extra trick and make game if Dummy could obtain the lead to cash it; but the only chance to put Dummy in the lead would be by establishing Dummy's Jack of Hearts, and this cannot be done without losing a Heart trick. The loss of that trick, plus the Diamonds the adversaries will win if West's lead was from five Diamonds (as is probable), would save the game for the adversaries.

Declarer therefore should plan to duck the first Diamond, permitting the adversaries to continue that suit, then to win the third round of Diamonds with the Ace and lead Clubs expecting the adverse Clubs to be divided 3-2. His expectations being realized, he would cash four Clubs and then lead the Ace and King of Spades, giving him a total of seven tricks. He next would lead his losing Diamond from Closed Hand, regardless of whether the fall of the Diamonds has shown that West is left with one or two Diamonds. If West have two Diamonds, he will cash his last and Closed Hand will discard the Three of Hearts on it. Closed Hand then will be left with the Ace and Queen of Hearts, Dummy with the Queen of Spades and Jack of Hearts; West must lead either a Heart or a Spade, and in either case Declarer must take the two remaining tricks and go game.

Living within one's means generally means living at home most of the time.
