ORDER FOR HEARING ON PETITION TO SELL REAL PROPERTY

BE IT REMEMBERED, That at a regular term of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Union, in probate sitting, began and held at the Court House in the City of La Grande, in said County and State, on Monday, the first day of October, A. D. 1928, the same being the first Monday of said month, and the time fixed by law for holding a regular term of said court, when present: The Honorable J. G. COUCH, County Judge; C. K. McNEIL, Clerk; JESSE BRIDGEMAN, Sheriff.

WHEN, on Thursday, the 11th day of October, A. D. 1928, or the tenth judicial day of said term, among others the following proceedings were had, to-wit:

In the Matter of the Guardianship of Annie E. Hamilton, an incompetent Person.

Now at this time this matter came on for hearing, upon the petition of Geo. T. Cochran, guardian of the above entitled estate, praying for a license to sell the real property belonging to said Annie E. Hamilton, and it appearing to the court:

That Annie E. Hamilton is the owner of Lot 11, Block 2 of Grandview Addition to La Grande, Oregon; that said real property was appraised at $2000.00.

That the next of kin of said Annie E. Hamilton are the following: Maude E. Skinner, a daughter, residing at Cameron, Missouri; Della Bailey, a daughter, residing at Hamilton, Missouri; O. C. Hamilton, a son, residing at Kansas City, Missouri; A. E. Hamilton, a son, residing at Breckenridge, Missouri; J. Hamilton, a son, residing at Kansas City, Kansas; Mrs. Lucia Pittner, a daughter, residing at Hamilton, Missouri; and Mrs. P. E. Peterson, a daughter, residing at Kansas City, Kansas; that said Maude E. Skinner, and all of said next of kin of said Annie E. Hamilton, are non-residents of the State of Oregon, and that said Annie E. Hamilton resides at Breckenridge, Missouri.

That Walter O. Hart, of Breckenridge, Missouri, is the duly appointed, qualified and acting executor and guardian of the person and estate of said Annie E. Hamilton, under and by virtue of an appointment of the Probate Court of Caldwell County, Missouri;

That the above described property is city property, upon which there is a residence; that the expense of keeping the same rented and in repair, and collecting the rent, paying the taxes and insurance, reduces the income from said property to a nominal sum; that said property is now rented at $200.00 per month; that a greater income can be secured from the investment of the proceeds of a sale of said property; that the expense of maintaining two guardians to look after the property of the ward places a double burden upon the estate; that a sale of said real

La Roque Star In Film "Hold 'em, Yale"

One of the most celebrated plays of Owen Davis, "At Yale," has been brought to the screen for Pathé in "Hold 'em, Yale," by Cecil B. DeMille, with Rod LaRoque in the stellar role.

A story of college life on the famous Yale campus, "Hold 'em, Yale," depicts the activities of a young and wealthy South American at Yale. He learns to fight for his individuality and becomes one of that institution's most capable and sensational football players. As a result he gains the girl of his heart and a lasting devotion for the blue and white of "Old Eli."

Playing the feminine lead in "Hold 'em, Yale" which is now the feature at the Star Theater, Jeanette Luff portrays the daughter of a Yale professor, impregnated by Joseph Cawthorn, prominent musical comedy star and screen character actor. The supporting cast includes Hugh Allan, Tom Kennedy, Jerry Mandy and others. Edward H. Griffith directed from the scenario of George Drummond based on Davis' stage play "At Yale."

Dorothy Mackaill, leading player with Jack Mulhall in the First National picture "Waterfront," which comes to the Arcade Theatre today has decided against a life on the bounding main.

Ever since the pretty star sailed from England to win fame on the silver screen, she had harbored a desire to be a sailor. When cast for the role of Peggy Ann in "Waterfront," she saw her hopes coming true. The script read that Peggy Ann was to be a full-blooded sailor, one of the deep sea sort, at home in any port.

But Dorothy has found that the life is not what it is "cracked up to be." She has found that sailors do not spend their time standing on the bridge waving to passing ships. Indeed not. Dorothy's main work as a seaman in the picture was peeling potatoes and washing dishes. The only time a sailor gets on deck, she found, is when the captain or first mate discovered a bit of floor space that needed scrubbing.

"I'm disillusioned but cured," said Miss Mackaill. "When I hear

He: "I sure was tickled last night."
She: "Good show."
He: "No, no, I'm flattered."

PRISONER ESCAPES

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 29 (AP)—Stepping into a washroom on Burlington train No. 41, just after pulling out of Murphy, Neb., Sunday, T. J. Audette, federal prisoner, opened a window and jumped from the train, making his escape. He, with another prisoner, was being transported to Leavenworth penitentiary from McNeil Island prison. Two federal guards were accompanying the prisoners.

property would enable the guardianship in Oregon to be terminated, and would enable the guardian in the state of Missouri to transact all the business of the estate; that it is for the best interests of said ward and of her estate that said property be sold; that inasmuch as there is not a ready sale for real estate at this time, said property can be sold to better advantage at private than at public sale;

And the court being fully advised in the premises, it is hereby CONSIDERED, ORDERED and DECREED that a hearing be held on the 10th day of November, 1928, at the court room of this court in the court house at La Grande, Union County, Oregon, at ten o'clock A. M. of said day, and that said Annie E. Hamilton and the above named next of kin be served with a copy of this order by publication thereof for three successive weeks in the La Grande Evening Observer, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in La Grande, Oregon, beginning with the 12th day of October, 1928.

Jersey City Mayor Cited for Contempt

THIRTY-NINE N. J., Oct. 29 (AP)—Frank Hague, mayor of Jersey City and a vice chairman of the national democratic committee, today was cited for contempt in refusing to appear before a legislative investigating committee.

The citation was issued when Assemblyman Barrett, member of the committee, moved that Hague's action be placed before the bar of the legislature which reconvenes on November 19. The motions were carried by a vote of 4 to 2, a strictly party vote.

A wife, her mother and her grandmother sued for divorce in the same week. If they all were married to the same man, that would be busy.
