CONTRACT BRIDGE No. 6 of our series of Friday and Saturday Contract and Auction Bridge hands follows:

Auction Bridge Bidding The Auction Bridge bidding would be: South one Heart; West one Spade or two Diamonds—optional; North, an overcall in Hearts or Clubs; East pass; and, if North has bid Clubs, South Hearts, which would obtain the contract.

Contract Bidding In a Contract Duplicate game South and North, at the various tables bid their hands in four different ways: West and East always passed.

The play contained one point that most of the Declarers overlooked. West led the King of Diamonds which South won, and then at most tables exhausted the trumps—a fatal play—counting upon Duminy's Clubs.

Why YOU SHOULD USE PASTEURIZED MILK

Because--- PASTEURIZATION of milk is a safety measure for the public health that is generally recognized. It is the safest milk you can buy. It is pure, wholesome milk made pure by heating and then cooling. It prevents any possible outbreak of any epidemic from an impure milk supply. It has better keeping qualities and an improved flavor.
