The successful expert C. F. Redlich for Scientific Rupture Appliances says:

The "Perfection Retention Shields" hold the rupture perfectly, no matter what position the body assumes or how heavy a weight you lift. They give instant relief, contract the opening in a remarkably short time and strengthen the weak tissues (the real cause of rupture) so that they frequently recover their previous natural retaining power, needing no further outside support. Stomach trouble, backache, and constipation often caused by Rupture promptly disappear.

Truly remarkable results have been obtained with recent and not yet fully developed ruptures and many old ones also.

Surgical Corsets and Abdominal Supports for falling organs, obesity, navel- and stomach-ruptures expertly made to measure.

Letters from highly satisfied clients available.

Advertised mail order contraptions as well as elastic belts with chafing, filthy legstraps are absolutely worthless.

Call on me and I will show you. Results on children are 95 per cent favorable.

Business engagements prevent visiting any other city in this section. C. F. Redlich, Rupture Appliance Expert. Home office: 535 Boston Block, Minneapolis, Minn. —Paid Adv.

Jack: "I've got a nickel here with Lindy on. Want to see it?"

An enterprising coal dealer, somewhat prone to air his alleged knowledge on every possible occasion, had the following printed on his business cards: "Coal delivered a la carte or coal de sac."

Ignorant Clerk: "No, sir, but I think you can find sash cords in the dry goods store next door. I'm quite sure they sell sashes there."

Shy, But Hardly Modest

Her Hub: "She's certainly shy—"

His Wife (disgustedly): "Shy! Shy! She is the most brazen creature I ever saw."

Her Hub (with a grin): "I was only referring to her clothes, my dear."

THE STORY OF A MIGHTY STRUGGLE is told in there locked moose horns, found in the Canadian Rockies. When the great beasts that wore these horns fought, the horns became tangled and death defeated both. Samuel C. Edmonds of Philadelphia, right, found the horns.

AT THE THEATERS

Capture of Horse Adds Thrill To Western Film

Bob Steele, FBO's 21-year-old western star, will be on the screen at the Star theater tonight in one of his latest releases, "The Trail of Courage."

This story is said to be admirably suited to Bob's talent as a young fearless westerner. Though only on the screen a shorttime, Bob has captured the hearts of movie-goers on account of his ability to act and ride.

In the "Trail of Courage," he has been given the opportunity to further prove his fearlessness in the saddle, and the manner in which he captures a wild man-destroying horse of the desert is said to be the thrilling punch in the picture.

Wallace Fox who has directed most of Steele's pictures, was again chosen to direct this one, while Frank Howard Clark did the adaptation.

The young star is supported by a noted cast consisting of Marjorie Bonner, Alice Knowland, Jay Morley, Howard Webster, and Walter Maley.

Glenn Tryon In Snappy Comedy At the Arcade

"How to Handle Women," a Universal-Jewel comedy, starring Glenn Tryon, has been scheduled by the Arcade theater and will play Wednesday.

Tryon, who is remembered as the star of the great hit, "Painting the Town," and other screen comedies, is cleverer and funnier than ever before. One of the newest stars in filmdom, his original form of comedy is rapidly leading him to a place at the very top of the ladder of public popularity.

"How to Handle Women," directed by William J. Craft, is said to be the best vehicle that Universal could have selected for Tryon's type of portrayal. Studio executives selected the story, written by Craft and Jack Foley, from a large number written by some of the most capable screen writers in Hollywood.

The story is that of a small town newspaper cartoonist who, in order to impress the girl he loves, assumes the identity of a newly arrived Prince Hendryx of Volgaria. With high pressure salesmanship and his own cartooning, he tries to sell the peanut crop of Volgaria to American bankers for a large sum of money. His success with the girl as the result of this diplomatic coup is something that must be seen to be appreciated.

The clever plot and the humorous character of the bogus prince ruling a peanut kingdom fits Tryon perfectly. Marian Nixon, as the leading lady, is an admirable heroine for Tryon. Miss Nixon's charming personality appears to great advantage in this picture.

Oriental Ballet At Arcade Wednesday

The Oriental ballet to be presented at the Arcade Wednesday night Oct. 24, by the Adah Lou Rose Studios is the story of a day in a man's life taken from Omar Khayyam and re-written into drama, dance and pantomime by Madame Rose.

This is only one of many theme productions presented by these studios and carries with it a story of man's awakening to love in the dawn of life, the temptations which beset him, his revels in drink and the pursuit of the fleeting, glittering worldly pleasures until truth and purity call him back into his own wherein he finds love again, true and waiting.

The musical numbers are from Liza Lehman's Persian Garden and Luigini's Ballet Egyptienne.

St. Louis people are glad the series is over with, anyway. They can walk past the ball park now without having to dodge Babe Ruth's home runs.

TROUBLESOME HACKING COUGHS STOPPED

Coughing is often due to an irritation of the throat that persistent hacking only makes worse. To stop it at once, hold for a time a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound low in the throat, as for a gargle, then swallow. This puts the healing, soothing qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in direct contact with the irritated surfaces, and relief is immediate. Try it. —Adv.
