FRANCE PAYS HEAVY INTEREST

PARIS (AP)—It now costs France more to keep up payments of interest on her debts than to run the government. The budget of 1929 authorized 22 billion, 150 million francs for interest and 21 billion for the government outlay.

BANK HAS PAWN BUSINESS

TEHERAN, Persia (AP)—The newly organized Persian National Bank not only will have separate commercial, agricultural and industrial departments but will take over as a fourth department the governmental pawn-broking institution established in 1926. It is believed this business will give the bank, capitalized at $300,000, substantial revenues in addition to purely banking profits.

A man in dead earnest is generally recognized as a live one.

To Take Stock From Mountains Late This Week

Mrs. C. M. Hale (University Correspondent) (AP)—Mrs. C. M. Hale, who has been in the mountains of the Sierra Nevada for several weeks, is expected to return to the city this week. She has been in the mountains of the Sierra Nevada for several weeks, is expected to return to the city this week.
