NEW YORK SWIM KING VICTORIOUS

George Kojac First in 100-Meter Backstroke — Others Place

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 9 (AP)—George Kojac of New York, member of the United States team, won the 100 meter backstroke swimming championship today in the Olympic water sports. Water Laufer, of Chicago was second.

The Americans made it 1-2-3 as Paul Wyatt of Uniontown, Pa., finished third. Kojac's time was one minute, eight and one-fifth seconds, a new world's record.

Kojac and Laufer, racing in adjacent lanes, Nos. 1 and 2, lashed out like Dutch windmills in a gale, pulling away from the opposition in the first 50 meters and both finishing at a speed remarkable for backstroke swimmers. Wyatt, their team mate, after staying a few feet behind Iriye of Japan, almost jumped out of the water in a great finish which enabled him to snatch third place away from the oriental athlete. The times of the first three finishers were 1:08 1-5; 1:10; and 1:12.

Zorilla Wins 400-Meter

In a sensational upset Albert Zorilla of Argentine, won the 400-meter free style championship. Andrew Charlton of Australia, was second; Arne Borg of Sweden, third; and the Americans, Clarence Crabbe; Austin Clapp and Ray Ruddy, fourth, 5th, and sixth, in that order.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 9 (AP)—The United States won the first elimination heat of the 800-meters relay in the Olympic swimming today. Japan was second, Sweden, third and Argentina, fourth and last. The first two teams finishing in each heat qualify for the finals.

SLOTEN, Holland, Aug. 9 (AP)—Charles McIlvaine and Paul Costello, American double sculters, beat the Austrians Losert and Flesel by two lengths in the semi-finals of the Olympic regatta this morning.

Babe Hunt Boomed As Coming Heavy Champion—Just 20, Has 18 Kayos

By Vernon B. Snell
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP)—From the fertile athletic fields of Oklahoma, which have produced such fistic celebrities as Jess Willard and Carl Morris, comes another aspirant for world heavyweight honors. He is "Babe" Hunt, young oil field worker.

Hunt, just 20, has registered 18 knockouts in 2 ring bouts. He has known only one defeat, a newspaper decision, and he has never been knocked off his feet, although he has fought just about every outstanding heavyweight southwest of Chicago.

Art Magril, a former welterweight boxer, is Hunt's manager. He hopes to land the freckle-faced youngster in eastern rings within a year.

Enthusiasm of Hunt's followers has been heightened by the discovery that this young aspirant to the heavyweight crown had accomplished his notable record while handicapped by a severe spinal injury received in an automobile accident more than a year ago.

Hunt only recently left a hospital where surgeons removed a growth from his spine. He is recuperating in the Ozark hills of Arkansas. He plans to reenter the ring in September, determined to qualify for the coming elimination bouts preliminary to a tight for Tunney's vacated title.

Hunt was discovered as a day laborer in the oil fields near Ponca City. He was 20 years old June 11. He stands 6 feet 4 inches and weighs 190 pounds. He hopes to be a 200-pound boxer within a few months.

The young heavyweight's most impressive work has been done since April. From the middle of the month to the middle of July he fought eight of his toughest opponents. He started this drive by stopping "Hott" Burger, once known as the Kansas "Knockout King," in three rounds. He next beat Mike Arnold of Denver in ten rounds, lost a newspaper decision, his only reversal, to Angus Snyder of Canada, and then knocked out "Buster" Martin, southwestern champion, in five rounds.

Neil Carpenter of Denver lasted six rounds, going to the floor for the first time in 63 fights. "Tiny" Roebuck, the Indian giant of football fame at Haskell Institute, was Hunt's next victim. Although outweighed 55 pounds, "Babe" sent the big Indian down for the count in the second round.

Hunt decisively outpointed Joe Lohman of Toledo in ten rounds and then handed the same kind of a lacing to Billy Montgomery before going to the hospital.

Jess Willard, although proclaimed as Kansan, was found in Oklahoma. He was living at Elk City, not far from the place where Hunt was discovered, when he became a "white hope" for wrestling the crown from Jack Johnson.

PENDLETON CARD TONIGHT

PENDLETON, Ore., Aug. 9 (AP)—Harry Ketchel, Tacoma, and Jimmy Watson, Spokane, bantams, will meet here tonight in ten rounds. Frankie Burnell, Portland, A. D. Snell, Tacoma are booked for six rounds, and Billy Church, Portland, and Kay Davis, La Grande, four rounds.

GIANTS DEFEAT CARDINALS, 10-5

Reduce Lead of St. Louis in National League to 4½ Games

By William J. Chipman
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Cardinals must remain favorites for the National league flag—so long as they play a steady game and keep their games-lost column in better shape than that of the Giants. Cardinal pitching again had an off day at the Polo grounds yesterday when Willie Sherdel and Harold Haid took a lacing which netted the home talent a 10 to 5 victory and two out of three on the series, one game of which was postponed to September 21, an otherwise open date.

The success of the Giant artus reduced the margin of the Cardinals to four and one-half games, with a difference of only two games in the lost column.

After posing as contenders or semi-contenders, through two-thirds of the season, the Robins finally have assumed their normal position, with every assistance from the thoughtful Pirates.

Ray Kremer surprised himself with a neat game yesterday as the Bucaneers fought through to their third one-run decision in Brooklyn in two days, and their fifth straight in the east. The score was 4 to 3.

Phillies Win

At Philadelphia to the intense disgust of Joseph Vincent McCarthy and his fellow Cubs the Phillies were bringing up their fourth straight against Mr. McCarthy's ex-contenders.

The baker boys pulled out in the last of the ninth, 4 to 3.

The Reds run their string of losses to eight straight by permitting the braves to win both games of a double header at Boston yesterday, 6 to 2 and 13 to 1.

The American league teams were engaged in travel, or in exhibition engagements.

Sacramento went definitely into the league leadership by taking a close pitching battle, 2 to 1, from Portland, while Hollywood which had held a tie with the Senators, dropped to second place when it lost another game to the Angels. Batteries: Bonnelly and Koehler; Knight and Whitney.

An extravagant waste of base hits featured the Seal-Bell game which ended 5 to 3 for the San Francisco club. The Missions collected 14 hits to the Seals' 13, but failed to capitalize on their advantage. Batteries: May, Mitchell and Sprinz; Holling, Nelson and Baldwin, Brenzel.

A last minute attempt of the Seattle Indians failed to halt the Acorns and Oakland took the second of the series, 8 to 6, defensive errors being largely responsible for the tribe losing. Batteries: Craghead, Daglia and Read; Graham, Cole and Ainsmith.

Los Angeles scored six runs in the eighth of the tussel with the Stars to win, 8 to 4. Sandberg, Angel catcher, drove out a circuit clout to force in three runs ahead of himself. Batteries: Cunningham and Sandberg; Rhodes, Fullerton and Bassler.

Games today: Oakland at Seattle; Sacramento at Portland; Missions at San Francisco; and Hollywood at Los Angeles.

Bon Stein Breaks Record With a 66

ABERDEEN, Wash. Aug. 9 (AP) Bon Stein of Seattle, Washington amateur champion, broke the course record with 66, four under par to take medalist honors in the Washington state amateur event from Tom McHugh, British Columbia amateur title holder in an 18-hole play-off yesterday. Stein's perfect golf brought him through six strokes ahead of the Canadian, and clipped a stroke from the competitive record of 67, set twice by Walter Pursey, Seattle professional, in winning the state open title this week.

Stein and McHugh tied at 71, a stroke ahead of Joe Hughes of Wenatchee.

WALLACE BEERY in Blindfold test of leading cigarettes . . . says no brand can "double" for OLD GOLD

WALLACE BEERY ...popular Paramount screen star... who plays the leading dramatic roles in "Beggars of Life" and "The Tong War."

Why you can pick them . . Three types of leaves grow on the tobacco plant . . . coarse top leaves, irritating to the throat . . . withered ground-leaves, without taste or aroma . . . and the heart-leaves, rich in cool and fragrant smoking qualities. Only the heart-leaves are used in OLD GOLDS.

"You have heard of some actors that can't be 'doubled' in the movies. Well, OLD GOLD is like that. No other brand can 'double' its fine flavor and smoothness—even in the dark. That's why I picked it in the blindfold test. And that's why—from now on—OLD GOLD and I are going to be 'Partners in Crime.'"

Wallace Beery

How the test was made . . .

This test was conducted by the representative of a leading Eastern university and a disinterested witness selected by them. Mr. Beery was asked to smoke each of the four leading brands, while blindfolded, clearing his taste with coffee between smokes. Only one question was asked: "Which one do you like best?" He chose OLD GOLD.
