HAL BOHNENKAMP Funeral Director. FIFTH AT SPRING STREET. Main 42.

A Substantial Service When Savings Count Most. For many families who suffer bereavement, the expense of a funeral is an item that must be given the most serious consideration even in an hour of sorrow. How gratifying it is, therefore, to know that adequate and appropriate services can be had through this long-established concern at costs to fit individual needs. Faced with the expense that follows a young illness, perhaps, or with an impaired income, this consideration is particularly important. No matter how elaborate or how simple a funeral is desired, the same dignified, sympathetic service is always provided.
