For Sale
A splendid buy in an apartment house, which is well located four large apartments, always filled, income in addition to one apartment occupied by owner, $75 per month. Reason for disposing of property not financial, this property always has been a good investment. A small payment will place you in possession and the income will make the future payments. A small house might be considered as part payment. Here is an opportunity for some thrifty wife to make material in preparing for the rainy days that are sure to come.

Ole, the night porter, was testifying before the jury after the big bank robbery.
"You say," thundered the attorney, "that at midnight you were cleaning out the office, and eight masked men brushed past you and went on into the vault room with revolvers drawn?"
"Yah," said Ole.
"Well, what did you do then?"
"Aye put down my mop."
"Yes, but then what did you do?"
"Well, aye say tonyself, 'Ola bane hell of a way to run a bank.'"

It is said to be possible for an operator to fly one of the new makes of airplanes for several minutes with both hands off the controls. Girls, that beats ever the old horse and buggy days, to say nothing of motor cars.

Lawyer (to frustrated witness): "Now sit, did you or did you not, on the date in question or at any other time, say to the defendant or anyone else that the statement imputed to you and denied by the plaintiff was a matter of no moment or otherwise. Answer me, yes or no."
Reverend Witness: "Yes or no, what?"
"Makes no difference how the old car looks so long as it runs," which is a mouthful all right, but how is one to convince the wife?

Every wheeze-windler hopes that any one who steals his jokes will die laughing.

Melko Murphy approached his shanty home just as cuckoo's exclaimed, "Three o'clock in the morning." Mrs. Murphy appeared at the door.
"And what kept you out till this hour of the night?" she demanded.
"Well, darlin'," replied Melko, "G'v'e been ever since twelve o'clock tryin' to think up an excuse for not bein' home before midnight."

Berry: "I know a man who knows nothing about baseball, yet never misses a game."
"Terry: "I saw him play."

NEW GRADE SIGNAL
FALJEM, Ore., Aug. 24. (AP)—For the purpose of reducing the number of automobile accidents the Southern Pacific Railroad Company has changed its grade signal. The old signal was two long blazes followed by two short blasts. The new signal is a long blast, then two short blasts followed by a final long one. The new signal is used on the New York Central and the Pennsylvania, say local engineers, with satisfactory results.

MAY SELL SULTANIC JEWELS
CONSTANTINOPLE (AP)—The Turkish finance commissioner suggests that the rich hoard of jewels accumulated by the sultans be sold to provide capital for the proposed Turkish state bank. The jewels are already the property of the state and the commissioner points out that the proceeds of their sale, together with available gold reserves, would finance the bank.

AT THE THEATERS

Apple And Snake In "Garden Of Eden"

Colorful, romantic material, unique characterization; and an adroit mingling of drama and comedy form the principal ingredients of Colette Griffith's first United Artists production now playing at the Arcades.
"The Garden of Eden" is the intriguing title of the new picture, and though the symbolism of that Utopian biplace of Man is cleverly carried out, the story itself is the real word in modernism, deriving its name from the Garden of the Hotel Eden, just outside Monte Carlo, where much of the action takes place. Miss Griffith is cast as a little saucy singer, who, through a chain of amusing circumstances, lands in the social whirl, temporarily accepted as a personage whom she is not.

"Million Dollar Mystery" Coming To The Star

One of the most beautiful women before the camera today is Erin La Bissner, whose picture will grace the screen of the Star theater Saturday only, at which time "The Million Dollar Mystery," the new Hazart picture, produced by Fred C. Hart and directed by Charles J. Hunt, will be the featured attraction.

"Thunder," Marvel Dog, In "Silent Avenger"

About the only thing not done by "Thunder" the marvel dog, in "The Silent Avenger" now playing at the planet theater, is to play the piano and sing.

Making all due allowances for the numerous possibilities of the movie camera in the hands of an expert, the performance of this uncanny canine is positively astounding.

"Thunder" does all the usual cliche things, such as seeking his eyes at the right time and all the rest of the usual line of tricks but they are merely appetizers to some of his sensational stunts.

In "The Silent Avenger" they have injected a touch of polite atmosphere novel to "dog stunts," from the outdoor scenes to give the dog opportunities not afforded indoors and finally a series of scenes wherein it is up to "Thunder" to stop an express train to save it from being wrecked. He
