CUPID MOCKS WEATHER

CHEROKEE, Iowa (AP)—Romantic June brings no more couples to the altar in this county than bleak February. Each month for the past 11 years has averaged 153 marriage licenses.

After thirty people died of poison liquor in New York, chemists examining the stuff they drank found it contained such things as [illegible] pyridine, nitrobenzine, [illegible] and phenol. The only [illegible] drink lacks these days is a couple of rusty tacks.

AGGIES TO WORK SAME BACKFIELD

Sherwood, Hughes, Maple and Thompson Start Against Washington

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 26 (AP)—Vernon Eilers, all-coast guard, will lead the Oregon State college football team into the fray tomorrow against the University of Washington. Eilers was named captain of the squad last night as the team departed for Seattle for the game. Thirty players left for the north, encouraged by a rousing station rally by the student body.

A lineup similar to that which played Washington State in the first half of the game last week will start for Oregon State, Coach Schissler announced. This includes a sophomore backfield, as Maple is the only letterman, others being Hughes and Sherwood, halves, and Chief Thompson, fullback.

Use of these unseasoned players to start important games is forced by early season injuries of Twitchell and Mecum, veteran backs. Twitchell was hurt in early practice and has not played in any conference game this season. He will go to Seattle but probably will not be used, Schissler says. Starting linemen: Whitlock and Striff, ends; Lacy and Sinn, tackles; Eilers and Carlson, guards; Geddes, center.

Light signal drill, dummy scrimmage, passing and punting practice replaced heavy scrimmage this week.

HUSKIES TROUBLED

SEATTLE, Oct. 26 (AP)—A rejuvenated and troubled University of Washington football squad was tapering off today in preparation for the Huskies' twenty second meeting with Oregon State college here tomorrow. The return of three regulars to the squad and constant changing of the first eleven with the almost certain elimination of Captain Clarence Dirks from the starting lineup, apparently have put some fight back into the weakened Husky that was unmercifully crushed by the University of Oregon a week ago.

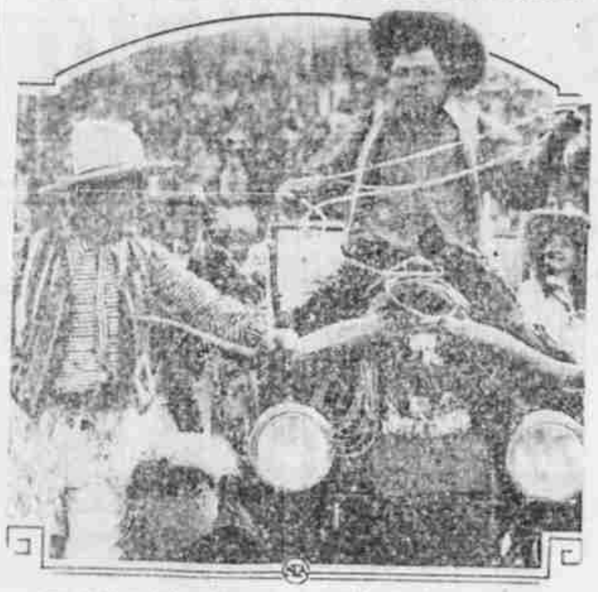
The trio that are back on the gridiron after being out with injuries are: Leo Wilcox, guard; Bill Snyder, veteran end, and Thurle Thoreen, triple threat half back. All three appeared certain of being in the starting lineup against O. S. C., as did Henry Wentworth, 260-pound tackle who has been in Captain Dirk's booth most of the time since the Oregon game.

Coach Enoch Bagshaw has shuffled his squad so much during the last week that no player knew for sure whether he was with the first string or the second.

McEWAN TO SCOUT BEARS

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 26 (AP)—John J. McEwan, University of Oregon football coach, deserted his players here today to take a trip to Berkeley, Cal., to scout the game between the University of California and Olympic club at Berkeley tomorrow. The University of Oregon will play California in a Pacific coast conference contest next week.

RIDIN' THE CREST OF THEIR FAME



The 1929-model cowboy you see astride the bucking motor car is that famed buster of home runs, Babe Ruth. With him is his partner from the Yankee ranch, Lou Gehrig, who seems somewhat amused at the Bambino's handling of a lariat. But the Babe roped in the crowds all right, for the stands were packed when he and Lou started their barnstorming tour with an exhibition game in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Iowa Football Mad On Eve Of Minnesota Game

CHICAGO, Oct. 26 (AP)—The day of opportunity appears to have come at least for weary Burt Ingwersen of Iowa.

Thousands of alumni who jeered him and demanded his resignation as Iowa coach after last year's dismal record on the gridiron, are now cheering him. Tomorrow the largest crowd that ever saw a football game at Iowa is expected to watch his big eleven tackle the Gophers of the north, Minnesota, in the outstanding battle of the Big Ten's card.

For the first time in years Iowa City and Iowa were literally football mad. The game at Iowa is expected to be the battle between the two undefeated elevens. Should the Hawkeyes win, it will be probably the most glamorous homecoming in Iowa's history for alumni and Ingwersen.

Four other Big Ten teams also began their invasions of foreign fields today. Wisconsin had its [illegible] at Michigan. Northwestern was at Illinois, Ohio State was en route to Indiana, and Purdue's [illegible] invaded Chicago.

INJURED TEAM FACING UCLAS ON SATURDAY

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 26 (AP)—A light scrimmage drill this afternoon will close a week of painful practice for the crippled University of Idaho squad which will be pitted against the University of California at Los Angeles team here Saturday afternoon.

Coach Charlie Erb today was wondering how he could find eleven uninjured men for a starting lineup. Apparently his search was fruitless for he announced that [illegible], fullback, Hall, end, [illegible], halfback, Diehl, tackle, and Perry, end, who have been nursing injuries, probably would start.

The Californians are expected to arrive this afternoon.

Rooks And Frosh Game Is Tomorrow

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 26 (AP)—The Oregon freshman and Oregon Aggie rook football teams will meet on the Multnomah civic stadium gridiron tomorrow in the outstanding encounter for the week of the voters' state. Both squads wound up their pre-game practice tonight, and both were in good physical condition except for a few minor injuries in the camp of the Aggie rooks.

Neither of the teams has been defeated as yet this year.
