

Car Ditched But No One Badly Hurt

By Ethel Forsstrom
(Observer Correspondent)

PORTLAND, Nov. 3.—(AP)—Perry Smith and wife, of Tule, had a narrow escape when three brake bands on a light coupe broke and in some manner caught in the rear wheel, turning the wheel off and turning them over in the ditch. Mrs. Smith's hand was cut quite badly, but no damage was done to the car.

The city of North Tule police Thursday morning set the car up in the station. The business section represented anything from the farm to the gas station. From movable buildings brought down on the main street and along the street on a steamer would have been taken down for nothing. Someone will be injured if some one is caught in the car yard with a car and a car is all that is left of the car. No property was damaged.

Harold Hines returned Thursday morning on train No. 4 from Corvallis, Ore., where he has been employed in the logging camp. About a week ago he was struck on the leg with a log which pin him in the hospital for a few days in Portland.

Republican party candidates called on the people of North Tule.

for Thursday from La Grande. H. P. Higgs and family visited in Baker Thursday.

H. H. Neal, of La Grande, stopped over in North Powder Thursday. Mr. Neal has been working at Pendleton.

W. C. Perkins, of Perkins Motor Co. of La Grande, was in town on business Thursday.
