

Felt Hats for Fall

There's nothing so practical—and nothing so dressy with a new fall outfit—as a smartly styled hat of fine felt.

The first new models of the new season are here—many colors to forecast a colorful vogue—many shapes to give ease in selecting that which becomes you best.

See these new felts—you'll want one at once. The summer is soon over—the autumn and its new styles will soon be here.

Yes, we have the new Tams, too! They are stylish -- sportish -- chic.

LOOK OVER OUR WANT ADS FOR BARGAINS

Don't Grope In The Dark

Many do their buying as though they were blindfolded—"I'll try this" or "I think this will do." These have only the vaguest ideas of what they want as they spend large slices of the family income. Others read the advertisements regularly and buy with their eyes open. They know what they want before they go to buy.

Advertisements are beams of light on merchandise. They reveal to you the latest and best products and improvements of the manufacturers and merchants.

Advertisements are a record of progress. They are interesting and instructive news of the business world. They light the way to better buying. Read advertisements regularly and live better at less cost.

Seattle	10	29

By the Associated Press. From its berth of sixth place, one usually regarded as safe from chances to become leader, the Angels are possessing a peculiar new life. The Angels required 15 innings to establish their supremacy over the stars to win the third straight victory of the series, 7 to 5. Two untimely walks followed by singles by Jones and Berger scouted the Hollywood rain when the Stars failed to score in the last half of the fifth. Batteries: Barford and Stubbins, Warren, Hilkey, Patterson and Knicker. The Mission snatched victory from Dutch Beethers, 5 to 4 by scoring three in the eighth to tie the score and putting over another country in the ninth, while the Bees were unable to increase their total. Beethers, Fillets, Harber and Spahr, Beethers, Knicker and Smith.

Solons Win Again
Sacramento made it three straight by winning Fargo Portland 4 to 2. The Senators scored one in the first and four in the second to gain the lead. Tomlin replaced Yerkes after the Senators had scored another in the sixth. Batteries: Keating and Severest; Verkes, Tomlin and Whitely. Seattle took an early lead to win the third game from Oakland. Games today: Hollywood vs. Los Angeles at Los Angeles; San Francisco vs. Mission at San Francisco; Sacramento at Portland, and Oakland at Seattle.

Australian Wins Singles Sculls Olympic Banner

By the Associated Press. The Australian rowers won the singles sculls Olympic championship today defeating Kenneth Myers of Philadelphia. Only one of the seven Olympic rowing championships today featuring Great Britain. The Italian triumph in the four-oared shells with excellent white Germany took the second championship in the half-oared shells without excitement, defeating Great Britain. The Italian victory aroused tremendous enthusiasm. The British crew outwaded their rivals and finished fresh. They gave the fascist salute from their shell and then paddled to the medals. Rowing platform with their arms extended in salute. There they received a big wreath of flowers and the laurel wreath emblematic of their championship.

RICKARD'S FIRST MOVE IS FAILURE

Attempt to Get Sharkey and Risko in Ring Flops Due to Money Talk

NEW YORK, Aug. 10. (AP)—Tex Rickard's first move to clarify the heavyweight situation, humorously muddled by Gene Tunney's withdrawal, has met with failure. Rickard, a bit wary since the financial failure of the Tunney-Honey match, declined to talk in any financial terms but those having to do with a percentage of the "gate."

New Lefthander Pitches Yankee Crew to Victory

(By Herbert W. Barker) (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Back in the big leagues after a year's absence in the minors, Freddy Heintz, big left hander from Camden, N. J., came to the rescue of the perishing Yankees. Purchased from St. Paul of the American association to bolster Miller Huggins' tottering pitching staff, Heintz, who once wore the jerseys of the Philadelphia Athletics and Boston Red Sox, pitched the champions to a four hit, 5 to 1 victory over the Red Sox yesterday in his first start on the major-league trail.

Gain No Ground

Despite this victory the Yankees gained no ground on the high flying Washington Senators, 3 to 2, behind Howard Ehmke's three hit pitching. Al Simmons' twelfth homer of the year came in the sixth inning with the bases loaded. Only one game was played in the National league but that one was the St. Louis Cardinals' loss a little more of their advantage over the New York Giants. The Cardinals found the revived Pittsburgh Pirates a bit too much for them and bowed to the 1927 champions, 3 to 4. The Giants, although idle, moved up to within four games of McClellan's league leaders.

Grangers Oppose Four River Bills

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 10. (AP)—Armed by the action of Oregon sponsors who have inflated measures to place four Oregon rivers to further water cooperation for irrigation purposes, several Grange organizations in this state are threatening drastic resistance to any bill which would be introduced in the legislature. They say the measures will be passed on the farms of all irrigated lands.
