PITTSBURG AGAIN BEATEN BY CARDS

Burleigh Grimes Stumbles on No. 23—Yank-Athletic Series Nearing

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

To their own impotence against Bill McKee, No. 23, Louie Cardinals, as much as to any other one factor, runs the Pittsburgh Pirates' platoon of five pitchers, standing in the National League where they were ranked 1-2-3 by virtually every baseball expert in the country before the 1928 campaign opened.

Donie Bush's 1927 championcy, however, was not enough to make him a star for the 1928 time and for the 14th time had only a defeat to show for their efforts. Only the Boston Braves and the Phillies have done worse against the Cards.

23 His Jinx
Burleigh Grimes, who ran up a string of 22 victories without a whole lot of trouble, is finding No. 23 his jinx. He tried for it again yesterday and apparently had it when George Harper, a pinch hitter, socked the ball into the right field stands in the last half of the tenth, and scored behind Jimmy Wilson with the run that gave the Cards the game, 4 to 3.

Grimes allowed only six hits against Charles Mitchell's seven but in home runs the Cards led two to one and that was the margin.

Young Stribling Trims Squires In New York Battle

NEW YORK, Sept. 7. (AP)—W. L. (Young) Stribling, of Georgia, has taken the first step on the long trail that leads to the new vacant heavyweight throne, and overcame a box to do it.

It wasn't a very big sign but it was something. The southerner made his New York debut as a heavyweight at Madison Square Garden last night by battering Johnny Squires, of South Africa, into technical knockout defeat in less than two rounds of fighting.

The significance is not that Stribling won but that he won in New York. In his days as a light heavyweight, Stribling had a special genius for appearing at the worst in Metropolitan rings. He lost both of the major bouts he had there previously, having lost to Paul Bernhardt and Tommy Laughlin. New York fans were not particularly keen about the southerner's style of fighting and were not at all slow in making him aware of that fact.

Last night he gave his critics no time to get into action. With a few sharp punches Stribling had Squires groggy in the first round, only the bell saving the South African from the indignity of a one-round knockout. In the second round, Stribling sailed into his virtually helpless opponent and, after a few seconds of good after 44 seconds of fighting in that stance, right-handed him to the floor.

PORTLAND TAKES LEAD IN SERIES WITH SEATTLE

By The Associated Press
Portland bunched 12 hits and a quartet of Indian errors to win 10 to 5, the Beavers scored six times in the first two innings and never relinquished the lead. Batteries: Knight and Saunders; Teasdale and Cox.

Hollywood romped out and hung another defeat around the neck of the Seals, the third this week and to the disgraceful time of 7 to 2. The antics of Frank Shellenback's spillover were too many problems for the Seals to solve and only four safeties were written down for them. For three innings the game looked tight then the Stars playfully chased in five runners to the chagrin of Dick Moudy who left the mound in favor of Malt. Batteries: Shellenback and Bessler; Moudy, Malt and Vargas, Spruz.

SAN FRANCISCO—Scoring for runs in the fourteenth, Sacramento took the Avaros into camp, 9 to 5. Oakland scored five in the fifth to take the lead but the Senators found three in the sixth to tie the score. Young Craddock was nipped for 21 hits while three Solon crickets yielded 12. Ray Keating scored his twenty-second win of the season tying Dutch Ruggier for honors. Batteries: Racine, Knut, Keating and Seaver; Craddock and Reed.

The Beas made it three straight over Los Angeles by winning 10 to 5. After spitting the Angels seven in the second, the Missions got eight in the third. Another flurry netted two runs but the Beas found another pair in the remaining frames. Batteries: Diller, Severs and Sypher; Cunningham, Weatherly and Warren.
