Mrs. Richardson Is Complimented By Bridge Club

Mrs. J. T. Richardson was complimented at a surprise party by a number of her friends members of a Saturday evening bridge club, Monday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Richardson was pleasantly surprised by her friends at her home on Pennsylvania avenue at 8 o'clock. Two tables of bridge were in play for the evening. Attractive bouquets of summer flowers were used for the affair. Mrs. Ward Guebe made high scores. The honor guest was presented with a gift. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Yellow pints, oatmeal, cream, broiled cottage ham with scrambled potatoes, cornmeal and white flour muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Jellied veal loaf with stuffed beet salad, toasted nutting, prune whip, milk, tea.
DINNER—Casserole of lamb, mashed potatoes, buttered carrots and peas, cabbage and shredded lettuce salad, raspberry parfait, sponge cake, milk, coffee.

Equal parts of shredded new cabbage and head lettuce are combined and served with a sour cream dressing to make the dinner salad. Shredded leaf lettuce works up very well in this salad if head lettuce is not at hand.

Turn jellied veal loaf out on a larger platter and surround with stuffed beet salad. This makes a most attractive dish and simplifies serving.

Casserole of Lamb
 Two pounds boned lamb, 4 cup finely chopped raw carrot, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, 2 tablespoons drippings, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, flour.

Cut lamb in uniform pieces and roll in seasoned flour. Brown quickly on both sides in hot dripping. Arrange in casserole, sprinkle over with carrots, onions and parsley and add cold water to cover. Cover casserole and cook slowly for four hours. Thicken gravy if desired and serve from casserole.

Choose a cheap cut of lamb from the fore-quarter and cook the bones and trimmings for broth.

Griddle cakes are always better when the flour and milk are mixed together a little at a time. Hills Bros. Coffee has no equal because it is roasted a few pounds at a time by Hills Bros.' patented continuous process. No other process roasts coffee so evenly or can insure such uniform goodness and flavor.

In today's hand South is the Declarer. Clubs are trumps and the score is love-all (nothing-something). The cards of dummy and closed hand are given. The King of Spades is led and the question asked is how Declarer should play to play the hand. Make up your mind how you would answer that question before you read the explanation that follows.

Plan of Declarer

Declarer can see that if the adversaries win a trick, they will win three hearts unless also and may the game—unless a discard can be obtained by Closed Hand. It may not be possible to establish dummy's diamonds and the adverse trumps may be distributed that dummy's Ace will win, but making up the diamonds offers the only chance for game. Ruffing a Spade in dummy is not nearly as important as establishing the diamonds and the Spade ruff can be taken at any time if the adverse diamonds do not break evenly.

Declarer should win the first trick in Closed Hand with the Ace

Maybe the actors were lured from the exclusive beach at Newport because it will reveal there were some bad returns among them.

A dentist's body was found in a lonely spot in the woods in Ohio. We knew something like that was going to happen some day.
