TWO KNOCKOUTS ON BOXING CARD

Audience Hostile at Last Event on Saturday Eve Fist Program

Saturday night's special boxing card of four four-round matches wound up in two knockouts, a draw and one exhibition that left the customers cold.

Erk Warden and Kid Smith appeared in the first attraction and exchanged plenty of swats in the short scrap. This match was pronounced a draw.

In the second, Buck Jones and Kid Alabama were about even during the first two rounds, both registering several solid punches but none of a real damaging quality. Then in the third, the Kid unleased a terrific wallop that got to Buck's jaw, sending him down for the count. Both fighters were given a big hand when they left the ring.

Yeske Wins by K. O.

The third round Yeske with too much reach and weight for Charles Binder of Huntington, although the latter put up a game fight for the better share of two rounds. Yeske, who also possesses considerable boxing skill, hammered Binder into submission in the second, knocking him down three times. The referee gave Yeske the match on a technical knockout with Binder punch drunk from the punishment he had taken.

The final match, between Steamboat Jackson and Jess Madden, was a tame boxing exhibition, the spectators hissing the fighters and some even leaving before the fourth round ended. Referee O. D. Scott warned them at the start of the final frame that they would have to fight and they speeded up a little, but not enough to please the audience in the least. When the bell rang, Scott didn't even bother to call it a draw.

Eddie Collins, of Hollywood, and his manager were introduced from the ring and the latter served as timekeeper.

La Grande Air Field Personals

LA GRANDE AIRFIELD (Special)—The motor and fuselage of the airplane that was owned by Pete Kingsley and Mike Sullivan and has been hangared here since last winter, was purchased Wednesday by Pilot Art Walters of Portland. Pilot and Mrs. Walters, while en route to their home from a business trip to central states, stopped in La Grande for a visit with relatives and while there heard that the parts of the plane were for sale, hence the purchase. The purchaser intends to have the motor worked over, new wings and tail pieces attached to the body, and damaged parts mended, making the machine as good as new. The machine is the one that was formerly owned by Eddie Kirstle, of Boise, and was sold early in the spring to Kingsley and Sullivan and later partially wrecked at the field here.

Pilot Walters is an instructor at the Rankin Flying Service at Portland, the largest aviation school in the United States, having over 500 students enrolled. The service also does a big business in the sale of airplanes, being distributors for three popular makes.

Pilot and Mrs. Walters left Friday for home, taking the machine he bought, with them. While in La Grande they were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. C. O. Williams.

No Trail Left By Bomber Of Bakery

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 6 (AP)—Diligent investigation has failed to uncover the trail of the person or persons who caused the explosion in the plant of the Silver Leaf Baking company early yesterday.

L. L. Francis, manager of the company, said that one of the union bakers, dismissed when union demands were refused, had the key to the premises and did not turn it over to the company until three days later. He presumed that a duplicate of this key had been made by some person who had used it yesterday morning to gain entrance to the place.

Sets World Mark for Endurance Swim

It cost Mrs. Myrtle Huddleston 25 pounds of weight and 54 hours of heartbreaking effort to smash her own world record for endurance swimming. She weighed 240 pounds when she dived into a New York pool at the beginning of the attempt, but only 215 when, after adding four hours to her record, she collapsed and sank. Here she is shown being lifted from the water by other swimmers.

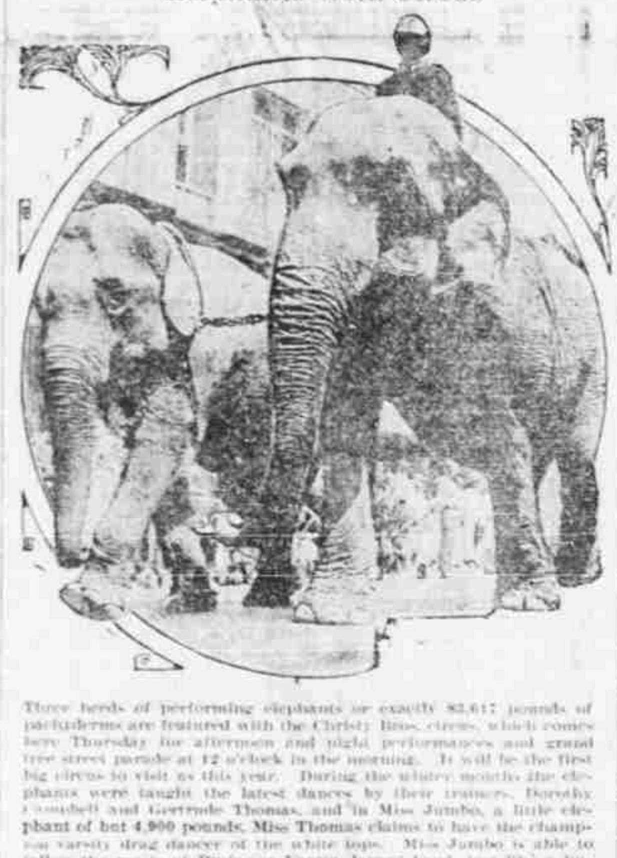
Elephants With Circus



Three herds of performing elephants or exactly 83,617 pounds of pachyderms are featured with the Christy Bros. circus, which comes here Thursday for afternoon and night performances and grand free street parade at 12 o'clock in the morning. It will be the first big circus to visit us this year. During the winter months the elephants were taught the latest dances by their trainers, Dorothy Campbell and Gertrude Thomas, and in Miss Jumbo, a little elephant of but 4,900 pounds, Miss Thomas claims to have the champion varsity drag dancer of the white tops. Miss Jumbo is able to follow the music of Professor Everet James' band, just like a human and is said to be more proficient in the terpsichorean art, than many of us plain, everyday folks. Both species of elephants, Asiatic and African, are carried by the Christy Bros. circus, and all of them appear in the street parade, which is more than two miles long.

YANKEE MARGIN IS LESS TODAY

Only Three and a Half Games Separate Leaders —Giants Are Beaten

By the Associated Press

The uncanny antics of a fast ball as served up by a young righthander and a not-so-young southpaw have chopped another full game out of the once imposing American league lead of Miller Huggins' high priced New York Yankees.

Staggering and stumbling about in hostile western territory, the Yankees were humbled yesterday by the speed and courage of Young Ed Walsh and the Chicago White Sox, who won, 5 to 4.

Taking full advantage of this opportunity, Connie Mack's Athletics, with pennant fever racing through their veins, trounced Detroit 5 to 1.

The Yank's once proud lead of 13 games has been reduced to three and a half.

Pitchers dominated the other American league battle in which the Boston Red Sox trimmed the St. Louis Browns, 3 to 1.

In the first game of one of those well-known "crucial" series, the St. Louis Cardinals stretched their National league lead to six and a half games by turning back their closest rivals, the New York Giants, 6 to 4 in 15 innings. Doubles by Holm and Haley in the 15th gave the Cardinals the game.

The Athletics beat Detroit, 3 to 1, thanks to the hurling of Robert Moses Grove, and Dazzy Vance and Brooklyn turned back the Chicago Cubs, 5 to 2.

Says Mexican Nun Mentally Deranged

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 6 (AP)—Bishop Miguel de la Mora in behalf of the Episcopal sub-committee issued a signed statement today rejecting the charge that the clergy was responsible for the murder of President-elect Alvaro Obregon.

He declared that one Catholic priest and one nun were involved in the crime did not mean that the clergy as a body was responsible.

The statement asserted that it was publicly known that the Mother Superior Concepcion Acebeda de la Llata was mentally deranged and that several cases of insanity have been reported in her family. The mother superior was named by Jose de Leon Toral, the slayer, as having indirectly influenced him.

Extradition Of Blackmer Sought

PARIS, Aug. 6 (AP)—Formal demand for extradition of Henry M. Blackmer, missing Teapot Dome witness wanted in Denver for perjury, was made ten days ago by the American embassy acting on instructions from the state department.

The legal department of the French foreign office considered no action could be taken until the documents in the case had arrived and been examined.

These have now reached Paris. They were sent by special messenger and have been transmitted to the foreign office. It was said there that a decision might be reached speedily.
