A pleasant social affair of last evening was the card party given at the Odd Fellows' hall by members of the Crystal Rebekah lodge No. 39 to which the Odd Fellows were invited. Seven tables of pinochle were at play for the evening while quite a number of members of the two lodges did not join in at cards but spent an evening of visiting. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. A sale which was to have been given was postponed until a later meeting. Mrs. W. E. McClure, Mrs. H. P. Nielson and Mrs. Minnie V. Hymon were the committee in charge of the social affair last evening.

Eagles Auxiliary In Enjoyable Meet

With Mrs. H. T. Edwards, president, in charge, the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles No. 259 met in regular session last evening at Eagles hall. Thirty members were present.

The evening meeting was made particularly interesting by the presence of two out-of-town visitors, Mrs. Jess V. Sapp, of the Portland auxiliary, and Mrs. Lyle Conners, of Pendleton. They were here with their husbands who attended the men's lodge session. Mr. Sapp is state organizer and was prominent in the state convention here in June. Both Mrs. Conners and Mrs. Sapp were introduced and spoke briefly last evening.

Plans were made to hold a silver tea on the evening of Aug. 29. Mrs. Hall, of Portland, will be a special guest of the auxiliary on the occasion and will speak. She will be here with her husband who will give a public address on the proposed old age pension law for Oregon on the same day.

One application for membership was balloted on and two new members were initiated last evening.

Much interest is being shown in plans for the Aug. 29 program which will be one of the most elaborate to be given in some time by the organization.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Pabst (Nora Arbuckle) Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Happersett entertained at dinner at their home on O avenue Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Pabst are visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Arbuckle, for a few weeks. They drove here from York, Pa., where they have been making their home, and are on their way to Tacoma, where they will reside in the future. Mrs. Pabst is a former La Grande girl and was a girlhood friend of Mrs. Happersett's daughter, Mrs. Raymond O. Williams.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Pabst, Mr. and Mrs. Arbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. Williams and their daughter, Jane, Roy B. Currey, Clarence Bishel, who is traveling from Pennsylvania with Mr. and Mrs. Pabst, and Mr. and Mrs. Happersett. A pleasant social evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Pabst are leaving about the end of next week.

Mrs. Jennie Dyer entertained at a luncheon honoring the 75th birthday anniversary of "Grandma" Day yesterday. Garden flowers were used in a pretty centerpiece and in bouquets about the rooms. In the afternoon Mrs. Dyer and her daughter, Mrs. William Vadnais, of Portland, drove Mrs. Day over the Grande Ronde valley.

The occasion was a very pleasant one for the honor guest, Mrs. Day, and those who helped her observe her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Day received a number of gifts.

Those present were Mrs. William Vadnais and children, of Portland, Mrs. Lottie Travers and son, of Imbler, Mrs. Dyer and her son, Milton and Mrs. Day.

Alice Hall Weds Leonard G. Knight

UNION (Special)—An outstanding event of the summer was a beautiful wedding solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hall on Wednesday when their daughter, Miss Alice Hall, became the bride of Leonard George Knight. The Rev. Robert C. Lee, of the Methodist Episcopal church here, read the service in the presence of immediate relatives and a few friends of the family.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Margaret Pay, the bridal party advanced to an altar banked with phlox and ferns among which six tall white candles were lighted. The bride wore a gown of orchid georgette beaded in crystal and carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Marion Pay attended as maid of honor and was attractively gowned in printed crepe of pastel colorings and carried a bouquet of baby gladiolas. Richard Reed, of Klamath Falls, a college friend and fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Merlen Davis, sister of the bride, sang "At Dawning." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Pay.

Immediately after the ceremony an informal reception was held. Mrs. Harold Hall, of Prineville and Mrs. E. L. Knight, of La Grande, presided at the tables and the Misses Elda and Bethine Miller assisted about the rooms.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Knight, of Knights Landing, Cal. He is a former University of Oregon student and a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. The bride attended Oregon State college and was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Out-of-town guests in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Hall and son, of Prineville, Richard Reed of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tudor and Mrs. Henrietta Dickson, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Knight and Raymond Gray, of La Grande. Mr. and Mrs. Knight left for a week's motor trip to Crater Lake, after which they will be at home at Union.

UNION (Special)—Complimenting Miss Alice Hall, whose marriage to Leonard Knight was an event of Wednesday, Miss Marion Pay entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon Monday afternoon at her home in North Union. Covers were laid for eight at a beautifully decorated table. Sweet peas in the pastel shades served as a centerpiece. The afternoon was pleasantly spent visiting.

Florida Storm Causes Big Loss

Here is the first picture sent from the hurricane-swept area of the lower east coast of Florida where a tropical storm, marked by a wind that reached 100 miles an hour at times, caused damage of several million dollars. This picture shows the effect of the storm at Fort Pierce, Fla., one of the towns which was hardest hit. The picture was rushed by courier to Atlanta and transmitted thence by telephoto wires.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

In the series of articles on Contract Bridge that have been appearing on Fridays and Saturdays, a full explanation of the way in which the game is played and the differences between the bidding in Contract and Auction have been given. These articles will be continued with a series of interesting hands, in which the Contract bidding will be given and the play noted. As the play would be the same in Auction Bridge and as the Auction Bridge bidding also will be named, these articles will be of interest to the Auction Bridge as well as to the Contract Bridge player. Readers are urged to examine each hand, and make up their minds how they would bid and play it before they read the description that follows.

North (Dummy): ♠10-6-4 ♥10-6-3 ♦Q-7 ♣A-K-6-4-2
West: ♠J-5-2 ♥K-J ♦K-10-8-6-3 ♣J-9-5
East: ♠Q-9-8-3 ♥Q-9-8-4 ♦J-9-2 ♣Q-10
South (Dealer): ♠A-K-7 ♥A-7-5-2 ♦A-5-4 ♣8-7-3

Contract Bidding

South (Dealer) bids one No Trump. He has three suits stopped with a count of 15 (counting Ace 4, King 3, Queen 2 and Jack 1). With a hand that does not contain a better bid, that has a No Trump distribution and at least three suits stopped, one No Trump should be bid in Contract with a count of 13 and sometimes with a count of 12.

West passes; and North bids two Clubs. East passes; and South, having his weakness taken care of by North's bid—in Contract a Minor take-out shows strength—is strong enough to bid three No Trumps.

Auction Bridge Bidding

In Auction Bridge the bidding would be: South one No Trump, followed by three passes. A Minor take-out by North would mean weakness.

The Play

The play would be the same in both games.

West would lead the Six of Diamonds; Dummy would win the trick with the Queen; and the Declarer, not being sure of two Diamonds, one Heart and two Spades, would try to make the game by acquiring four Club tricks. One club trick has to be lost, and can be lost immediately as well as at any other time; so Dummy should lead a small club to trick 2. It will be noted that this play produces game for the Declarer.

Hand No. 2 of this series will be given tomorrow.

CALL A MISTRIAL

LOS ANGELES—Lorell Stafford, 2½ years old, ran in front of the jury box wearing a pair of horn rimmed glasses during her mother's suit against Dr. Charles Bellows for $150,000 and caused a mistrial. Bellows' attorney said wearing glasses was an attempt to make the child look like his client, who is said by the woman to be the baby's father.

Few Changes Made In Winter Styles

BY HAZEL REAVIS
Associated Press Writer

PARIS, (AP)—Little that is new and almost nothing startling has loomed up on the fall fashion horizon. More of the same, in a slightly different version and winter fabrics, constitutes the majority of the collections.

Skirts, by American women's standards, will be longer. Paris has been wearing them several inches below the knee since early summer. They remain the same length at most dressmakers, usually with uneven hemlines which make length difficult to judge.

The silhouette, in general, is straight or follows the natural curve. Hips are smoothly fitted regardless of whether the skirt flares or hangs straight.

Colors also, at most houses, show little departure from those of the past few months. Black, brown and dark blue, with plenty of gray and beige for daytime, are the usual bases for the collections. Some wine red and prune color is used by nearly all the designers of first importance.

The French fabric manufacturers are presenting fall materials with many distinctive weaves. New woolens with diagonal zig zag all over pattern are extensively employed, and the new metallic cloths, printed velvets and brocaded silks are examples of modern industrial art.

Short furs, many of them shaved fox, mink and sable are the most used, with a great deal of erminine on black and white costumes. Rabbit has by no means disappeared for day wear and beaver, dyed a rich dark brown, is a favorite fur for use on coats of wool or tweed mixture.

Wife of Pacific Flier Files Suit

SAN FRANCISCO Aug. 17. (AP)—The Examiner today said that Mrs. Erma Meier Lyon had filed suit here seeking annulment of her marriage to Captain Harry W. Lyon Jr., navigator of the monoplane Southern Cross on its epoch-making flight to Australia.

The charges were reported as being that at the time of the marriage, June 5, 1920, Captain Lyon was legally married to another woman.

La Grande's Exclusive Ready-to-Wear and Millinery

MENUS

By Sister Mary

BREAKFAST — Chilled apple sauce, cereal, cream, crisp broiled bacon, oven toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Creamed chicken, Lyonnaise potatoes, celery, radishes, individual blueberry puddings, milk, tea.

DINNER—Roast leg of lamb, mint jelly, buttered peas, beet and cabbage salad, orange ice, plain cake, milk, coffee.

Lyonnaise potatoes are a general favorite with men and when new potatoes are in this is an excellent way to use them.

Lyonnaise Potatoes

Two cups cold cooked sliced potatoes, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 onion, 2 tablespoons minced parsley, salt and pepper.

Melt butter in frying pan and add onion finely minced. Cook over a low fire until onion is slightly brown. Add potatoes cut in thin slices and shake until each slice is coated with butter. Brown quickly and turn into a hot serving dish. Sprinkle with parsley and serve. Season potatoes when about half done.

FATHER BEATS ATTACKER

NILES—Townsend Hope, 58, night watchman for a factory here, was beaten into insensibility by the father of a girl he was accused of attacking. Hope was captured by a posse, who turned him over to the father for punishment. Later the prisoner was taken to jail.

Oregon Cauliflower Fritters

[Portland sends this prize recipe]

These are perfectly delicious—but be sure you fry them in a delicate-tasting fat. Have you ever tasted Crisco right from the can?

1 large cauliflower, 1 cup milk, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup flour, 2 eggs, separated, 1 tablespoon melted Crisco

Boil cauliflower in salted water until tender. Separate flowerets, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dip in batter prepared as follows: Mix salt with flour. Combine eggs, milk and melted Crisco. Stir liquid into dry ingredients. Beat until smooth. Dip each floweret into the batter and drop quickly into deep hot Crisco (360° to 370° F., or when a small piece of bread browns in 60 seconds). Fry until brown. This will serve 8 people. For a small cauliflower use ½ of the batter recipe.
