High School Girls Entertain Mothers At Afternoon Party

The Associated Girl Students of La Grande High school gave a Friday afternoon honoring party to their mothers. About 175 mothers and daughters were there for the social party. The club room was artistically decorated with the color scheme of blue and white. The socially president of the party, explained the purpose of the party in a short welcome talk.

Miss Jensen talked on the subject of employment for high school graduates and chairman who were advised by Ruth Smalley included: Margaret Condit, social; June Hilde, program; Mary Gould, piano; standards; Emma Chandler, refreshments; Jacqueline Henderson, spin; and Mary Henderson, hospitality.

A short play by Jennie Nielson, "The Little Blue Bird," was a feature of the program as well as a talk by Dr. Gould Parsons on standards of living.

A short skit, illustrating proper behavior for high school girls, was also given.

Each table was a round number 12. Miss Hannel gave a reading. Miss Stanley talked briefly on the importance of gymnastics and all which was followed by a short play.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones were hosts Thursday night at their home on 1602 Seventh street to the members of the Triangle club. Three tables were in play during the evening with first prize for high score of women going to Mrs. Ben Webb and for men to Harley L. Stenking. Following the cards a luncheon was served. Asters made attractive decorations.

The Sacajawea campfire girls held a council the Friday evening at the club rooms. Honors for achievement in various campfire activities were presented during the ceremony. Natalie Ebert and Edna Brown were presented with 143 honor beads each. Alish Edna Brown took the rank of five marker she became the fifth in La Grande to attain the rank.

Confirmation honors were awarded to Edna Jensen, Vera Melchior, Juanita Stutzinger and Natalie Ebert and public service honors were awarded to the same group of girls.

Edna Brown also achieved the rank of four marker and holds the rank along with several other girls who attained it this summer.

Trail markers rank was also awarded to Edna Jensen and Natalie Ebert.

The decoration of the club rooms has been almost completed. The attractive color scheme is orange, ivory and green.

Visitors at the meeting last night were Mrs. Gehring, Marian Gehring, Mrs. Hicks and Florence Hicks.

Following the council the refreshments were served.

Mrs. H. G. Smith, regent of the La Grande D. A. R., honored Mrs. E. C. Apperson, of McMinville, state regent of the D. A. R., Thursday at a dinner at the La Grande hotel. The officers of the local chapter were present. Covers were placed for five at the table which was decorated with a colonial bouquet and place cards in keeping with the revolutionary period motif.

Many Honors Are Awarded at Council

The Lutheran Ladies Aid met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wangle with 15 in attendance. The afternoon study topic was the life of Sam Sander Singh. The women finished packing a box of clothing to be sent to the West Indies for use in the storm stricken areas. Following the business session a social time was spent. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

MENUS

By Sister Mary
BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, cream, broiled tripe, potatoes, baked in milk, corn muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—October vegetable soup, toast sticks, egg salad sandwich, grape juice, milk, tea.

DINNER—Baked salmon steaks, baked rice and tomatoes, cabbage and celery and green pepper salad, sliced peaches, white cake, milk, coffee.

It's quite worth while to bake more than one dish for a meal when the oven is heated. In this dinner menu, the fish and continuation vegetable dish are cooked by the same heat, affecting a distinct saving of fuel.

Grape Sponge
One tablespoon granulated gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 1 cup grape juice, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 tablespoon orange juice, 2-3 cup sugar, whites 2 eggs, few grains salt.

Soak gelatin in cold water for ten minutes. Dissolve over hot water. Add orange juice, lemon juice and sugar to grape juice and stir until sugar is dissolved. Add dissolved gelatin and place dish in a pan of ice-water and stir frequently until mixture begins to thicken. Gradually add whites of eggs beaten until stiff and dry, beating mixture constantly. Heat until very light and stiff. Turn into a mold to chill and become firm and serve with soft custard made with yolks of eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frees Entertain Clio Club

At the Clio club dinner bridge Friday evening at the Sacajawea Inn, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Frees were hosts to a group of 20 friends. The tables were attractively decorated with colorful fall flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Chase Johnson were awarded the club
