Mrs. Pierce Is Entertained This Week In City

A number of delightful social affairs have been held for Mrs. G. M. Pierce, former La Grande resident who is visiting in the city from Pendleton. Yesterday afternoon she was entertained at a surprise party at the home of Mrs. H. G. Dale, on Willow street, given by the Marytha Methodist Sunday school class and the Riveria Harvest-Teacher association, of which Mrs. Pierce was president for two years.

Yesterday evening Mrs. C. E. Stine entertained informally for Mrs. Pierce, inviting in a group of 12 friends.

Mrs. Pierce with her children, Roland, Dorothy and Vard, arrived in La Grande Wednesday and are leaving tonight on the train. They left La Grande last May and this is the first time they have been back since then. They have had a most enjoyable visit with their many friends here.

Those present over the Mesdames', E. Stine, H. H. Hickey, O. Masun, Louis Wetzel, Walter Young, M. P. Kennedy, Kennedy George Hlyard, McAnulty, Shores, George Williams, R. P. Tyler, W. E. Adler, Charles Griffin, Edgar Piper, Glenn Smith, Hainc.

Mrs. Walter H. Guild entertained last night at her home on 792 O avenue with a delightful dinner party honoring her niece, Miss Frances Miller, who is visiting in La Grande from Portland. The table was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A centerpiece of old-fashioned flowers and a color scheme of pink and green were used. The evening was spent playing games and each of the young guests contributed his or her talent for a delightful informal entertainment of music and stunts.

Those present were: Judy Riebert, Norma Banks, Margaret McAllister, Frances Miller, Nancy Guild and Ralph Gelber, Sam Ashby, Kenneth Webb, David Blatt, Howard Lyman.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the E. O. E. held a silver tea last night following the talk by D. D. Hall, Portland attorney, on "The Old Age Pension." The silver tea was attended by more than 150 persons in the Eagles hall. The committee in charge of the tea included Mrs. B. W. Bailey, chairman, Mesdames Kellogg, Anderson, Tolson, Clay, Edwards and Shumaker.

The annual county meeting of the W. C. T. U. yesterday at Union was well attended by members of the organization from La Grande, Blaine, Union and other county localities. Election of officers for the coming year was held and resulted in the naming of Mrs. Ruth Hulce, of the Mt. Emily district, as president; Mrs. Frank Millering, of La Grande, secretary; and Mrs. Wright, of Union, as treasurer.

Plans were discussed for the launching of an essay contest in the public schools of the county sometime during the fall term. The essay title will be "Prohibition" and can be dealt with in various ways. Definite arrangements for the contest will be formulated later.

Mrs. Mattie Nutlock, of Union, was appointed yesterday delegate to attend the state convention of the W. C. T. U. to be held in Eugene the middle of October.

Mrs. Henwick A. Clark entertained at dinner at her home on Oak street last evening honoring Miss LaVelle Wood and Miss Alice Leah Buchanan, two La Grande visitors. Miss Wood has been here for several days as the guest of Miss Blanche Clark and is leaving this evening for Manhattan, Kan., where she is to be a teacher in the Kansas State Agricultural college. Miss Buchanan is here from Corvallis as the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. Ralph Clark.

Pondosa, Ore. (Special) — Mrs. Esther Hansen, teacher of the Blue Bird girls, and Mrs. James Wade, teacher of the Trail Builders, took their classes on an all-day hike and picnic to the Twin Baby mine Friday. All returned tired but happy and reported a very enjoyable day.

Pondosa, Ore. (Special) — Norma Robinson and Ethel Smith, two of the Blue Bird girls, whose birthdays occurred on the same day, were given a party by the teacher and class Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Gray. Eighteen little folk were present to enjoy the games. Refreshments were served later in the afternoon.

Pondosa, Ore. (Special) — A pleasant social evening was spent at the Greene Bankers home Wednesday evening. Music and cards were enjoyed and during the evening refreshments were served by the host and hostess. Those present were Mrs. Vincore, sister of Mrs. Bonham, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Champine and the Bonhams.

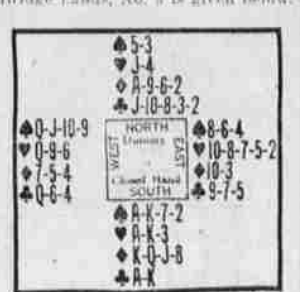

Trained Evening Wrap

PARIS, (AP) — A dressmaker with a long list of royal ladies among his clientele presents a trained wrap. The train several feet long, hangs like a panel from the shoulders. The front of the wrap reaches only a few inches below the knees. Collar and wide belt sleeves are bordered with sable and there is an upstanding collar of sable which frames the face.

Bridge Pointers

CONTRACT BRIDGE
Continuing our series of Friday and Saturday Contract and Auction Bridge hands, No. 5 is given below.

Auction Bridge Bidding
South one No Trump, followed by three passes.

Contract Bidding
South four No Trumps, West pass, North five Diamonds, East pass, South six No Trumps. Using the slam bidding system, South with a count of 27 and every suit stopped twice, is fully justified in bidding four No Trumps; expecting North to pass if weak, but directing him into what the Ace of Diamonds if he has it. After North shows the Ace of Diamonds, South is apparently justified in trying for the slam. This type of bidding while highly remunerative when it works, and while in this case apt to work, nevertheless is fraught with danger. Three tricks might be lost and the slam bid might substitute a penalty for the mere game South otherwise would have had.

The Play

West's lead would be the Queen of Spades; South would win and lead the King and Queen of Diamonds from Crossed Hand, playing small from Dummy and noting whether both adversaries follow. When they do, two Diamond entries are assured in Dummy and Small Sign becomes easy. To tricks 3 and 4, South leads Clubs. To trick 5, the Jack of Diamonds, overtaking in Dummy with the Ace; and to trick 6 the Jack of Clubs from Dummy. Dummy still having the Nine of Diamonds as an entry, is sure to make two Club tricks, and South can discard his three losing cards, so that the adversaries make only the Queen of Clubs, and Declarer gets his slam. If North had not had two Diamond entries, game could not have been made, unless the Queen of Clubs had fallen on the second Club trick.

OFFICE CAT

TRADE MARK
By JENNIS

WHY ONE BOY LEFT THE FAIRM
I left my dad, his farm, his plow, because my cat became his cow. I left my dad, 'twas wrong of course.

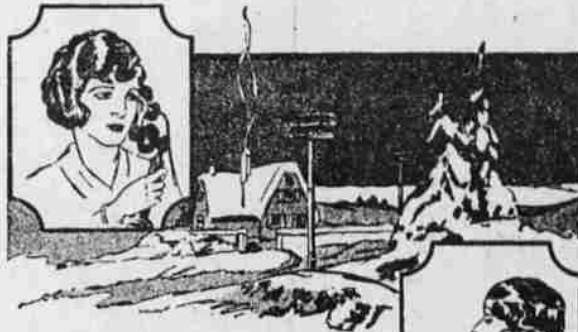

Because my cat became his horse, I left my dad to sow and reap, because my lamb became his sheep, I dropped my hoe and stuck my fork.

Because my pig became his porch, the garden truck I made to grow, was his to sell and mine to hoe.

WHY ANOTHER ONE DIDN'T
With dad and me it's half and half, the cow I own was once his calf; no town for mine, I will not bolt, because my horse was once his colt. I'm going to stick right where I am.

Because my sheep was once his lamb, I'll stay with dad—he gets my vote, bed hair which is being allowed to grow.

The mesh band is several inches wide and tightly swathed about the forehead, completely covering the hair about the face, or worn above curls or bangs as the wearer fancies. It is constructed, in its original form, by a tulle-mesh fabric which sits high on the head, like a tara.

The use of powder, lip stick, red paint and eyebrow stencils is bad enough without performing the operations in public. The effect is bogus and the fair ones evidently don't care who knows it. Next thing they will be cleaning their false teeth for the edification of the multitude.

"Would you marry for money?" said the sweet young thing to her girl friend.

"Well, I don't know about it," was the reply, "but I just have a hankering hope that Cupid shoots me with a Pierce-Arrow."

She: "You know, I like variety—it's the spice of life."

He: "Look me over, kid; my name is Heinz."

Marion: "I suppose the brightest moment in your life was when Helen proposed to you."

Alice: "Brightest? There wasn't a light lit in the room."

Hard-Boiled Little Girl: "Gimme one ticket, an' make it snappy."

Ticket Girl: "Hah, honey, there are two of you; how about the other little girl with you?"
