Robertson, who live on East Adams avenue.

Having Interesting Trip—
Friends of Mrs. W. E. Buchanan and daughter, Gwendolyn and son, Edward, report that the three are having a very happy summer trip and that they will leave the middle of August for home. Mrs. Buchanan and her son and daughter are now in North Carolina, having just finished their Florida visit, and are visiting at various cities along the Atlantic seaboard. They are driving.

Installed Printers—
Dan Tanner, superintendent of the Bowman-Hicks Lumber company, returned home Saturday from a business trip to Washington and Idaho. Mr. Tanner installed the Tanner printers, which he got on the market nationally last spring, at two lumber mills, one at the Deer Park Lumber company at Deer Park near Spokane and another at the Craig Mountain Lumber company at Craig Mountain, Ida. Mrs. Tanner and their daughter, Gladys, accompanied him. They were in the Spokane vicinity first, driving down from there on the North-South highway to the Idaho town and then returning home via Baker. They were gone a week or so.

Has Position Here—
It has taken just two days to convince H. E. Scott, formerly of Montana, that he is going to like calling La Grande home mighty well. Mr. Scott has accepted a position with the J. C. Penney company and commenced his associations here this morning. This is his first experience, he says, in Eastern Oregon and he admits that he underestimated the section before. "La Grande is a much larger, busier and prettier town than I had expected and I know that I'll like it here," he added. Mr. Scott is formerly from Stevensville, in the Bitter Root valley of Montana. He has recently been in other parts of

Returns to Work—
John R. Garrity returned to work at the post office this morning after a two-week vacation trip. Mr. Garrity attended the American Legion convention at Medford and previous to that went on a fishing trip in Wallowa county with Clyde Leighton, Walter Price and Claude Lynch. They fished the Minam, Big Sheep and other streams in the country.

Special Train Through—
A special passenger train, one chartered by the Raymond Whitcombe travel bureau which arranges for special tours, passed through La Grande at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon bound west. The train is going up into the northwest and home through Canada. This is one of several special tourist trains which have been through here this summer.

Arrive From Portland—
Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Paddock have as their guests at their home at 907 Spring street Miss Rosalie Balmer and her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Balmer, both of Portland, who arrived here yesterday by car. This afternoon Mrs. Paddock with her guests and several other friends will go to Cove for a swimming party and will be joined there for a picnic supper and evening by the husbands. On Thursday Mrs. Paddock and her guests will motor to Wallowa Lake for a day or so.

Visiting Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Jones and Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer, all of Portland, arrived last night for a visit with relatives here. They will also visit relatives in Baker. They are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Oesterling, Mrs. Emma Harding and Mrs. Lydia Grandy. Messrs. Jones and Palmer are cousins of Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Oesterling and nephews of Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Grandy. They will return to their homes the last of the week. They are members of the prominent pioneer family and are well known here.

Mr. Guild Returns—
After testifying since Saturday at the interstate commerce commission hearing in Portland W. H. Guild, superintendent of the second division, returned home this morning. Mr. Guild presented testimony at the hearing, representing the operating department of the O.-W. one of the four departments from which testimony was given at the important hearing which has been attracting wide attention. In today's Oregonian and articles appeared telling of the testimony as presented by Mr. Guild in the hearing. "A 50 per cent reduction in grain rates would virtually mean that the O.-W. R. & N. railroad would be forced to operate at a loss, according to testimony of J. C. M. Dodds, of the auditing department, and Walter H. Guild, division superintendent, at yesterday's session, of the interstate commerce commission hearing here" the story began.

Milton A. Miller Here—
"Eight-one years ago my father went across Oregon in a pioneer train at the rate of about 12 miles a day. Last night I crossed our wonderful state in about 12 hours." Thus Milton A. Miller, ex-senator, prominent member of the democratic party, orator and native son, painted the empire-building that is part of the Western epic. The prominent Oregonian is in La Grande today calling on friends before going on to Wallowa lake tomorrow where he is to be a special speaker at the Wallowa county annual pioneer picnic. He arrived here on train No. 24 this morning and will be driven to the lake tomorrow by Julius Roesch. "Portland is a very busy place just now, with Buyer's week," said Mr. Miller. "It is a very fine thing, beneficial for the city, and beneficial too, we feel, for the buyers," he went on. Mr. Miller addressed Union county pioneers at their annual picnic last month.

150 Passengers Taken From Ship

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Aug. 7. (AP)—The 150 passengers of the upper lakes steamer Huronic were safe today after being removed from the ship which is hard aground on a pinnacle of rock known as Lucille Island in Lake Superior, 50 miles southeast of here. Many of the passengers were excursionists from the United States.

The steamer ran aground on the island in the early morning hours yesterday. The steamer Champlain answered the Huronic's calls for assistance and took the passengers off.

The Huronic was on her way to Port Arthur from Duluth, Minn.

JIMMY RINEHART MISSING

PORTLAND, Aug. 7 (AP)—Anxiety was felt late today for James Rinehart, 19-year-old Portland flier, and an unidentified man who took off from Seaside at 11:30 a. m. bound for Portland. No word had been received from them at 2:30 o'clock.

FILE MURDER CHARGES IN LOCAL COURT

o'clock, according to Dr. F. L. Ralston.

Green & Hess, who were late yesterday secured by the defendant as his attorneys, will care for Fallows' interests, it was announced today. They are not ready to make any public statements as to the course they intend to pursue.

There is much speculation today as to when Fallows' trail will be held. It is said that the trial could be held in circuit court in the near future, as an adjourned part of the June term of court. The next regular term of court will be in October. Of course, no arrangements have been made as yet and these will have to wait until further developments.

Funeral Not Arranged

Arrangements have not yet been made for Mr. Parry's funeral, but these may be attended to tomorrow morning. Word is being awaited from out-of-town relatives before a time is set for the services.

It was announced yesterday that five bullets struck Mr. Parry's arm and body, but a later examination disclosed that only four hit him, one piercing his arm and three lodging in his body. A bruise, believed to have been caused by the bullet that went through his arm, on his side was at first glance mistaken for a wound, it is reported.

Raditch Ill And Trouble Brewing

VIENNA, Aug. 7 (AP)—There were indications today that feeling was running high in Jugoslavia with Stefan Raditch, who has been the cause of perhaps more political storms than any European statesman since the war, precariously ill.

The Belgrade government was reported to have drafted several regiments for duty at Zagreb to prevent trouble in event of Raditch's death. Vladimir Hristovitch, editor of the belgrade paper Jedinsta, has been assassinated for attacking Raditch in the columns of his paper.

Dispatches from Zagreb said that an unfounded rumor of Raditch's death drew thousands of excited people of both sexes to the great peasant party leader's villa. Hundreds of persons were remaining around the leader's home awaiting reports from the sick bed.

Courtney Wants To Try It Again

NEW YORK, Aug. 7 (AP)—Captain Frank T. Courtney and E. H. Hossack, the Canadian banker who backed his ill-fated flight to Newfoundland from the Azores, would like to try it again.

The two men, who with two companions were picked up in mid-Atlantic where the forced their plane down, believe if ships let their flying boat drift unmolested it will float to the Spanish coast and be available for another try.

LISBON, Aug. 7 (AP)—The Polish airmen Majors Louis Idzikowski and Kasimir Kubala are anxious to return to Paris where they started a trans-Atlantic flight which ended when they fell into the sea. They are already talking of making another attempt but this apparently hinges on whether their big seaqui-plane can be repaired before adverse flying weather becomes prevalent.

Fort Blows Up In Bucharest Monday

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Aug. 7 (AP)—Six soldiers on guard at Fort Catelog on the outskirts of Bucharest were killed when the fort was blown up yesterday.

Flames poured forth from the fort after the explosion. Exploding shells, four hundred of which were of the high explosive variety, showered the neighborhood.

The origin of the explosion was not determined. The theory was advanced that it was due to the terrific heat of 103 in the shade which caused the spontaneous combustion of defective high explosives.

Airman, Montana Business Man Hurt

LEWISTOWN, Mont., Aug. 7 (AP)—Jack Hidecker, aviator, and Walter Traffley, Lewiston business man, were seriously injured today when their plane crashed at a ranch at Brooks, about nine miles north of Lewiston. The engine stopped when they were at an altitude of 100 feet.

Hidecker has a broken leg, numerous bruises and possibly internal injuries. Traffley's back was broken and his recovery is doubtful.

Nebraska Is Safe For Hoover, Claim

CHICAGO, Aug. 7 (AP)—Former Governor Samuel P. McKelvie of Nebraska, editor of the Nebraska Farmer, conferred today with James W. Good, manager of western republican headquarters, bringing word that "the spirit of William Jennings Bryan would make Nebraska safe for Herbert Hoover."

31 ITALIANS ARE IMPRISONED IN SUBMARINE F-11

fore considered merely a question of time before the watertight compartments yield.

Although communication between the submarine and the rescuers is being maintained, it is not known how many members of the crew are still alive and it is feared that some may have been killed by the first rush of water which was prevented from flooding the entire submarine by her watertight compartments.

The first great object of the rescuers was reached early this morning when divers finally succeeded in attaching a steel cable to the crippled vessel and in fixing a tube through which it was possible to pump air into the ship.

Heavy Seas Hinder Work

Efforts to lift the submarine will be started as soon as possible, but the work is being greatly hindered by heavy seas.

Latest reports received from the Gulf of Pola where the submarine sank indicate that the wind is freshening and waves are sweeping over the pontoon from which the rescue efforts are being made. It is only with the greatest difficulty that the divers can continue their work.

The F-14 is 140 feet in length and 13 feet wide. She has two torpedo tubes and one 76 millimeter gun. Her speed on the surface was 13 knots and submerged 9 knots.

Bob Pearsch is chairman from Pendleton, Milton Leischman from Baker with Gene Rapp his assistant. Jake Rinker is chairman from Wallowa and Grant Rhinehart from Enterprise.

HOOVER WILL GIVE VIEWS ON SATURDAY

the complex situations of the day in so brief a space of time.

Well Prepared

With his insatiable thirst for all the facts on any given proposition which comes within the range of his study, the G. O. P. standard bearer also is fairly well informed as to the kind of delivery that goes over the air.

The spellbinding orator, who depends more upon the tricks of delivery than upon the substances of his address, does not do nearly as well as when facing an audience in which he can stir the mob psychology.

Shouting perorations are out on the radio as the engineers simply tone down the sound to save wear and tear on the receiving sets and the ears of the listeners, and those skilled in the art of appearance before a microphone put their emphasis upon important parts of their word flow.

Another Reason

There still is another reason why Mr. Hoover will be better satisfied when he has officially launched himself upon his campaign. Then he will be able to abandon the policy of silence which he mapped out for himself immediately upon his nomination; a policy which his advisors hold has been one of wisdom.

He will be free to discuss issues and questions as they arise without waiting to deliver a set speech.

Those who know Mr. Hoover are convinced that he is going to prove anything but a loquatious candidate. His public addresses will be few and perhaps far between, and he has given no indication thus far that he will give offhand opinions on subjects political or otherwise.

SMITH DIGGING UP RECORDS

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 7 (AP)—Dusty legislative records most of them nearly a quarter of a century old, were under Governor Smith's scrutiny today as the democratic presidential nominee refreshed his memory on his stand, as a rather obscure assemblyman from New York's East side, on various proposals.

The governor, on the job again after ten days of vacationing at the shore and a round of important political confe rences in New York, turned his next search light on his record to be in position to answer opponents assailing his position particularly on legislation affecting the saloon.

No Decision Yet

Whether he will have something to say to the public on the subject remains uncertain. He has told inquirers that until he completes his study he himself will not know what he will do.

The activity of the nominee the mountain is surrounded by a deep ravine, and its sides appeared to be extremely steep for scaling without careful preparations.

Some of the explorers returned to Cuzco while others remained at Marchupiccho and they may try to reach the newly discovered town.
