

Miss Susan Chadwick, of Union, was the guest of Miss Mina Crow

last week.

Miss Maude Dwyer, of Wallawa, was visiting the week with, Mrs. Harley Cudde.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howe, were La Grande visitors Monday evening.

W. B. Kennedy, who has been with M. O. Courtney, left yesterday left presently for Bend, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Poles drove to Baker Saturday and returned Sunday, visiting relatives there.

George Williams of the La Grande Veterans hospital at Walla Walla, and two friends from the hospital were guests at the home of Mr. Williams' cousin, Mrs. Charles Root. The party spent the rest of the week up here.

The LaGrande public schools are

[illegible]

company, was in Lachine on business recently.

The Rev. W. L. Van Noy, of Portland, was in attendance at a young people's conference, held last week in South Park. The grounds were situated in the canyon at the Lilly cabins and the rugged beauty was greatly appreciated by the young people. A number of the different societies were present. Among them were the Abington, the Abington Christian Endeavor, the Leominster Christian Endeavor, were, Fred Hall, Verma Hammeck, Melvin Crow, Martha Crow, Louise and Warner Crow, and Miss Mina Crow. The party being chaperoned by Mrs. Van Noy.

Some press agent is to be punished. Police captain Edward Leno has his way. Police were summoned to "a terrible riot" in a theatre.

A man had risen from his seat and denounced the play as blasphemous—for pay.

of the Parus idaeus species from Maurice and etc. of the and the

© 2000 Blackwell Science Ltd, Journal of Internal Medicine 247: 161–168

Ph. M 500.

Ph. M 500

Bamboo $2400

© 2000 Blackwell Science Ltd Journal of Internal Medicine 247: 105–112

U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE: 1967 O - 308-000

W. H. Bohnenkamp Co.