OFFICE CAT

By Junnie

"Captain (the Irishman) applying for a job on board ship?" "Have you been to sea before?" "The Sea of Erin. Do you think I came over from Ireland in a cab?"

While touring in Scotland, an American while visiting in a way-side cottage was asked: "Would you have something to back up your cooling draught?"

"Well, I don't mind if I do." "Good," said the Scotchman. "Then we open the windows. There's a grand breeze following."

A HOT FOOT

A woman was talking with a friend about the athletic achievements of the latter's son.

"Your boy must be an exceptionally fast runner. I see this morning's paper states that he fairly burned up the track under his record-breaking speed. I suppose you saw him do it?"

"No, I didn't see him do it," replied the boy's mother. "But I saw the track this morning and there was nothing but rubber there."

A SALESMAN PROPOSIS

Well, old girl, I'm gonna give you the first chance to make yourself Mrs. Jones in the matrimonial line and I won't take "no" for an answer. Plenty of women are crazy to get a chance at me; since you're a good friend of mine, though, I'm making you the first offer. And let me tell you right now, you'll be making the biggest mistake of your life if you don't grab me now while you can get me. Well, wouldn't you say?

Little Bessie: "Say, Uncle, when are you going to play football again?"

The Rich Uncle: "When am I?"

AT THE THEATERS

"Bath Tub" Idea Next F. & M. Attraction

Splash yourself with laughter Wednesday—Fanchon and Marco's hilarious "Bath Tub" idea will be less than full of joy and fun, the Arcade management announces.

Chief among the groom chasers who'll be on hand to entertain are two dack southern gentlemen, Sweet William and Red Bill, famous Brunwick recording comedians. This will be the first stage appearance of these draft job boys since they signed exclusively with Brunswick. Their recordings have won the entire country breaking all sales figures, indicating the tremendous popularity their comedy style has achieved.

Next morning the groom chasers are Fanchon and Marco's San Francisco junior beauties. They'll be seen in smart dance numbers, only escorted and in a surprise stunt that's sure to make both tub famous.

"The Bath Tub" idea also introduced to La Grande audiences, Lucille Fanchon, Fanchon and Marco's newest proteges. Miss Fanchon promises to be one of the smartest and most realistic stepsisters on the West Coast circuit, it is said.

Others in this show of pulchritude, pop and fun are the Gilmartin Quartet, the only sister dancing team of its kind, and you'll hardly be able to tell these girls apart and last but not least Maxine and Rufus, two song and dance beauties.

Billie Dove Here In The "Yellow Lily"

If masculine hearts are palpitating at the beauty and charm of Billie Dove in her latest First National starring vehicle at the Star theater, "The Yellow Lily," wives and sweethearts have their titillating picture, too.

Masculine, powerfully reserved "five break" is playing opposite the star.

Brook's vogue during the past year has swept him right up to the gates of stardom, and he has a host of admirers following him, both feminine and masculine. If the ladies like his looks, the men are intrigued by his typically English repression and histrionic ability.

"The Yellow Lily" is an adaptation of Lajos Biro's play, "Brooks' conquests, the role of a Hungarian archduke. Miss Dove that of a village beauty in Hungary, Alexander Korba, famous Hungarian director held forth at the metronome. A hand-picked cast, headed by Gustav von Seyffertitz, Nicholas Soussanine, Jane Winton, Bodo Rosen, Charles Parry and Marc Macber, mount, amidst other picturesque Hungarian characters.

Miss Dove is one of the few American players in "The Yellow Lily," and Brook with Miss Winton, represents England portraying Hungary!

Getting Ready

Meet Captain Lawrence McConcy Jones. You probably know him as "Big" Jones, coach of the West Point football team. This is believed to be the first photograph ever taken of the Army coach in his uniform and was taken at the academy recently, where he is laying plans for this coming football season.

Jiggs and Maggie Attraction At The Arcade

"Beaching" earned beef to make it photographically correct was the odd employment of property men at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio during the filming of "Bringing Up Baby." A cosmopolitan comedy now playing at the Arcade theater, and based on the George McManus cartoons, after many experiments with vinegar and other condiments, the property man achieved the first "photographic corned beef" and history.

In the picture Jiggs and Dinty Moore naturally must have "corned beef," Regular corned beef. It happens, is a deep red color—and to the camera deep red is black. The corned beef looked like coal to the lens. To combat this, the beef was put through a process that rendered it a pale and pallid pink—and this color, in the lens, was just right. It looked like corned beef on the screen.

"Bringing Up Baby" is a hilarious romance woven around Jiggs, Maggie and the rest of the characters of the cartoons. J. Farrell MacDonald is seen as Jiggs and Polly Moran as Maggie; Marie Dressler plays Mrs. Dinty Moore, Fats Cowley, Dinty, and Gertrude Olmstead, Grant Withers, Bull Montana, Tenen Holtz, Rose Dione, Andrea de Seguerra, Bobby Mack, David Mir and others of note are in the cast.

going to play football again? What makes you ask that question, little Bessie? "Well, Pop says that when you kick off, we're going to get a new automobile and house."

It is no crime to wear clothes a little bit out of style, but it is hard to make some humans believe that.

"I hear that young Whippematt has inherited his father's business. What is he going to do with it?" "Oh, the usual thing, I suppose. Start in at the top and run it down."

Shoots Self And Turns on Alarm

NEWPORT, Ore., Aug. 20. (AP)—Edward Jorgensen, junior at the city hall of Newport, shot himself through the left breast Saturday evening about 7 o'clock. From a dentistry office he had just turned on the fire alarm. The bullet, which had penetrated his lung, was removed from his back yesterday, and his condition today indicated he might recover if complications do not set in.

Jorgensen, aged 45, was divorced from his wife about a year ago, and friends said he had been growing over his domestic difficulties. Hospital attendants said he spoke in delirium, indicating worry over his two children, who have been in his wife's custody since the divorce.

For Sale

A splendid boy in an apartment house, which is well located four large apartments, always filled, income in addition to one apartment occupied by owner, $75 per month. Reason for disposing of property not financial, this property always has been a good investment. A small payment will place you in possession and the income will make the future payments. A small house might be considered as part payment. Here is an opportunity for some thrifty wife to assist materially in preparing for the rainy days that are sure to come.
