CARDS AND YANKS IN HOLD OF LEADS

"Sunny Jim" Bottomley Helps Cards in Four Straight Wins

By Herbert W. Barker (Associated Press Sports Writer) The St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees at last can take time out for a breath without endangering their hold on the leadership positions in the two major leagues.

Disturbed by the return of "Sunny Jim" Bottomley, who takes a delight in the pitcher's role, the Cards have won four straight games, their last triumph coming at the expense of the contending Chicago Cubs yesterday, 11 to 3.

The Cards now lead the National League by four games but that advantage may dwindle considerably or disappear entirely during the next 15 days when St. Louis' opposition comes, not only from the Cubs but from the other two western contenders as well--the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds.

While the Cards thus were consolidating their position at the top of the senior circuit, the Yankees were doing exactly the same thing in the American. A double-barreled triumph over the Detroit Tigers sent the world's champions four full games ahead of the Athletics who were forced to sit idle at Philadelphia and watch the raindrops patter down.

In the only other National League battle, the Pittsburgh Pirates downed the Cincinnati Reds in easy fashion, 3 to 4, gained an even break in the two-day series and advanced to within one game of the Reds who had four games in the standings.

The Cards beat the Reds by bunting their ten hits in effective fashion. Fred Fussell, young southpaw, gave Cincinnati 14 hits but was practically unhittable in the pinches.

The double triumph of the Yankees was featured by the first appearance of the veteran left-hander, Tom Zachary, in a Yankee uniform. Pitched against him in the opener was Earl Whitehill, another southpaw. With better control Whitehill might have beaten Zachary but four walks in the fourth inning gave the champions two runs and put them in a position to win, 4 to 3.

George Higgs showed a return to form when he pitched the Yankees to a 3 to 2 victory in the nightcap.

At Boston, the St. Louis Browns beat the Red Sox twice, 3 to 2 and 4 to 0.

George Uhle's effective pitching gave the Cleveland Indians a triumph over Washington, 2 to 1, and an even break in the four-game series.

Miss Wills Makes A Brilliant Win In Forest Hills

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 28. (AP)—Helen Wills has made two national tennis championships glow where but one grew before.

Her straight set victory over Miss Helen Jacobs of Santa Barbara, Calif., yesterday, 6-2, 6-1, in successful defense of her national singles crown was surprising only because of her overwhelming one-sidedness. But her victory in the doubles championship paired with Mrs. Hazel Hotchkiss Wightman, of Boston, was more unexpected. Not for three years had Miss Wills been able to carry off both titles.

While Helen of Berkeley has now performed the unprecedented feat of winning the championships of France, England and the United States in one season without losing a set, she has never gained such wide acclaim as a doubles player. Yet, the 6-2, 6-2 victory which she and Mrs. Wightman were able to score over Mrs. Lawrence A. Harper of Los Angeles and Miss Edith Cross of San Francisco indicates that the margin of this team's superiority over the nearest American contender is about as great as that of Queen Helen in singles.

Much of the credit for the hard-fought victory of course must go to Mrs. Wightman. That canny 42-year-old veteran, herself a former singles champion, who paired with Helen back in 1924 to win just a doubles victory. If there is anyone who can make Miss Wills as formidable in tandem play as she is in singles, it is Mrs. Wightman and with the Boston player leading the attack at the net and Miss Wills driving from the back court there was a smooth working combination which fully deserved its easy victory.

Miss Wills has now been doubles champion four times and singles titleholder on five occasions. In doubles she scored in 1922 with Mrs. B. Jowett, in 1924 and 1925 with Mrs. Wightman and in 1927 with Mary K. Browne. In singles she has won every year since 1922 except in 1925 when she was ill.

There are few more worlds for Miss Wills to conquer but she now crown at Boston paired with Jack Hanes to add the mixed doubles honors of Australia.

AUTHOR CRAVES PLAIN SENSE IN TILDEN BUSINESS

BOSTON, Aug. 28. (AP)—Samuel Merwin, author, today issued a statement criticizing the executive committee of the United States Tennis Association for barring William T. Tilden, 2nd, for violating the player-writer rule. Merwin is a friend of Tilden's and a close follower of tennis. His statement follows:

"It seems to me the high time for somebody to speak up with a little plain sense on this Tilden business."

"The spectacle of an over-ambitious body of tennis officials in complete disregard of the fundamental principle of personal honesty like nothing on earth but a school of cattle fish-eating sops is disturbing to honest sportsmanship and distressing to the sense of honor."

A recent decree in one matter in Italy forbids spreading as a favorite measure. Maybe it isn't any too healthy for a lot of old shoes to be lying around in the street."

being hard hit by the revolution and the fact, according to state Senator William A. Clark, Urbana, Ohio.

"The former lodge man now takes his family automobile riding or remains home to listen to the radio instead of going to lodge meetings." Clark, state organizer for the Junior Order United American Mechanics, said in his report to the state convention here today.

Armand Knocked Out In Seventh By M. Walker

BY RUSSELL J. NEWLAND (Associated Press Sports Writer)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28. (AP)—The middleweight champion went hunting for bargains in the light heavyweight division and got what he wanted because that tremendous thud and thump heard last night in Recreation park was Armand Emanuel hitting the canvas for the full count.

With the same spectacular attack that helped him win and hold the welterweight and middleweight titles, Mickey Walker punched Emanuel out of the 175 pound class, temporarily at least. He dropped the San Francisco boy for the first time of Emanuel's career, in the seventh round of their ten round battle.

Two short right handers did the trick. The first time it landed, Armand reeled on the canvas for nine seconds. He got up groggy, and during a hard exchange in which he tried to remain ground, bumped into another right to the jaw that put him out for the full count.

Handlers had to help him to his corner and he was dazed long after crawling his dressing room.

It was the first knockout ever chalked up against the 22-year-old lawyer-brother and his second defeat in more than thirty fights.

A few months ago he gave Tommy Loughran a great battle, losing to the state champion here today.
