Opening Session Of Neighborhood Club Yesterday

The La Grande Neighborhood club began fall and winter activities with a meeting yesterday afternoon in the ballroom of the La Grande hotel, Mrs. F. L. Meyers, president, presiding.

Mrs. Ray Williams, treasurer of the club, and Mrs. W. E. Adler, both delegates to the state federation of women's clubs convention at Klamath Falls this year, gave interesting reports of the convention. Mrs. J. E. Tryon also went as a delegate from La Grande, and Mrs. Earl Reynolds and Mrs. Bruce Dennis, former residents of La Grande, now living in Klamath Falls, also represented the Neighborhood club at the federation meeting.

Interesting sidelights on the convention were recounted by Mrs. Williams who stated that "The inspiration one derives from such a meeting makes it many times worth attending.

'One of the outstanding features of the convention was the address by Dr. Aurelia Henry Rhinehart, president of Mills college," Mrs. Williams said. "The title of her address was 'The Contribution of Education to International Understanding.'"

"An explanation of the proposed division of the state federation into districts was made by Mrs. Saidie Orr-Dunbar, of Portland, who was another of the outstanding speakers at the convention," said Mrs. Adler. "Such a division would mean that each of the five districts would hold a convention each year. The purpose would be to increase co-operation and develop a feeling of unity between the clubs within each district. Such a spirit could be more easily accomplished by these smaller units than by the state organization alone Mrs. Dunbar believes.

"Mrs. Dunbar also urged the inauguration of more child guidance clinics. The matter of rural school consolidation was discussed, Mrs. Dunbar expressing herself of the belief that such consolidation would eliminate the poorer training now received by children in many rural schools."

The student loan fund sponsored by the state federation was also a subject for discussion at the convention, Mrs. Adler said. The consensus seemed to be that it is better to distribute smaller loans among a greater number of applicants for aid in getting a higher education than for a smaller number to be helped by larger loans.

Mrs. L. B. Moe was introduced as chairman of the social committee. Following the business session tea was enjoyed.

The La Grande council of Parent-Teacher associations met for the opening session of the year Monday afternoon at Central school, with Mrs. R. C. Alexander, president, presiding and Mrs. O. B. Maxim as secretary.

Georgianna Lockwood, of Willow school, one of the four girl delegates to the state fair at Salem last week, representing the Four-H club, reported on the fair.

"A Library Magazine Collection and Its Circulation" was the title of a talk by Mrs. J. K. Charlton, of Greenwood school.

Announcement was made of the meeting of the Eastern Oregon regional conference of the Oregon Parent-Teacher association at Pendleton, Nov. 15. Last year the state convention was held in La Grande.

At the meeting the following department directors were announced by the officers: Mrs. L. Faus, public welfare; Mrs. J. K. Charlton, home service; Miss Eileen Morelock, education; Mrs. E. D. Towler, publicity; E. A. Sayre, religious education; Mrs. J. A. Wonderlick, health; Mrs. R. P. Cunningham, ways and means; Mrs. George Lyman, parliamentarian.

The nominating committee was asked to nominate a vice president to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. George Chadwick.

The association went on record as favoring the home demonstration agent and a committee was appointed to consider the matter. Mrs. McKennon is head of the committee.

It was decided that the association have a permanent place of meeting to be decided upon at a later date.

Y. W. E. A. Enjoys "Trip To China"

Sweet incense burning, orange blossom arbors, tiny, medium and big, Chinese parasols suspended from the ceiling, Chinese lamp shades, pale candles flickering in the corners and cat tails here and there were part of the setting for the Chinese program which made a thoroughly enjoyable evening yesterday at the Methodist church when the Young Women's Educational auxiliary, in the second of a series of stops in a "round-the-world" cruise, visited in the Orient.

Dainty Chinese girls, with embroidered kimonas, some with queues and others more modern, waved fans and glided softly about the rooms, seating guests and serving refreshments, added to a realistic, peaceful, and friendly atmosphere characteristic of the east.

Explaining why the Yellow sea is yellow, characteristics of life and customs in China, a bit of Chinese philosophy, the kind of people the Chinese are, and existing political and social conditions in China, were a few of the points touched upon by Hugh Brady, of La Grande, when he talked of China drawing upon his store of first hand knowledge gleaned from his five years sojourn in that country.

Mrs. George Richardson, in keeping with the evening's motif, sang two Oriental vocal numbers, one Chinese and the other Japanese.

Refreshments consisted of stuffed peppers with rice, crackers, candies, candied fruit, and nuts.

Miss Henri Hering was chairman of the group in charge of the entertainment. In a short informal talk she told something of the Chinese philosophy, reading a few of the proverbs of the Chinese.

Miss Gladys Miller explained Chinese music, its character and qualities and how it differs from that of the West.

Those who composed the committee helping Miss Hering were: Miss Minna Cooper, Mrs. Clyde Peterson, Mrs. Renwick A. Clark, Miss Gladys Miller, Mrs. Cecil Bolton, and Miss Peggy Hess.

Dr. Lewa Wilkes, Miss Mabel E. Doty, and Mrs. Claude Cooper, assisted.

QUESTION No. 23. With the bidding, South one No Trump, West double, North two No Trumps, followed by three passes; what four cards should be played to trick 1?

QUESTION No. 24. What four cards should be played to trick 2.

23. To trick 1, West should lead the Trey of Hearts, Dummy should play the Deuce of Hearts, East should play the Seven of Hearts, and South should play the Ten of Hearts. West has no choice; with two suits of equal length, the stronger should be led against a No Trump. In this hand either a Spade or a Diamond opening would be more advantageous, but in these tests the question is what should be done with no knowledge of the other hands; not what should be done with all the hands known as in a double-dummy problem.

24. To trick 2, South should lead the Deuce of Clubs, West should play the Queen of Clubs, North the Four of Clubs and East the Five of Clubs. South, winning the first trick, can be sure of four Hearts, two Spades and one Club. One more trick is needed for game and can doubtless be obtained in the Club suit. As West has doubled, there is little chance of a Diamond trick unless West should open that suit. The danger for North and South is that East may obtain the lead and lead a Diamond; consequently every effort must be made to keep East from the lead. West clearly has at least two Clubs. West's initial lead of his lowest Heart showed that he did not have a suit longer than four cards, and as West's Diamonds must be stronger than West's Hearts (otherwise West could not have doubled), he can have only three Diamonds. South's scheme must be to lose two Club tricks to West, keeping the lead in West's hand and not permitting it to get in East's hand.

BREAKFAST—Cantaloupe, cereal, scrambled eggs with dried beef, whole wheat and date muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Potato and parsley soup, toasted cheese crackers, spinach timbales, rye bread, children's sponge cake, lemonade.

DINNER—Spanish steak, twice baked sweet potatoes, buttered beets, cole slaw, frozen junket with fresh peaches, cake, milk, coffee.

Children's sponge cake is an excellent plain cake made without butter. It makes a good substitute for a real sponge cake using twice as many eggs.

Children's Sponge Cake

One and one-half cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 cup granulated sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, milk, ½ teaspoon vanilla.

Mix and sift flour, salt, baking powder and sugar three or four times. Break eggs into measuring cup and fill with milk. Add to dry ingredients and beat hard for five minutes. Beat in vanilla and pour into an oiled and floured cake pan. Bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

Cream can be used in place of milk if a slightly richer cake is wanted. Hard beating insures the success of this cake.

"The Best Hotel Value In The West"

An Oregon State college professor recently a guest for several days at the Sacajawea volunteered the comment that never in his travels in twenty states during the last two years has he found a hotel giving such excellent service and such luxurious accommodations for the rates charge as the Sacajawea.

That is the general opinion of those who have experienced Sacajawea hospitality. Your friends and acquaintances will reach the same conclusion when they stay here. Tell them about it.

Always Use The Telephone Directory

Many times every day, telephone patrons call the wrong number. This is bad for everybody. If you've been called out of bed at 4 o'clock in the morning by "wrong number" you've been madder than a hornet and you blamed "Central" for it. And the one who tried to call the party got mad, too, because there was a delay.

HERE'S A SAFE RULE FOR EVERYBODY: Consult the telephone book. Don't rely on your memory.
