THE GARDEN

It is now time to store the French chive in the cellar. Dig and cut to even lengths, cover with earth and store it in a warm, dark cellar. You can have salad by Thanksgiving day from it.

Sow the spinach seed toward November 1 and then give it a good cover of straw or leaves. This will give an extra early start on "greens" next year.

It is now time to dig the first parsnips. They won't be as sunny as in the spring but will be a fine change in the vegetable bill of fare.

HEADS I WIN, TAILS YOU LOSE

One night when her mother reminded her that it was her birthday, she said:

"It isn't fair. At night you tell me I'm too little to stay up, and in the morning you say I'm too big to stay in bed."

It's good a man and not a woman was first president of the United States. It means one today holiday in the year. We mean a woman never tells her age, so we wouldn't know when her birthday was, and consequently we couldn't celebrate it.

"Don't you know there are microbes all around us?" said the scientific astronomer.

"I don't care," answered the man who dislikes noise, "so long as they don't crowd at 5 o'clock in the morning."

"Is the world round?" a school hound asked the little boy.

"No," he said.

"It isn't, eh? Is it flat then?"

"Are you crazy child? If the world isn't round and it isn't flat, what is it?"

"I don't know," he said.

"Why don't you get married?" asked the Office Crouch yesterday.

"I don't believe I'd be happy married," he replied.

"Good Lord man," responded the Crouch, "I've never been happy married either. But even that's better than being single."

Home is a place where you find the things you need, such as cloth and apple peel in the ash tray.

You would not knock the jokes we use, could you but see those we refuse.

AT THE THEATERS

Vivid Tale of Orient In Film At The Star

"Across to Singapore" Ben Ames Williams' vivid drama of the sea, with Ramon Novarro as the star, is the attraction commencing Thursday at the Star theater.

The much-buried Mervyn Goldwyn-Mayer drama is a vivid story of romance and adventure, based on the high seas, in New England and in the mysterious Oriental setting of Singapore. A famous cast appears under the direction of William Nigh.

The new play is a graphic romance of the clipper ships, with Novarro as a young sailor, ensnared in a strange love affair which leads to dramatic adventures. Much of the picture was filmed aboard the old clipper ship "Narwhal," which put to sea with the company for a lengthy Pacific cruise, during which the sea scenes, including the terrific storm, the mutiny, and the attack of Oriental pirates were filmed.

Joan Crawford plays the heroine of the new picture, and Ernest Torrence, James Mason, Edward Connolly, Frank Currier, Anna May Wong, Dan Wolheim, Duke Martin and others of note are in the cast.

The Singapore scenes, showing a famous Oriental resort and other interesting spots, were constructed on a spectacular scale, and an entire New England village was built as another huge setting for the new picture.

William Nigh, the director, is noted for such plays as "Mr. X," "The Fire Brigade," "The Healer at Berlin" and many others of note.

More Hoover Attacks Held Only Boloney

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31.—"Hoover supporters, be on guard for last minute attempts to turn sentiment against your candidate." Such is the warning that is being sent out by Phil Mersbach, chairman of the republican state central committee.

"If there is one thing in the long and honorable career of Herbert Hoover it would have been discovered and broadcast long ago," declared Mr. Mersbach today.

"Those who seek to accomplish the defeat of our candidate have left no stone unturned in an effort to impeach his character and the record of Mr. Hoover, but their attempts have been vain, and my last minute attack on him may be considered as what Mr. Smith would call 'boloney'."

Barrymore Is Featured In "Road House"

Excellent screen entertainment is offered in Fox Films "Road House," which opens tonight at the Argente theater where it will run a two day engagement. It is a colorful, splendidly told story of modern youth, directed by Richard Rosson.

Besides its value as a clean-cut well-directed motion picture, "Road House" brings two players to the screen. Maria Alba, acclaimed the most beautiful girl in Spain, has personality plus, besides being very easy on the eyes. She has marked ability and promises to make a screen history.

The other youngster is Warren Burke, who plays the role of the prodigal son. Burke gives an excellent performance and is a real find in juvenile ranks.

Lancel Barrymore is cast as the
