

A Big Value-Giving Event for Two Days --- Friday and Saturday

DOLLAR DAY SALES!

You always welcome an opportunity to save. These Dollar Day Sales give some of the biggest values you've seen in many a day, and they're made possible by a number of fortunate purchases we've made the last few weeks.

Our chance to buy especially low is also our chance to pass on the bargains to you. In addition, we are including numerous broken lines for clearance. Many items, limited in number, are included in the sale but are not advertised.

Cove Flouring Mill Operating For Two Weeks
By Mrs. J. H. Price (Observer Correspondent)
COVE, Ore., (Special)—The Cove Flouring Mill is again running. Mr. Duffey says he will run for about two weeks at this time. Mr. and Mrs. John Miller left Tuesday afternoon for Los Angeles. Mr. Miller is taking his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller to Los Angeles for the winter.

and his wife expect to visit for several weeks before their return. Misses Edmond and Alice Cox will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Thomas, who are staying on the Miller place, during the owner's absence, and Dora Latta will be with her grandmother, Mrs. Latta. Normal Campfire held a special council here Monday evening for the awarding of honors. Miss Lois Conroy received a ideal honor for regular attendance, payment of dues and earning of honors. The other receiving honors were, Jan Daniel, Dorothy Barker, Berta Barber, Clem Conley, Lee Elmer Bushman, Dora Lloyd, Marie Larson, Leona Price, Carmen Dahlol and Jean Weimer. The last two honors are very easy to obtain, the honors being earned before they left. The national health honor earned by Carmen Daniel and Jan Daniel and a silver cup given for her. This honor represents keeping the health club for 12 months, which is considered quite an undertaking.

FORD BUYS LANDMARK
PHOENIXVILLE, Conn., (AP)—A store here built in 1772, the ruins of which has hand-wrought nails and wooden pegs, has been bought by Henry Ford and will be taken down and transferred elsewhere.

A LAND OF MUSEUMS
ST. LOUIS (AP)—The United States before long will become a "giant's storehouse of all the arts of all the ages," because of the increase in museums, in the opinion of Louis H. Beitzke, a director of the American Institute of Architects.

FRANKIE BURNELL WINS
PENDLETON, Ore., Nov. 1 (AP)—Frankie Burnell, Portland welterweight, knocked out Rockaway Rogers, Salem, in the third round of a 108-pound main event here last night. Chuck Rosander, Portland welter, took a ten round decision over Billy Smith, Portland.
