MARRYING JUSTICE DIES
STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 15.—(A. P.)—Albert C. Parker, 59, for 33 consecutive years justice of the peace of Stockton township, and who during that time had married 6,000 couples, died here early this morning after an illness of a week.

Woman won't be real smoker, of course, until they start loafing in the cigar stores.

WOMAN'S WAY TO STOP PAIN

It is not necessary to take heart-depressing drugs or dope of any kind to relieve nerve torture caused by neuritis, neuralgia, sciatica or rheumatism. Just apply Tysol over the part that hurts and see how quickly you will be free from discomfort.

Tysol is a soothing, healing absorbent that goes in through the pores and drives out inflammation which has settled in the nerves. The minute you rub it on you can feel it beginning to relieve. Pains and aches soon stop, congestion is removed and soreness and inflammation gradually disappear.

Although Tysol is put up especially for nerve pain and inflammation, sufferers have found it equally good for taking the misery out of stiff, swollen or aching joints. Also fine for line back and muscular soreness. Pleasant, harmless and easy to use. Don't fail to try it if you want genuine lasting relief. You get a liberal supply for $1 at any drug store. Always in stock at Glass Drugs Inc. —Adv.

What kind of a fellow is that new post member?

"Well, he's just the kind who would write the Legion Weekly asking them to express his thanks to all the boys for the assistance they gave him during the World war."

Two dentists who happened to be traveling on the same train discovered they were of the same profession.

Immediately their conversation turned to "shop."

"You know, old man," said the first, "I have mastered the art of being gentle. I've got gentlemen down to such a fine point that my patients fall asleep while I'm pulling out their teeth."

"Oh, that's nothing!" retorted the other. "My patients always arrange for their photos to be taken when I operate, because that's the only time they have such a pleasant expression."

Mrs. Sharp—You have bought this parrot and it does not talk. Sharp—Quite right. I bought it as an example for you.

Watta! Watta! If a man marries a dumb one, he feels ashamed, and if she has more sense than he has, he feels even worse.

A Swedish Young thing cleaning out windows—Hey, look man, do you have the time?

Joe Mann—Sure! But who's going to hold the horses?

A stranger nudged me in the ribs at the picture show the other night. "Say," he whispered, "after my life has been wasted, after all, I've had three wives and I never kissed any of 'em the way that teller's doing it."

"Is it too late?" I murmured endeavoring to register sympathy. "It is," he returned sadly. "I am tormented with a shortness of breath."

Lyle Womack To Visit Antarctic

PANAMA, Sept. 15.—(A. P.)—Lyle Womack, who is sailing Ruth Elder for divorce, was bound for the Antarctic today aboard the city of New York, one of the ships of Commander Richard K. Byrd's expedition to the South Pole.

Womack signed as an officer yesterday and sailed for Fremont, New Zealand, aboard the vessel.

Womack was understood to have originally planned to enter the army flying school in Texas, but apparently encountered difficulties because he was married, which was thought to have barred enlistment.

AT THE THEATERS

Bill Cody's New Film Has Thrills Aplenty

There is a lot of fun in store for you at the Star theatre where Bill Cody arrives today in "Laddie He Good." This western picture is a western story in an eastern setting. That is, Bill is ranch bred and he takes the customs of the cow country to the Chicago mansion of his father when the latter dies and he has to go east to settle the estate that is now his. There is a grasping neighbor who wants something that belongs to Bill and who has a beautiful daughter that Bill wants, so there is plenty of plot and romance.

One of the thrilling and amusing stunts is a rodeo in the park where Bill rides a bull over and through all the furniture and decorations and when a couple of marauders attempt a daring robbery and are frustrated by Bill and his bull-whip.

Picture Brings Back Days Of Flaming West

The spirit of the great West, with its hardy pioneers, Indians and cowboys, has been successfully transferred to the screen in "The Riding Homeboys," an EFA Western picture starring Bob Steele, which is now on view at the Star theatre. Wallace Fox, the director, has invested Frank Howard Clark's story of the adventures of a youth who runs away from home to become a wanderer of the wilderness with a scenic background and authenticity of character that will stir the imagination of everyone in the audience. "The Riding Homeboys" is a vivid tale, replete with hard riding and fighting and flavored with a delicious love story between Bob Steele and Dorothy Kitchen, who play the two principal roles.

In the cast supporting young Steele are Lyle McKee, Bob Fleming, Ethel Lindholm, Nick Thompson and Pedro Rega. This interesting Western drama will continue at the Star for two more days.

Bessie Love Coming To The Arcade

What practically amounts to a choice seat at one of Broadway's well-known musical shows will fall to every person in the audience at the Arcade Theatre on Wednesday when "Bally of the Boudoir," an EFA picture based on a chorus girl's struggle for fame, opens. Not only was an actual Metropolitan theatre used for the stage scenes, but also the chorus of a current musical comedy success were drafted for the ensemble.

The picture, which features that lovely little star, Bessie Love, is said to be overflowing with all the color and glamour of the stage, and possessing a most dramatic theme which is bound to pull at the heart strings of all who see it.

In selecting his cast, Lynn Shores, EFA's youthful director, made certain of employing only those who have proved their ability—people whose names are synonymous with the acting, such as Allan Forrest, who plays the leading male role, myopic Bram Love, Margaret Quilley, a former George White's Scandals beauty, Jerry Miley, well-known juvenile "heavy," Jack Raymond of stage fame, and little four-year old Irene Lambert, who was "Gina" as a child in "Uncle Tom's Cabin."
