STAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Three coast conference members were anchored today in the smooth waters of victory while the others reached port somewhat as the result of the first conference football engagements of the 1928 season.

The last fixture of the north-western conference, the Oregon-Agony game, was played before a record-breaking crowd of 15,000 spectators at the University of Oregon stadium.

Both victories were for sport, as the most anticipated followers looked for the Aggies to win in a close game.

Stanford's victory was a surprise, as the Aggies were favored to win. The game was a close one, with Stanford leading 12-0 at the end of the first half.

The Aggies' defense was solid, but Stanford's offense was too strong. Stanford scored three touchdowns and a field goal.

The game was a classic example of the conference's high level of play. The Aggies' defense was a model of efficiency.

YANKS ON VERGE OF WORLD TITLE

Third Straight Game Taken From St. Louis Cards Sunday 7 to 3

By HELEN BELL Associated Press Staff Writer
St. Louis, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Hitting like a sledge hammer, the New York Yankees today won their third straight game from the St. Louis Cardinals, 7 to 3.

If the New Yorkers can stop the St. Louis Cardinals over here, as they have done in their three previous games, they will have a good chance of winning the National League championship. They already have won three of their last four games.

The Yankees were confident that they could win the third game of the series. They were confident that they could win the third game of the series.

Father Instructs Own Son

Most famous coaches never have sons who amount to much in football and, if the sons do, never get their football coaching from their dad. Here's the exception to the rule—Frank W. Cavanaugh, head coach at Fordham, giving his son a few pointers. David is out for freshman football this year and is said to be a center at the game.
