RECOMMEND DISBARMENT

SAN FRANCISCO—The San Francisco administrative committee of the state bar association recommended disbarment of attorney Charles L. McEnerny, alleged to have embezzled about $2,000 from an estate of which he was executor. The board of governors will consider the matter at the meeting in San Diego next Friday. Disbarment of attorneys A. J. Tracey and Paul H. Strubel, of San Francisco, and Cedric Peterson, of Oakland, also was recommended.

Twenty-five people were robbed in a New York restaurant. The fact that it was by four bandits makes it news.

AT THE THEATERS

"We Americans" Is Feature At Star Theater

Daisy Ruth Miller, who has been so successful in her roles opposite Glenn Tryon, has the leading feminine role in Universal's newest special, "We Americans," which is now playing at the Star theater.

The fact that Miss Miller is a star in her own name conclusively proves that the cast of "We Americans" is just what it is said to be—All-star. Others in the cast are George Sidney, George Lewis, Eddie Phillips, Deryl Mercer, John Hales, Albert Gray, Daisy Belmore, Kathleen Williams, Edward Martindel, Josephine Dun, Flora Hanley and others. Edward Sloan directed.

Miss Miller is a St. Louis girl, having attended the Shure institute and Mary college. The Miller family moved to Hollywood five years ago, Daisy playing opposite Tom Mix for her first important role. She also appeared in a sketch at the Writers' Club, Hollywood, for her only stage experience.

Concerning this, she said: "I like the response of the audience when on the stage, but it is impossible to receive fan letters from all over the world and realize that in pictures you are bringing joy to a world-wide audience. I love every thing connected with motion pictures. It is fascinating."

Miss Miller is unique in that she has never tried to write a screen story. She has the secret ambition to some day be one of the leading directors but she is reserving this ambition for middle age.

Georgia man lost his voice after an airplane flight. And, just think, a man can send his wife up very reasonably these days.

OFFICE CAT
"Doctor, will you get this splinter out from under my thumbnail?"

"My dear man, we no longer waste time extracting splinters. I will give you an injection of our new anti-splinter serum and you can forget about splinters for seven years."

"Will you know what happens to little boys who fall like this?"

"Sure, they ride for half a day."

No doubt ad Methusalem had days when he couldn't decide which rising generation to worry about most.

A hick town is a place where the banker is ashamed not to know your wife because his wife borrows your wife's bridge tables.

George: "My hair's coming out."
Geoff: "No, I've noticed—Why not shave?"

Voice on the phone—Who's this speaking?
Other litto—How do I know? I can't see you.

If at first you don't succeed, cry again.

Ask your son: "Pa," said Clarence, "what is a peace offering?"
"Anything from a box of candy to a pair of coal," son replied his dad.

A bald-headed man sat in the train in front of a man with a shock of red hair.

"Guess you wasn't arched when they dealt out hair," said the red-head.

"Oh, yes, I was," replied the other. "But when they reached for me, they only had hair left, so I told them to chuck it in the ash can."
