AT THE THEATERS

Fazenda-Cook
Now Playing
At Arcade

"Five and Ten Cent Annie," a Warner Bros. production featuring Laurie Fawcett, Clyde Cook and William Demarest, and including Gertrude Astor, Douglas Gerrard, Tom Ricketts and Eddie Haffner, is playing at the Arcade Theatre.
The story of a clerk at the five-and-ten and a humorous but loving street cleaner is one of the funniest plays of the year. It was adapted from a Leon Zuckor story by Charles Gordon. Roy Del Ruth directed. Bring the whole family and give them the laughing jamboree of their lives.

Partner Cornsheel had just returned from a trip to town. In the morning, after spending the first night in the new home his wife said, "Well, Partner, hasn't it about one you was getting up to build the fire?"
"No, sir," replied the old man.
"I'll call the fire department. We might as well get used to these city conventions right now."

King Solomon's wisdom probably consisted in being able to prevent his wives from applying for a divorce and asking for alimony.

The Scotch came in for more verbal drubbings than any people on the face of the earth. Tom Stinson says that "You can usually tell a Scotchman by what he reads.
Just take a peek over his shoulder and see if it isn't free verse." That's one on the Scotch, that we haven't heard.

IN THE ROUGH. Poor Gopher:
"These birds are terrible."
"Gopher," "We're not on the links, sir. We left them an hour ago."

Parents excuse themselves on the ground that their 12-year-old boy can drive the car as well as anybody, but how did he learn?

Clarks: "What are you kicking about?"
"Customer," "Why should these shoes be so expensive with rubber so cheap?"

EDITORS' CONTENT DAY
URBANA, Ill.—Newspaper editors who have fared poorly for content, one of whom went to jail rather than betray a newspaper confidence, have a chance on the Illinois press association convention program here October 11 to 13. W. J. Smith of Waukegan, Ill., is the editor who went to jail.

Without ill he is hungry enough.
Never cooks, bakes or plans with a child to marry her a request. If you threaten a punishment, execute it immediately. It is not necessary to whip a child. Prompt and consistent punishment to an upper room with complete ignoring is more effective. It is a great mistake to suppose that reasoning should be the one and only method of training a child. The child who is brought up at home to argue for half an hour over every request is handicapped for school and employment where he is an individual must be lost in the group.

If your child is slowing up in school, and becoming fearful and restless, or begins truant, take him to the psychologist or the school department and find out whether his mind is able to grasp what is being taught him. If your child is found to be slower in his mental ability than his classmates, accept it and place the child as the psychological director. It is no disgrace. Statistics show that 25% of school children are unable to keep up to average grade work.
Fighting such a child beyond what he can do easily and well will make him grow up into an unhappy, irritable man or woman who feels he is a failure and obscure to his family because he can not fulfill presented ambitions made long before he was born.
