SOCIETY NEWS

Thursday Auction Bridge Members Are Entertained

The Thursday Auction Bridge club was delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon at the Seaside Inn by Mrs. Peter McDonald. Sweet news made attractive decorations. Mrs. Robert Patterson was awarded first prize for high score. Mrs. H. A. Poore, a guest of the afternoon, received guest prize.

Mrs. George J. Tins, Mrs. Ray Bond, Mrs. Clark Webb and Mrs. Lot L. Snodgrass, were taken into the membership of the P. S. club last night when the club held a dinner at the Seaside Inn, with eight in attendance. Mrs. Jack Hunt was re-elected president of the group for the year. After the dinner the party moved to the Hunt home, where they enjoyed an evening of bridge with Mrs. W. D. Warner, winner of first prize for high score.

Members of the Triangle Bridge club were entertained delightfully last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Byers on 791 K avenue. Three tables were in play with first prize for women going to Mrs. H. W. Hiley and first for men going to Bert Webb. Refreshments made attractive decorations. A luncheon was served following the cards.

The ballroom of the La Grande was the scene of a pretty autumn dance last night when the members of the newly organized Good Times Dancing club held their opening dance. The room was attractively decorated with fall flowers and leaves. The next dance of the club will be a Halloween affair in October.

Hope Chapter In Enjoyable Meeting

Hope Chapter No. 13, Order of the Eastern Star, met in regular session Wednesday evening in their hall, with an attendance which was very good. The regular routine work of the order was followed under the direction of Mrs. Lydia Loney, worthy matron and Mrs. Florence Bacon, secretary. This was the time for the social meeting of the month, consequently the chapter had closed the evening augmented by about 25 more members participated in a social hour and enjoyed community singing directed by W. W. Nustum. At the conclusion of some time spent in such an informal social manner, a committee with Mrs. L. M. Hoyt as chairman served some delectable refreshments. At the meeting to be held on Oct. 16, the next regular meeting, the chapter will have as its distinguished guest, Mrs. Elizabeth Tipton, of Portland, associate worthy, grand matron, who comes as a representative of the worthy grand matron, to conduct a school of instruction in the afternoon and to inspect the chapter in the evening. A banquet is being arranged for the occasion by proper committees.

On Thursday afternoon, in the social room of the Presbyterian church, Mrs. T. A. McKinstry was hostess to a group of the Home Department members and guests, who were Mrs. Wellman, a charter member of the Presbyterian church, the Rev. and Mrs. Wain, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Buchanan. A luncheon was served by Mrs. McKinstry, Mr. Wain presided as toastmaster, and Mrs. Wellman, Mrs. A. K. Anderson, superintendent of the department, and Mrs. McKinstry talked briefly. The afternoon was spent in quilting and visiting.

Mrs. L. J. Elbert entertained the Ladies Aid of the Lutheran church yesterday afternoon at her home on 804 B avenue. The Rev. L. E. Aasland led in the devotional service for the afternoon. Following a short business session and a study of "The Straight Way Toward Tomorrow," a pleasant social afternoon with refreshments and informal visiting, was spent.

The Island City Ladies Aid met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rowley Clark. The women served on carpet rags following a business meeting. Discussion was held concerning the equality meeting of Ladies Aids Oct. 13 at Island City.

Pondosa, Ore., (Special).—The Blue Bird girls of the Primary association, assisted by their teacher, Mrs. Esther Hansen, entertained their mothers with a party Wednesday evening. The girls put on a two-act play and a folk dance, after which everyone joined in playing games. Before the close of the evening fairly refreshments consisting of cake, fruit salad and punch, were served. Those enjoying the entertainment were: Mrs. W. W. Gray, Mrs. Loren Nelson, Mrs. Eugene Nelson, Mrs. James Wade, Mrs. Frank Larson, Mrs. M. P. Raymond, Mrs. Merton Bennett, Mrs. Wain Harsin, Mrs. Clarence Stephenson, Miss Edna Bradshaw, Miss Marie Conlogue, Mrs. Harvey Larson, and Mrs. Arthur Holm.

Cove, Ore., (Special).—A meeting of the Dorcas society of the Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. Eva Millman Thursday afternoon.

Part of the afternoon was spent sewing on blankets. The afternoon was ended with a social period and refreshments.

Pondosa, Ore., (Special).—The Medical Springs Parent-Teachers association held the first meeting of the fall term at the school house Thursday evening.

Announcements

The Baptist church early day program will be held next Sunday at 11 o'clock with Mrs. H. A. McGuire, junior department superintendent, as leader.

The Parent-Teacher Council of La Grande will meet Monday, Oct. 1, at the Central school at 3:45 o'clock. All last year's members and newly appointed chairmen are requested to be present.

SCOTCH LIKE CEREALS
GLASGOW—(AP).—Many a Scotch breakfast table bears an American-made breakfast food, such as corn, wheat and bran flakes. Years ago the Scotch would have only rolled oats, oatmeal, farina or semolina, but the introduction of the lighter American foods created a demand.
