AN INSPIRING INVITATION—Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, and buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.—Isa. 55:1.

Ocean liners, after all, have some redeeming features. They never go into a tail-spin.

Straw votes are a great institution. If they agree with your views, you're reassured; and if they don't, you're spurred on to prove they're wrong.

It is going to be possible, an aviator says, to get from America to Europe in 60 hours. But what more people are interested in is how long it is going to take to get from Europe to America.

Mexico City announces that the old blue law which forbids kissing in public places will no longer be enforced. It's incredible the length to which foreign countries will go in bidding for the American tourist trade.

A REVISION OF AUTO FEE SCHEDULES

The need for some equitable scheme of auto license fee revision, particularly one that would benefit the old cars, has been recognized for a greater period than the life of the Dunne bills. But it has always been the primary concern of those working for a revised schedule that the improvement be accomplished without destroying or interrupting the construction and maintenance work of the highway commission.

A concrete and fair statement of the situation is contained in a recent letter from the Motor Truck Owners Service bureau of Salem, an organization whose members would be benefited as far as fee schedules are concerned by the Dunne bill. The bureau's comment on the proposed fee revision and on the Dunne bills follows:

"Readjustment of Oregon motor vehicle license fees now seems inevitable. Recent articles in the newspapers indicate that men high in the state's affairs are favorable to a new license law or a modification of the present law.

"The Motor Truck Owners Service bureau believes that a change is bound to come and that the so-called Dunne bills will be found unconstitutional if passed in November.

"We therefore urge that the committee authorized by the last legislature begin study of the license matter immediately, and that they include in the deliberations a representative of the state automobile and motor truck distributors, and one representative each of commercial, industrial and agricultural motor truck owners of wide experience in motor truck operation.

"Such a committee will, in our judgment, prepare and place before the next legislature in January, a just and equitable program for the licensing of motor vehicles in Oregon, without regard for any certain class of vehicle owners but in the best interests of all the people using motor equipment."

That is a just and fair attitude to take when considering the Dunne bills. It permits the state to go ahead with road work and with proper maintenance while a readjustment is accomplished gradually without injury to the state highway system. That is vital. We can't afford to go back to poor roads and the consequent higher cost of motor transportation. Vote "NO" on the Dunne bills next Tuesday.

The boisterous crowd was eager to catch a glimpse of Clarence Terhune, the 13-year-old country whose daring in mowing away aboard the airship had captured their imagination.

"Where's Terhune?" they kept yelling. "Let him come out." They implored. But what had happened to the youth was a mystery to the crowd that waited the arrival through his mail and then decide what to do next. "I'm not worrying about the future," he said, adding that he did not intend to remain in Europe for any length of time. He expressed the hope that he would find an offer among the stack of mail and telegrams awaiting him which will enable him to return to the United States as soon as possible.

When the customs officials entered the door of the cabin Mrs. Clara Adams of Tannersville, Pa., the only woman aboard, was standing framed in the doorway. She was greeted with loud cheers. A few minutes afterwards the score of passengers aboard, some of whom had made the trip to America and return by the airship, landed. Mrs. Adams being among the first.

The passengers and crew had great difficulty in getting out of the hangar into which part of the crowd had made its way while thousands outside cheered and bands played "Deutschland Ueber Alles" and "The Star Spangled Banner."

Dr. Eckener Tired

Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander and builder of the airship, asked to be excused from any reception formalities until 4 p. m. He explained that he was thoroughly tired.

"The zeppelin has stood the test," Dr. Eckener said this morning before driving off to his home for a rest. "The flight over the ocean and back has proved the possibility of trans-ocean air traffic."

Mrs. Adams was also asked to speak and also declined.

All German, Austrian and Swiss broadcasting stations were hooked up with the interphone so that radio fans could listen in on the homecoming.

Crowd Misses Terhune

Some after customs officials had boarded the air liner, the official reception committee of which John E. Reel, United States consul at Stuttgart, was a member, entered the saloon. Reel boarded the Zeppelin to meet Terhune, who was seen at the window of the observer's station, waving an excitement with the collar turned up. A few minutes later a German official handed Terhune a thermometer which the steward was reading with the assistance of Reel. Later Terhune temporarily was spirited out of the hangar to avoid him to the disappointment of the crowd.

Asked what he intended to do he replied that he must first look

POLITICAL ROW FATAL

SHARPSBURG, N. C., Nov. 1 (AP)—An argument over politics is said to have caused the shooting and fatal injury of Blaine Mabry, policeman, last night, by his brother-in-law, T. W. Pitts, former mayor of Sharpsburg.

AVIATOR KILLED

COMO, BOULDEN, Ont., Nov. 1 (AP)—Flying Officer A. E. Reynolds was killed today when his plane crashed. A passenger believed to be Major Currie of Ottawa, was seriously injured.

ABE MARTIN

"Paw said if he wuzin' home by ten o'clock we'd know he'd been held up, so we might as well all go t' bed," said Mrs. Leghorn Tharp, last night. Mrs. Artie Small put a story about Al Smith on th' air last night.

WHEAT NERVOUS AT CLOSE IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 1 (AP)—Opening 5c to 5¢ higher, the corn market afterward scored decided additional gains. Wheat and oats were also firmer, wheat starting 5c to 5c up and then reacting somewhat, but later outdoing initial gains. Provisions went lower.

Wheat closed nervous, at the same as yesterday's finish to 1¼c higher, corn 1c to 1¾c up, oats showing ¼ to ½ to ¾c gain, and provisions varying from 2c decline to a rise of 50 cents.

NATIONAL STRAW BALLOT RETURNS GIVE HOOVER WIN

margin of slightly over 2 to 1.

The completed returns show Smith receiving about 38 per cent of his support from those who stated that they voted republican in the last presidential election, while Hoover obtains over 75 per cent of his strength from those who professed they were republicans in 1924.

Of the 444,270 who cast ballots in this "straw" election but who did not vote in the official presidential election four years ago practically 60 per cent are voting republican and over 38 per cent are voting democratic in this "straw" poll.

UNION PACIFIC UP TO NEW HIGH LEVEL

NEW YORK, Nov. 1 (AP)—The stock market closed strong today. Extended buying of oils and investment railroads had a topic effect in the last hour, when the best prices of the day prevailed. Sinclair went through 40 after a block of 20,000 shares was taken at that figure and Phillips Petroleum made a new high for the year. Union Pacific reached 209½, the highest price in 20 years, and General Motors crossed 222. Shubert Theatre, Wright Aero, Timken Roller Bearing, Mathieson Alkali and A. M. Byers all participated in the late rise. Total sales approximated 3,200,000 shares.

A round bottle filled with hot water is superior to a flat iron for pressing seams in delicate goods.

TRADING FAIRLY ACTIVE DESPITE DRIZZLY WEATHER

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 1 (AP)—Despite drizzly weather, trading was fairly active on local wholesale fruit and vegetable markets this morning. Apples were moving freely, stimulated by national apple week advertising, but prices were steady. Extra fancy Delicious apples topped the market around 2.50@2.65 while best Oregon Spitzenbergs went at $2.00@2.25 per box. Other varieties were in profusion and ranged downward in price to 75@85c for fixed and filler stock.

Grapes were also in abundant supply and moved rather well.

The lettuce market was strong with good offerings limited and mostly from Paso and Walla Walla districts. Sales were largely at $4.00@4.25 per crate.

Cauliflower sold in about normal volume and prices were steady at 75c@$1.25 per crate depending on grade and size. Very little No. 1 stock was offered on the street.

Potatoes sold at steady prices but movement was comparatively light. California sweet potatoes moved fairly well at 4@4½c per pound but most interest was in the Virginia sweets selling at $5.25 per 150 pound barrel.

There were no changes in butter and egg quotations and the market tone was firm on the street today.

Except for an easy feeling in the pork division, country dressed meats and poultry were steady. Although receipts of hogs were light, the supply was liberal, a large portion of yesterday's stock being still unsold.

Earl M. Pallett May Succeed Dean

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 1 (AP)—Earl M. Pallet, registrar, has been recommended as acting dean of men at the University of Oregon for the rest of the academic year, to take the place held by Elmer L. Shirrell, who recently resigned, Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president, said today the name of Mr. Pallett will be submitted for approval of the university regents at the meeting called for Saturday.
