

Senator Conner Speaks at Lake

An informal meeting between the senator and a group of about 100 people was held at the lake house at Lake Umbagog, N. H., on Wednesday night.

Senator Conner spoke for about 15 minutes on the subject of the new constitution. He said that the people of New Hampshire should be careful not to be misled by the promises of the present constitution.

He said that the new constitution was a good one, but that it was not perfect. He said that the people should be careful not to be misled by the promises of the present constitution.
